Teenage Chat

By Faye Rudd

The holidays were traveling days for many of the local teens. Donna Crowder went to Mount Airy for the weekend. Martha Chadwick spent part of the week-end in Beaufort where she used to live. Roger Kornegay went to Norfolk, Virginia Monday. Heard you all had a very good time.

Robert Strother, Chris Beck, Bobby Mitchell, and Charles Oakley left last Saturday for a holiday camp-out at Buggs Island. They carried their food and cooked for themselves.

Why didn't you bring us some of your "delicious" cooking? How did you get Sunday night? Did I hear one of you say that it felt as if the temperature was twenty below zero? It seems Charles couldn't brave the weather and came home early. How about it, Charles? Who was walking around the camp Sunday night trying to play with the fire? Did you ever find the dog or whatever it was that stole the shrimp? I hear that you are all wanted.

Heard Joe Pearce was doing excellent work over at Carolina. Keep up the good work, Joe. By the way, Joe, who was that good looking girl I heard you were with not too long ago?

Carolyn W., Judy W., Christine R., and Debra R. went to Raleigh Sunday to see the movie "Love With the Proper Stranger" and recommends it to everyone. Heard you had quite a time at Shoneys. Tell us about it.

Congratulations go out to Doris Roberson and Greg Andrews on their engagement. Doris is from Louisburg, and Greg is from Youngsville.

The Azalea Festival is going to be this week-end at Wilmington. I'm sure many of the county teens are planning to go. The Louisburg Senior Band is in the morning parade Saturday. We'll be watching for you, so do your very best.
