Fire Dept. Has Open House

ternoon, April 12, the Youngs-ville Fire Department had open house at the new Fire Station on Cross Street.

On arrival, guests were greeted by Mayor and Mrs. Marvin Roberts who introduced them to the receiving line composed of Town Commissioners and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. David Cyrus, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moss, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pearce. They were then directed through the town office section, the office of the station, and into the open fire station area by Mr. and Mrs. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. N. A. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Evans.

si Colas were served by the bers. Lovely floral arrangerected to the front of the build- Jones Winston. ing where Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Youngsville -- On Sunday af- | Tharrington and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall presided over the Register, Guests were pleased to see a lovely gold plaque and cuff link and tie pen set which were presented by the citizens of Youngsville to Mr. James T. Allen in appreciation for valuable service to the community of Youngsville. Approximately 175 guests called during the hours from 3 until 5 o'clock, Other firemen and wives assisting during the open-house were: Mr. and Mrs. Al De-Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Dement, Police Chief and Mrs. J. A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlief, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Refreshments of various Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Louis cookies, potato chips and Pep- Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Mr. and Mrs. Ruswives of fire department mem- sell Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Talments were used throughout the station in decoration. After R. F. Potts, Mr. and Mrs. refreshments, guests were di- James Smith and Mr. and Mrs.

Louisburg Rotarians Hear Moss

businessman-farmer spoke to North Carolina in agriculture the Louisburg Rotary Club last Thursday night. Moss, who was presented by W. J. Benton, Program Chairman, spoke on International. his recent visit to Europe to Moss rela attend the International Lions Club Convention.

Benton introduced Moss as one of the Nation's four outstanding farmers and told of his many

Ruth Mercer Circles Meet

(Frk. B. W.) Ruth Mercer Circle No. 2 of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Tommie Stephens on Thursday evening. During the business session the members completed plans for the Sub-District meeting Do You Plant which is to be held at the local Methodist Church on April 22. Mrs. B. N. Williamson, Jr. gave a financial report.

Mrs. C. H. Weston was in charge of the devotionals. She introduced the Rev. Lawrence Bridges, who was the guest Christian Home and the Christian Family, Mr. Bridges related how families, through the centuries, have changed their way of living. He emphasized the need for prayer and a Christian attitude in every home. During the social hour, the hostess served coffee and cake.

(Frk. B. W.) Ruth Mercer Circle No. 1 of the W.S.C.S. of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the home of District meeting of the W.S.C.S. Mrs. Becton Corbin on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Woodrow Haskins presided over the meeting. She introduced the Rev. Lawrence Bridges, pastor of the local Methodist Church.

Mr. Bridges gave a very informative talk on "The Christian Home and the Christian

James Moss, Youngsville accomplishments throughout and Lions work. Moss is presently President of the Past District Governors of Lions

Moss related his visits through England, France, Denmark, Norway, Monaco. He told of the difference in agriculture in Europe and here and the differences he witnessed between countries in Europe.

County, Commissioner Chairman W. P. Childers, Alfred Goodwin, manager of Johnso Cotton Co. and Clint Fuller, Managing Editor of The Franklin Times were special guests at the meeting.

In-coming President Jim Brown presided in the absence of President Jimmy Weathers of the people do not even bother tives here this week. to plant a garden? This fact was brought out by C. T. Dean, In his talk about the Jr., County Extension Chairman, at the regular meeting of the Justice Community Development Organization Thursday night, April 9.

A Garden?

Slides were used in a discussion of garden sites, soils and irrigation fertilizers, and recommended varieties of vegetables.

During the business session, Mrs. Charlie Hight, Jr., gave a financial report. was announced for April 22

Flowers were assigned for the church sanctuary for the month of May. Plans were made to take a covered dish supper to one of the circle members.

and coffee during the social nothing hour.

Bradel Makes Friends With "Herman"

April 23-25 production of HAM- musical comedies, concerts, LET, is busy making friends and dance performances. The be connected to any dimmer flickering firelight below the with "Herman," newest ad- Louisburg Jaycees, who have without moving from the condition to the lighting facilities been active in helping to equip trol board, on the Louisburg College stage. the College theater as second to Joe Bradel, who is an ama-Chost appears, it's all the magic Joe Bradel is a Sophomore from no community theater in the teur pilot, will program and of Joe Bradel and "Herman", on the Louisburg College stage. the College theater as second to Goldsboro. "Herman" is a state, donated approximately a operate the lights for HAMLET and their friends. 2100-watt follow spotlight.

