

Louisburg Man Weds In New Bern Ceremony

On Saturday, June twentieth, in Trinity Methodist Church, New Bern, North Carolina, at four o'clock in the afternoon, Irene Collins Johnson became the bride of Jarvis Stillman Scott of Louisburg. The Reverend John T. Smith officiated.

The church sanctuary was decorated with palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli, interspersed with nine branched candelabra holding burning cathedral candles. Pews were marked with bells and ribbons.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Andrew W. Fuller of New Bern, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. Accompanied by Mrs. Fuller, Miss Catharine Latta, mezzo-soprano, of New Bern sang "When Thou Art Near" and "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of blue silk organza over taffeta featuring a sleeveless lace bodice with bell-shaped bouffant skirt. Her blue illusion veil was attached to a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a Bible centered with a white orchid showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. Cecilia Kibbe of New Bern was matron of honor. She wore a street-length dress of ice pink organza featuring a lace jacket and matching hat. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations tied with matching ribbons.

Benjamin W. Thomas, Jr., of Kinston was best man. Ushers were Ronald J. Collins, brother of the bride, of New Bern and J. A. Sauls of Goldsboro.

Mrs. Collins, mother of the bride, wore a mauve pink sheath of silk organza over taffeta embroidered with lace appliques and matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Mrs. Scott chose for her son's wedding a pink silk sheath with black accessories and she, too, wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Scott is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, 802 Watson Avenue, New Bern. She attended East Carolina College and was graduated from Connor's Business College, New Bern. Prior to her marriage she was employed by the North Carolina Probation Commission and was organist at Trinity Methodist Church in New Bern.

Mr. Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis M. Scott of Weeksville. He attended Fork Union Military Academy and received his Bachelor of Music degree from Westminster Choir College, Princeton, New Jersey. He is employed as a State Probation Officer by the North Carolina Probation Commission and is stationed at Louisburg where he also serves as Director of Music at the Louisburg Baptist Church.

Immediately following a reception given at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for unannounced points. For going away, the bride chose a three-piece suit of navy blue silk shantung trimmed with white and white accessories. She wore the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. The couple will make their home at 107 Middle Street, Louisburg.

Mrs. Wade H. Ball of New Bern presided over the guest book at the church.

RECEPTION

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Stillman Scott, the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, entertained at a reception at their home immediately following the ceremony. Arrangements of summer flowers were used throughout the home. The bride's table was covered with a white crocheted tablecloth over green appointed with crystal punch bowl and candelabra. Assisting in serving punch, wedding cake, mints and nuts were Mrs. Milton T. Powell and Mrs. Almond J. Cox both of New Bern.

4H Club Workshop Held

Many of the 4-H girls in Franklin County are taking clothing for a project. A workshop for the younger group was planned for the 16th and 17th of June. This was to help them have a better understanding of the sewing machine, the need for pressing a garment and some construction. Club leaders and clothing leaders from some of the Home Demonstration Clubs agreed to work with Mrs. Frances Fuller, Home Economics Extension Agent, and Mrs. Bernice S. Harris, Assistant Home Economics Extension Agent, in this project.

Nineteen girls attended this workshop bringing with them sewing equipment, shift patterns and material. They first studied the machine to help later with the construction of the shift. A demonstration was given on laying out patterns. Then the girls went to work on their shifts. Each was checked before cutting was done. They worked for two days on these.

From Needmore, Diane Canady, Connie Hagwood, Jan Wilder and Sara Wilder attended. The Louisburg Club was represented by Pam Stone, Cynthia Shillinglaw, Patricia Freeman, Connie Faulkner, and Debbie Faulkner. Bertha Anne Fuller and Starr Cardwell came from Moulton-Ingleside Club. Epsom had Pam Moss and Alice Ayscue. Justice was represented by Brenda Long, Pam Harris, Sandra Harris and Myra Harris. The Hickory Rock Club had Ella Swanson and Connie Bobbitt.

The girls worked from 9:00 to 4:00 each day and had a picnic at lunch. Mrs. Edward Boone from the Justice 4-H Club, and Mrs. Clarence Goswick and Mrs. Mary Wilder from the Needmore 4-H Club worked with the girls. Mrs. Robert Harris and Mrs. Onnie Bowden of the Justice Home Demonstration Club also helped.

