Health And Beauty

It is well to bear in mind that dangerous germs are always present in the normal skin, especially in the fold around the hair follicles and in the oil glands about the nose and back. As a rule they cause no harm, but are capable of causing serious infections if a person's skin becomes broken or abraded, or the vitality is lowered for any reason. When the skin is kept in a healthy condition, face powder is a great aid to beauty. It removes the shiny appearance, so sought after by the African, but deprecated by the Caucasian. It also practically conceals minor defects, such as discolorations and so forth. The powder does not clog the pores and cause blackheads if removed at night by cream or by washing the face. In fact,

Revival Services To Be Held

Bethlehem Baptist

Revival services will be held at Bethlehem Baptist Church October 4 through 9, each evening at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. E. T. Vinson of New Port, N. C., a former pastor, will be the guest speaker. Special music will be presented each evening. The public is cordially invited to attend. Homecoming will be observed on Sunday, October 4.

Harris Chapel

Revival Services will start at the Harris Chapel Baptist Church Monday night, October 5, at 7:45 p.m. Rev. Fred Crowder will conduct the services which will run through Sunday morning, October 11. The revival will be climaxed by homecoming services Sunday afternoon of October 11. Rev. Crowder is presently a student at New Orleans Baptist Seminary. Before entering the seminary he was active as pastor and evangelist for nine years, serving churches in both Georgia and Tennessee. Mrs. Jackie Weatherspoon will be leading the singing. Special music is being planned for each night. The public is invited to attend these services. Pastor John Darnell announced that the Nursery will be open each night for parents with small children.

Trinity Methodist

REV. J. M. OWEN
Revival Services will start at Trinity Methodist Church Sunday night, October 4, at 7:30 p.m. Rev. John Malloy Owen, III, will conduct the services which will run through Thursday night, October 8. Owens is pastor of the St. Mark's Methodist Church in Raleigh. Previously he has served St. James in Greenville and Horne Memorial in Clayton. Owens was the founder and director of the Circuit Rider telecast which completed 10 years on TV. Trinity Church extends a cordial invitation to his many friends over TV to join in the services this week.

Bunn Baptist

Bunn--A revival meeting will begin Sunday evening at the Bunn Baptist Church. Services will continue through Friday, October 9, at 7:30 each evening. The Reverend Howard Silver, pastor of the church, will be in charge of the services.

Asleep 86 Days

London -- When 9-year-old Mary Tierman awoke after almost three months, she blinked her eyes and said, "That's my daddy." Mary had been in a deep sleep since she was injured in a train accident. Her mother said Mary was speaking slowly but her memory was almost a blank. Doctors expect a complete recovery.