Bobbitt

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mitchell, ell visited Mr. and Mrs. John Broughton at Zebulon Sunday

Mrs. Paurie Clayton of Henderson and the Macy Rowlands from Wilson were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Rowland

Mrs. Russell Heartwell from Did you know that 25 per cent McKenney, Va., is visiting rela-

> Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lassier of Henderson were guests of the Robert Lassiters Sunday afternoon.

nois and Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sipes from Graham visited the R. J.

Mrs. Sallye Wortham of Apex was dinner guest of Mrs. E. S. Abbott Sunday.

Bobbitt Home Demonstration Club members attended the Fifteenth District Home Demon stration meeting in Warrenton Wednesday.

Worrying about little things The hostess served lemen pie is largely a result of having important to worry Louisburg Players' the College primarily for use in for each dimmer). Upwards instrument.

own 60-volt transformer, built- a Players' Best Technician ain colorframes, beam, focus, and aperture adjustments that the auditorium balcony.

struments -- Birdseyes, fresrated capacity of 2500 watts mantle clad", such of forty different outlets can HAMLET, or the chill night,

Joe Bradel, who is an amaquarter of the cost of the new as he has for several other of the Louisburg Players' produc-"Herman" brings with him his tions. Last year he received ward.

Flexible lighting is the unique Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Rowland allow him to halo an actor's feature of modern theater, and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mitch- head or flood the stage with Shakespeare wrote HAMLET bright light in any shape. He'll for an open-air theater where make his permanent address in the afternoon sunlight provided the control booth, located in illumination. The only use of ling. This entertainment was a lights was with torches and can- great thrill to each cub in at-Big brother "Herman" joins dies, merely to suggest to the tendance. Those attending were a large family of lighting in- audience imagination that if Ricky Dement, Robert Davis, struments -- Birdseyes, fres-nels, and ellipsoidal spotlights. it must be night. Some of Curtis White, Lin Cyrus, Ran-Heart of the college stage light- | Shakespeare's most memorable | dy Haley, Duke Holmes, Ricky ing system -- probably as ade- poetry was the result of his Murphy, Buddy Mitchell, Dougquate as any system in the attempts to create lighting las Carter, Tim Wiggins, Johnstate -- is a control board effects with words. In modern ny O'Neal, Ricky Reddick, Benconsisting of 19 autotrans- productions, where stage lights ny, Kenny, and Charles Wood-former dimmers, each with a can show the "morn in russet lief, Gordan and Johnny Conword gers, and Den Chiefs, Wade Hol-

(in addition to two non-dimmer pictures are usually cut from den and Harold Kearny.

Adults accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Maryland Epsom

Visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian K. Weldon for this weekend are their daughters and families: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Price and Gene Alston-Pleasants scholarship Pleasants of Louisburg. She of Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. Jofor study at the University of donated $100,000 to the Uniseph Williams and Cecelia Jo of Rose Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason of Henderson, and Miss Carolyn Weldon of Peace College, Raleigh.

in that great moment when the

With The

Scouts

The three Dens of Cub Scouts

in Troop 588 were in Raleigh

Wednesday night

The test of sincerity is the unwillingness of an individual to do something without compensation.

Locals Attend Baptist Meet

to make plans for this year's the hospital and its needs. Mother's Day Offering. The Last year's Mother's Day fund offering, which will be received in some 3,000 Baptist churches of the state on May 10, will be used to support the hospital's extensive program for care of care.

the needy sick. representative of the Tar River Association and is pastor of the Red Bud and Wood Baptist member of the Red Bud church. Joseph E. Savage of Spring Hope is moderator of the association and Rev. Robert

Winston Salem -- Rev. R. R. | Latham of Route 4, Louisburg, Boone Jr., of Louisburg, Route is the association's superinten-2, and Edward G. Parrish of dent of missions. These leaders Castalia represented the Tar will work with pastors, Sun-River Association at a meeting day School superintendents and of leaders of 80 Baptist As- others in local churches plansociations in North Carolina at ning and conducting a program Baptist Hospital here recently of information and emphasis on made it possible for the hospital to serve 15,153 patients who could not pay for essential medical treatment and hospital They came to the hospital from 97 North Caro-Rev. Mr. Boone is the hospital lina counties. Nearly 40 per cent of the hospital work is for patients who are unable to pay the full cost of their care. churches. Mr. Parrish is a Ninety-five per cent of the patients, both service and private, are referred to it from cities

