4-H Achievement Day Scheduled For March 13

The Achievement Day for 1963 will be held March 13, 1964 in the Epsom Gym at 7:30 p.m. This is late this year due to the shortage of personnel in the Extension Office.

This program is designed to recognize the 4-H Club members who have done outstanding work during the past year. This event is planned and carried out by the clubs. Each one is responsible for one part of the program. The clubs begin making plans weeks before the event to prepare for their part.

The devotional will be given by the Needmore Club. Epsom will be responsible for making arrangements for the meeting place and for the needed equipment for conducting the meeting. Invitations will be issued by the Centerville Club and they will also be the welcoming committee. The pledge to the American Flag will be led by the Justice Club and the Hickory Rock Club will lead the 4-H Club Pledge. Refreshments will be provided by Moulton-Ingleside and Louisburg will work with the programs. Clean up time will be taken care of by the Wood Club. Each group is responsible for publicity in their community. The 4-H Agents will give the awards for outstanding projects during 1963. A period of recreation will follow the program.

All 4-H members, parents and friends are invited.

Wood G.A.'s

The Wood G. A.'s met on Friday at the Wood Baptist Church with 9 members, two leaders and one visitor present.

Paula Gupton presided over the meeting. "Take Time To Be Holy" was the song used, and prayer was given by Judy Gupton. Patricia Hamlet called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting.

During the business meeting, members voted to give $5.00 to the Annie Armstrong offering. Paula Gupton led in prayer for the missionaries on the Prayer Calendar. The closing prayer was by Margaret Jones.

Observes Week Of Prayer

Youngsville - The Woman's Missionary Society of the Youngsville Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Berry Perce on Monday night, March 2, with ten members in attendance. Mrs. R. E. Cheatham, President, presided.

This meeting was to begin the week of Prayer for Home Missions—March 1-8. Program Chairman, Mrs. R. M. Cooper, presented an interesting program, "We Proclaim Christ." Pamphlets were distributed with reference for each day of the week, the theme being, "In Freedom's Holy Light." When you think of Home Missions, you are reminded of the Annie Armstrong Mission offering.

Among others present and participating in the program were Mesdames T. E. Lindsey, W. T. Holden, Ray Pearce, Clara N. Hart, Wiley Mitchell, Ray Strickland, G. W. Barnes, and Miss Blanch Mitchell.

Peculiar looking hats are still being shown in the shops but the good news is that crowns are to be lower this spring. Hair styles will move closer to the head and hats will also have a closer fit.