News from Hollywood

British actor Peter Sellers and his wife, Britt Ekland, have returned to London. Sellers has recovered from a recent heart attack.

Judy Gariand, having fully recovered from pleurisy in Hong Kong, plans to sail to Rome with her actor companion, Mark Herron.

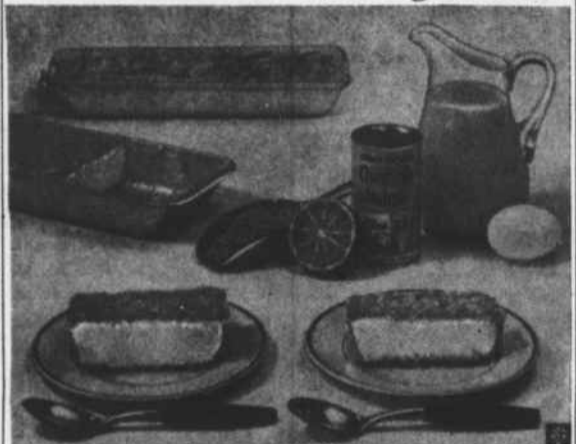

After 14 years of Hollywood acting and 3 of television, Richard Boone is moving his family to Hawaii. He's not retiring from acting--Hollywood is only 4 1/2 hours away by jet.

Poor Teachers

A college student had been pestering his father for a new car. On a visit to the campus, the parent pointed out that most of the cars in the parking lot were quite old.

"But dad," the youth protested, "those cars belong to the faculty!"

Summertime Frozen Orange Dessert

This delightfully refreshing, quick orange frozen dessert is ideal for summer, and it's easier to prepare than ice cream. You can make it ahead in the cool of the morning and freeze until serving time in refrigerator trays.

When fresh Florida oranges are no longer in the market, make up the amount of juice required in the recipe from frozen Florida orange juice concentrate to give a naturally pure, not-too-sweet flavor. Eggs and heavy cream make the dessert smooth and creamy, and crisp graham cracker crumbs mixed with sugar and butter make a crunchy bottom layer and topping for texture contrast. Serve portions right from the refrigerator trays; anything left over goes back into the freezer for second helpings later!

Fresh-frozen orange juice concentrate, processed from Florida's finest, carefully selected citrus fruit, is as delicious as it is healthful, and makes this an easy-to-prepare cool dessert you'll enjoy all summer long.

Quick Orange Frozen Dessert

1 cup graham cracker crumbs	1/8 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar, divided	-3 eggs, separated
1/4 cup butter, melted	1 1/2 cups Florida orange juice
2 tablespoons cornstarch	3 tablespoons lime juice
	1 1/2 cups heavy cream, whipped

Combine graham cracker crumbs, 2 tablespoons of the sugar and butter. Mix well; reserve. Mix remaining 1/3 cup sugar, cornstarch and salt in saucepan. Stir in egg yolks, orange juice and lime juice. Place over medium heat and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat; chill. Sprinkle half the reserved crumb mixture on the bottom of 2 refrigerator trays or a 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Fold into orange mixture; fold in whipped cream. Turn into refrigerator trays; top with remaining crumb mixture. Freeze until firm.

YIELD: 2 quarts.

On The Aisle

A woman went into a department store and asked: "Where may I find stockings?" "Aisle C," replied the clerk. The woman waited ten minutes and then repeated: "Where will I find stockings?" "Aisle C," replied the clerk again.

"That's what you told me a while ago," snapped the woman, "and you didn't even look. I'll see for myself."

We are certainly missing Dona Wheelless who left last Wednesday to go to summer school at East Carolina College. There are others whom we are missing because they are also in summer school at various places. Many local students are attending summer school at Louisburg College. How do you like studying in this hot weather?

Word has it that Tony Fuller has a new red, 1964 Chevy. How are you liking sporting around in that new car, Tony? How did you talk certain people into buying one? I'm sure others in the county would like to know your technique so that they can try it out and see if it works for them.

We are sorry to hear that Judy Wilder hasn't been feeling well this week but are happy to Prints in chiffon, silks and cottons are very good this season. A printed chiffon, with a cowl neck and sleeveless, is made with a skirt that is easy but not full. It has a basic color underskirt.

Silk suits of printed material are favorites. Bright colors in a background of white are used.

Sheath dresses of printed silk or of some of the newer fabrics are shown for evening wear at resorts. Many of these are ankle-length and sleeveless.