TRACTORS

841	Ford		1695.00
30	Ferguson		895.00
30	Ferguson		1095.00
30	Ferguson		1050.00
C	Farmall		400.00
8W	Ford		600.00
8W	Ford		685.00
TE 20	Ferguson		400.00
VAS .	Case		350.00
VAC	Case		150.00
9N	Ford		375.00
MF 35	Diesel		1695.00
Allis Chalm	Control of the Contro
with plow		911.	895.00
ALTERNATION OF		1.6

TRUCKS

56	Dodge 1/2 ton	400.00
56	Ford 1/2 ton	375.00
58	Chev. 1/2 ton	895.00
51	Chev. 1/2 ton	140.00
56	Mercury	150.00
53	Mercury	100.00
51	Chev.	75.00
51	Chev.	100.00

Used Equipment Of All Kinds

Rakes Planters Cultivators Disc Harrows Bottom Plows Disc Plows

Tractor & Truck Co.

MASSEY-FERGUSON AND CASE TRACTORS AND IMPLEMENTS. WADE-RAIN IRRIGATION SYSTEMS. NEW-HOLLAND FARM MACHINERY-

New Brick Home Plans Book Offers 42 Varied Designs

FREE! at your brick supplier's office (or send 10¢ with coupon below to cover cost of mailing)

Attractive house plans in a wide choice of architectural styles and sizes, ranging from 1,000 to 2,500 square feet, are clearly displayed in this new 52-page book showing outside elevations and detailed floor arrangements. Working drawings and outline specifications of all 42 plans can be easily ordered from this book. These brick homes are carefully designed for both beauty and convenience—and with brick you know you will have an enduring structure that will grow even more beautiful with the passing years.

Pick up or send for your book of plans today!

TO: Brick and Tile Service, Inc. Box 6305, Summit Station Greensboro, N. C.

Please send me the new book "BRICK HOMES FOR BETTER LIVING." I enclose 10¢ for handling

NAME ADDRESS

ZONE STATE

Rev. R. J. Rudd has returned from holding revivals in Illi-Halifax Student Wins ans, Mr. and Mrs. Maryland from holding revivals in Illi-Alston-Pleasants Gift Hill--Jacob Leon mer. The Alston-Pleasants Schol-

Dickens, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dickens of Route 2, arship was founded in 1958 by Halifax, is the recipient of the the late Mrs. Missouri Alston

Franklin counties, consists of $1250 per year for four years of study at UNC.

class academically at Weldon High School. He has been an active participant on the basketball team, in the Beta Club and on the annual staff where he serves as co-editor. He tended Boys State and re ed an honorable mention award in the UNC Extension Division program in French last suman independent agent makes The Big Difference in insurance! His continuing, personal attention to any insurance needs saved me thousands of dollars." Be glad, not sad! Call us, any

INSURANCE AGENCY

Phone GY 6-3565 N. Main St. Louisburg, N. C.

arship was founded in 1958 by versity for a trust fund to be The scholarship, open to residents of Halifax, Warren and dents of the three mentioned counties who possess high scholastic records and continue to maintain them while at UNC Dickens is the first in his The award was established in memory of Mrs. Pleasant's grandfather, Willis Alston.

HMMY

OPEN ALL DAY WEDNESDAY. Leggetts Home of Better Values

OUR OWN WASH & WEAR IV BERMUDA SHORTS 63% Dacron 37% Cotton

SIZES 28-38 2.99 - 4.99

GET A 31/2" × 5" PHOTO IN LIVING COLOR OF YOUR CHILD 976 THURSDAY - FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
April 16th - 17th and 18th
HOURS 9:30 to 5:30 EACH DAY

. No Appointment Needed

Selection of Several Poses

. Babies and Chilren of All Ages Photo Delivered At Store A Few Days After Taken

THE LOOK OF LINEN IN RAYON, FLAX, & COTTON 22.99

LIGHTEST, COOLEST BLEND POSSIBLE WITHOUT GIVING UP MINT GREEN & LT. BLUE REG. & LONGS 36-42