

To Vie For Queenship

A recent graduate of Louisburg High School is the only freshman among the sixteen contestants for Summer School Queen at East Carolina College, according to a release from the College News Bureau.

Dona Wheless, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James B. Wheless of 612 North Main Street, Louisburg, was chosen as a candidate from the 3,500 students at the summer session. She is a major in the field of education at the school.

The attractive Louisburg native was a member of the basketball squad at Louisburg, in the cast of the recent senior play and participated in many school activities during her high school career. She graduated last June.

Contestants represent 11 North Carolina Counties and two Virginia cities. The Queen will be crowned by Student Government Association Vice President, Ronald E. Dowdy of Alexandria, Va., Friday night. The crowning of the new queen, who will succeed Raleigh's Sandra Denton, will take place in Wright Auditorium during the annual dance, the social highlights of the summer session.

Sandy Creek Calls Pastor

REV. J. M. HUGHES
Sandy Creek Baptist Church has called Rev. Joe M. Hughes as pastor as of July 26, 1964. Rev. Hughes received a B. S. degree from Erskine College in 1954. He taught school until 1960 when he accepted his call to the ministry.

He has attended Southeastern Seminary at Wake Forest for two semesters and plans to re-enter there this fall. He comes to us from Walnut Grove Baptist Church in Hodges, South Carolina.

He is married to the former Virginia McNeill of Ware Shoals, S. C. They have two children a son, Steve, age 5 and a daughter, Mary Beth, age 2. They will be moving into our community July 21, 1964.

Paints Wrong House

Gaffney, S. C.--A painting contractor and his workers arrived at the home of Mrs. Margaret Love and finding no one home they applied the first coat of paint to the building. Then they discovered the house they were painting was the wrong one. The boss moved the crew to the right house and put the next coat on the proper house.

He is happy whose circumstances suit his temper; but he is more excellent who can suit his temper to any circumstances.

They Meant It

Insurance Man: Ever had any accidents?
Westerner: Nope. Got a couple of rattlesnake bites though.
Insurance Man: Great Scott, man! Don't you call those accidents?
Westerner: No sir. They bite me on purpose.

This is the time of year when it really pays to advertise.

Flattery can move mountains and gullible human beings.

Country Clothes

In schools and colleges across the nation--Country Clothes by Pendleton are a back-to-school pre-requisite. Paired to excel in campus good looks are these terrific teammates. You'll love the easy elegance of Pendleton's fall '64 collection of current and classic campus casuals. And, remember, Pendleton considers your fashion needs as well as your budget. For study hours or extra curricular activities, choose 100% virgin wool Country Clothes by Pendleton and walk away with top honors. At favored department and specialty stores throughout the U. S. A.

On Military Draft

A bill has been proposed to eliminate the military draft by 1967. Senator Nelson (D., Wis.) who proposed the bill said that taking an average of less than 100,000 men a year from a pool of more than 12,000,000 was unjust, unfair, uneconomic and unnecessary. He said that both Britain and Canada have eliminated the draft making the military an all professional voluntary organization.

You can't foretell the future always by the past--usually because you don't know the past.

Mrs. Weathers Speaks To New Club

Youngsville -- Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., President of the Fourteenth District of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs, was guest speaker at the first meeting of the newly organized Creedmoor Woman's Club last Friday evening at the Thompson Memorial Community House in Creedmoor.

Mrs. Weathers spoke on "Our Federation Heritage" and related many accomplishments of loyal and dedicated clubwomen. She welcomed the Creedmoor Club into the N. C. Federation, which is part of the largest women's organization in the world, the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

An impressive Installation Service was conducted by members of the Butler Woman's Club, which is the sponsoring club. Following the service, a lovely reception was held for the 22 charter members of the Creedmoor Club present and the approximately 25 guests in attendance.

Roll Call

Chief--All right, you blankety blank so and so's, fall out! Everyone rushed out except one boot.

Chief--Well!
Boot--There were sure a lot of them, weren't there?

Clubs Hold District Institute

Club leaders from the twenty-seven Women's Clubs of District Fourteen will attend the annual Summer Institute meeting on July 20 in Roanoke Rapids, N. C. Hostesses for the day will be members of the Roanoke Rapids Women's Clubs. Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., of Youngsville, District President, will preside at the leadership conference which will be held at the Rebel Restaurant.

"The Institute is really a workshop for club leaders, where they learn the state Federation program and adapt it to their local needs," stated Mrs. Weathers. District Department Chairmen, who recently attended Council-Institute in Greensboro will present the Federation Program. The local club presidents will be instructed by the District President. Ample time will be given for questions and answers. The First Vice President of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc., Miss Marjorie Yokley, of Mt. Airy and the Director of Districts, Mrs. Julian Porter, of Severn, will attend.

Though primarily for local club officers, department chairmen, and other leaders, all club members are welcome. Coffee will be served to registrants as they convene at 9:30 o'clock and luncheon will be served in the Rebel dining room. The regular session will begin at 10:00 o'clock.

Other district officers assisting in the meeting include Mrs. W. W. Wicks, of Roanoke Rapids, vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Freeman of Youngsville, secretary; and Mrs. R. B. Butler, of Warrenton, treasurer. Mrs. Stephen Daniel, of Norlina, is the Director of Juniors in the District.

Film Revue

Wild and Wonderful

Tony Curtis and wife, Christine Kaufmann, are the principal characters in this comedy filmed in Paris. However, this statement might hurt Monsieur Cognac's feelings. You see, Cognac is a male poodle who believes he's more people than dog and he loves expensive liquors.

It's love at first "touch" for Tony and Christine. Papa, Christine's father, is against their marriage, but a faithful butler comes to their rescue. When Tony and Christine retire to the bedroom, who do you think is settled in the middle of the bed? You're right, Mr. Cognac! With a few glasses of spirits and several charming girl poodles, Tony solves Mr. Cognac's problems and its clear sailing for him and his bride.

Bedtime Story

Marlon Brando departs from his usual style and does an excellent job in the comedy field. Putting Brando and David Niven together is no mistake. Adding Shirley Jones, Dody Goodman and others round out a cast capable of offering 99 minutes of real fun even though the plot is light. Both Niven and Brando are con men living off dumb, beautiful and rich women. When Brando leaves his German conquest and moves to the French Riviera, there's no end to the plotting and tricks each tries on the other in an attempt to take over as king. You can never guess what will happen next.

Death

JOE PERSON

Wake Forest--Funeral services for Joe Person, 66, who died Tuesday at his home in Wake Forest, will be held Friday at 3 p.m. at Union Chapel. The Rev. Cirviny will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Anna Person; three daughters, Mrs. Annie M. Winston of Youngsville, Mrs. Malissa Teasley of Zebulon and Mrs. Alice Dunn of Neuse; two brothers, Dallas and Faucette Person, both of Granville County; 27 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Leonard Bass Earp, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Earp of 109 Shirley Street, Tarboro, has enlisted in the United States Navy under the High School Graduate Training Program which assures him prior to enlisting the best training modern industry can provide in a Navy Trade School.

Leonard was transferred to the U. S. Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Illinois, for nine weeks' recruit training. He will then return home for a two weeks' leave period according to Chief Alfred Jefferson, local Navy recruiter for this area. Prior to his enlistment in the Navy, Leonard graduated from Tarboro High School. Leonard's father formerly lived in the Justice community.
