No Need To Worry

"Say, mistress, is this veal or pork?"
"Can't you taste the difference?"
"No, I can't."
"Well, then, why worry what it is?"

Teenage Chat

By Faye Rudd

Baseball season has begun. Last week Louisville High School played South Granville at Louisville College and won with a score of 15 to 6. They play Bunn Tuesday and Franklinton at Franklinton Friday.

There were many happenings around the state this past weekend. One of these was the State F. B. L. A. Convention held in Winston Salem. Those from Louisville High School who went were Donna Crowder, Sheila Latta, Becky Perdue, Ford Perry, Frankie Redmond, Buddy O'Neal, and Mrs. Arnold. Donna Crowder entered the contest for Miss F. B. L. A. and won third prize from a group of about thirty-five contestants. What are you going to do with the prize money, Donna? Heard a certain three tried to get it from you Sunday night. Someone wants to know how Becky P. liked the pickle. How about it, Becky? Ford P., what was taken from you Friday night? What would you have done if you had not found it? Why did you seem to have the hives, Buddy O.? From the sound of things, you all must have had a very good time.

Another event this weekend was the State F. H. A. Convention which was held in Raleigh Saturday at the Memorial Auditorium. Those from Louisville attending were Kay Rowe, Connie Leonard, Patricia Dickerson, Betty Murphy, Dale Allen, Nell Strickland, Helen Bailey, Mrs. B. T. Rowe, Sr., and Mrs. Leonard, the sponsor. The main feature for the morning program was Dr. Mirion Moore from East Carolina College speaking on Family Living —Old and Precious Values. A play on family living was presented in the afternoon.

The Azalea Festival was another attraction for the weekend. Others than the members of the Louisville Band, Darrell P., Tommy E., Emma Ruth B., Jo Ann H., Guy T., Faye R., George G., and Bettie and William R. were seen. Everyone seemed to have a very good time. The band members said they are still hoarse from singing all the way home on the bus. Another attraction was the Southern Quarter Drag Strip in Clarkton. Those who went were Charles Lyle, Jack and Nell Strickland, Lewis and Barbara Moore, Gai Jenkins, Eugene Shearin, and Buddy Beatty. Jack won F/S with his '60 Chevrolet with a speed of 101/92 miles per hour and an E. T. of 14.02. He also won B/G with his '55 Chevy with a speed of 111/62 miles per hour and an E. T. of 13.10. Congratulations, Jack. The thought for the day is: "Observe, without labor, nothing prospers." ---Condi.

Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to Dr. Walter F. Cole, the nurses at Franklin Memorial Hospital, and to our many friends for their kindness and expressions of sympathy during the illness and loss of our loved one, Dorothy Tharrington Gupton. May God's richest blessings be with you always.

Ben A. Gupton and Daughters Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tharrington and Family.

Brandywine Singers To Appear

The Brandywine Singers, five young graduates of the University of New Hampshire, will appear here in concert Tuesday, April 14, at 8:00 p. m. in the College Auditorium.

Currently on a southern tour, these talented young folksingers have recently appeared at Dartmouth, Boston, Tufts, Smith, Harvard, Yale, Amherst, Radcliffe, and most all the major colleges and universities along the eastern United States. They have performed at many music festivals, music theaters, and toured four weeks with the Johnny Mathis Show. Their TV debut has been with the ABC network.

Their origin as a professional group began on the UNH campus where twin brothers, Ron and Ric Shaw, joined voices and guitars with fellow students -- Dave Craig, Fred Corbett, and Hal Brown.

They have consistently exhibited a rare understanding of the material they present. Their method of presentation is different, as well; their's is a wave of sound in which it is almost impossible to distinguish the separate voices. But this blend did not happen by accident, and their patient efforts at improving it, influenced their winning first honors at the Inter-Collegiate Musical Festival at Williamsport, Pennsylvania last year. Sponsored by a number of student organizations at the college, tickets are now on sale at C & P Music Co., or at the door.

Hanging Baskets Topic Of Club

The April meeting of the Louisville Garden Club was held at the lovely lake cottage of Mrs. Marvin Pleasants, on Thursday, April 2. Mrs. Max Brown and Mrs. D. L. Perry were co-hostesses with Mrs. Pleasants.

After delicious light refreshments, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. W. H. Allen, Jr., president. The usual business agenda followed and then

Mrs. W. L. Lumpkin introduced Mrs. Herbert Scoggin, who gave a most interesting talk on the making and filling of Hanging Baskets. She suggested using Rattan, Plastic, Wire, etc. and flowers that lend themselves gracefully to such a project. She named Geraniums, Begonias and Petunias.

Mrs. L. F. Oxnevad demonstrated making a Hanging Basket, lined it with moss.

Woman's Club Sees Slides

(Frk. B. W.) The Home Life Department of the Franklinton Woman's Club was in charge of the program at the monthly meeting of the club Thursday evening at the Community House.

Miss Frances Wortham introduced Mr. Tommie Stephens, local agriculture teacher, who showed colored slides of his trip to Nova Scotia. The slides depicted the homes, occupations, recreation, landmarks and beautiful scenery of the country.

Mrs. Richard Whitfield recognized Dwight Murray, who portrayed Ed Sullivan in a musical pantomime. He introduced the Franklinton Beatles: Brenda Webb as John Lennon; Diane Henson as Paul McCartney; Martha Whitfield as George Harrison; Donna Kay Harper as Ringo Starr. Barry Burger was recognized as a raving teenager.

Mrs. Raymond Harris presided over the business session at which time Mrs. Charles Julian reported on the Beautification Program. The club voted to have two planters placed in front of the school.

National Library Week was announced for April 12-18. The club, who sponsors the local library, will observe Open House on Friday, April 17.

Mrs. Harris was named as delegate to the state convention in Greensboro and Mrs. Richard Whitfield as alternate.

The annual banquet was announced for May 7 with the place to be announced later. The club approved a donation to the Cancer Drive.

Jonquills and narcissus decorated the Community House. Miss Leah Whitfield was recognized as a guest.

ALA Studies Ecuador

Ecuador, the Pan-American Study, was explored by Mrs. James Johnson Friday evening at the meeting of the Legion Auxiliary Friday evening in the home of Miss Elizabeth Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson described the geography, climate, cultures and educational system of Ecuador, a most interesting country. Following the opening formalities, Mrs. F. M. Fuller, president, read communications concerning the District Meeting in Pine Level April 7 and the sellout of the auxiliary cookbooks.

Mrs. C. R. Sykes, chairman of the nominating committee, announced the following slate of officers, who will begin service after the state convention in June: President, Mrs. Gladys Perry; Vice-President, Elizabeth Johnson; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Vernon Stone and Mrs. Harold Williams; Chaplain, Mrs. John Stovall; Sergeant-at-Arms, Mrs. Nobe Medlin.

Paulette Mullen and Toni Merritt, rising seniors at Louisville School, were chosen as Girls State Representatives with Betty Lou Medlin and Trudy Jones as alternates. Girls State will be held June 7-13 at W. C. U.N.C., Greensboro. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. James Johnson served Queen Elizabeth's cake and coffee.

Barbecue Supper

There will be a Barbecue Supper on Friday, April 10, 1964 from 5 to 8 p.m., in Youngsville School Cafeteria. This supper is sponsored by the National Guard NCO Club. Take-out plates will be available.

The public is invited to attend.
