

Fair today and Wednesday.
Mild in afternoon. Low today,
40; high, 70.

The Franklin Times

Published Every Tuesday & Thursday

Serving All Of Franklin County

The circumstances of others seem good to us, while ours seem good to others.
-Publius Syrus

Tel. GY 6-3283

Ten Cents

Louisburg, N. C., Tuesday, November 10, 1964

(Eight Pages Today)

95th Year—Number 75

Local Man Injured In Plane Crash Here

A 29 year old Franklin County businessman is hospitalized in Raleigh with a broken neck, resulting from the crash of an airplane at the local air field last Friday afternoon.

J. Jackson "Jackie" Dean of 104 Loy Drive, Louisburg suffered the neck injury and facial bruises when the PA 11 Two-seater Cub type airplane quit on takeoff around 5:30 p.m. last Friday and landed just off the end of the dirt runway. Dean was alone in the plane at the time of the crash. Dean, a licensed pilot, was flying a plane belonging to Dorsett Finch and Forest Poythress, local flying enthusiasts. No explanation has been given as to the cause of the crash. Dean was taken to Franklin Memorial Hospital by private car following the accident and later transferred to Rex Hospital in Raleigh, where he is reported to be in "good condition."

Election Brings Out 56% Of Registered Voters

The official vote count for last Tuesday's General Elections was set at 6,638 by the Board of Elections. This number fell short of the record 6,789 cast in the Democratic Primary last May. The balloting last week topped the 6,371 votes cast in the second Primary in June.

The county had 56.13% of those registered, voting, leaving 5,189 eligible to vote, that did not cast their ballots. The total registration in the county was reported officially as 11,827 last week by the Board of Elections.

Here is a listing of each precinct, registered and the number voting in the General Elections:

PRECINCT	REGISTERED	VOTED
Dunn No. 1	1111	599
Pearces	483	243
Harris	969	430
Youngsville	731	493
Franklinton	2565	1346
Hayesville	671	339
Sandy Creek	672	376
Gold Mine	624	371
Cedar Rock	994	528
Cypress Creek	347	170
Louisburg	2670	1743
TOTAL	11,827	6,638

Historical Committee Sets Plans For Organization

On Thursday, November 5, the steering committee of the Franklin County Historical Society met at Louisburg College with L. S. Butler, Mrs. E. F. Griffin, Mrs. M. B. Joyner, T. E. Pearce, W. J. Shearin, and Dr. G. H. Shinn present. The committee, meeting for organizational purposes, approved a constitution and by-laws, which will be presented for adoption at the next meeting of the historical society on November 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the Louisburg College cafeteria.

The historical society is open to anyone interested in the history of Franklin County. The purpose of the historical society is the creation of interest in the history of Franklin County by the collection of historical documents and the preservation of historic sites. The immediate objective of the historical society is to assist in the preservation of the Franklin Academy building (1804) as a museum for the county. The academy building, located on the campus of Louisburg College, is one of the oldest academy buildings in the country.

lege, is one of the oldest academy buildings in the country.

Kosygin's Message

Washington, D. C.--President Johnson has disclosed that he had received what he considered an encouraging message from Premier Aleksei N. Kosygin of the Soviet Union. The message relayed by Foy D. Kohler, the U. S. Ambassador to the Soviet Union, was reassuring and in general line with Mr. Kosygin's other remarks that "peaceful co-existence" remained the basis of Moscow's foreign policy.

Families Return

Washington, D. C.--Since Cuba shut off the Guantanamo naval base's water supply last winter, about half the American women and children have returned to the United States. Families leave the base as their menfolk finish two-year tour periods. New men are sent to Guantanamo on one-year tours, without their wives and children.

Sadie Hawkins Day At College

Pictured above, left to right, top to bottom, mostly characters. The strange scene looks like an invasion of residents of Al Capp's Dogpatch, but in reality, they are students at Louisburg College observing their annual Sadie Hawkins Day rituals last Friday. Students above are attentively listening to a quartet of musicians entertaining in front of the Main Building. Other features of the day included the Hootenanny, above, the Sadie Hawkins Chase, the Marriage Ceremonies, the Powder-puff football game and a dance. No injuries were reported.

tening to a quartet of musicians entertaining in front of the Main Building. Other features of the day included the Hootenanny, above, the Sadie Hawkins Chase, the Marriage Ceremonies, the Powder-puff football game and a dance. No injuries were reported.

Over 250 Methodists Attend College Fund Rally At Louisburg College

Ministers and Laymen from the Raleigh District of the Methodist Church met at Louisburg College, November 9, to discuss Christian Higher Education with particular reference to the three colleges in the Raleigh area -- Methodist College, Fayetteville; North Carolina Wesleyan, Rocky Mount; and Louisburg College, Louisburg.

Over 250 were present at the meeting which was presided over by Reverend N. W. Grant, superintendent of the Raleigh District. Invocation was given by Rev. P. H. Layfield, Jr. of Zebulon.

Representing the conference laymen on the program was Walter Anderson, of Raleigh, who urged Methodists to pay pledges made in 1962 to the colleges. Reiterating words spoken by Bishop Garber, he said, "When we know, we care, when we care, we share."

AUMAN GARBER ROBBINS GRANT

then presented the Louisburg College Chapel Choir who sang, "None Other Lamb" and "How Excellent is Thy Name."

James Auman, executive director of the Association of Methodist Colleges, presented an up-to-date report of the Raleigh District of the College Crusade, indicating that of the $323,472.00 pledged, $196,905.21 had been paid by some sixty congregations.

Bishop Garber was introduced by Mr. Grant. The Bishop stated, "I am so proud of what we have been able to do here in our conference. First, I want to thank you for what has been done for our three colleges. I want thank those people who are willing to undergird Methodist Higher Education in Eastern North Carolina. Secondly, we want to give our people information. We have three marvelous colleges with excellent faculties as a result of our stewardship. Today, our three colleges have over 1800 students enrolled."

part before we can expect help from other sources."

Legion To Observe Veteran's Day

Throughout the country, the people will be observing Veteran's Day tomorrow. In Louisburg, the American Legion is planning a supper for all veterans tomorrow night at the Louisburg Armory. There is to be no parade here this year, but Post Commander Vasar Perry has requested all businesses to display the flag during the day.

The Post Office will be closed as will other federal offices, but all county offices will remain open. Businesses in town will also be open as usual. George Champion, Adjutant of the James Post 105 here, said the supper meeting Wednesday night will feature entertainment by the Tar River Playboys plus some speaking. The speakers were not announced, Champion said because of incompleteness.

This day is set aside each year on November 11, to celebrate the end of all wars. It was originally designated as Armistice Day following World War I, but was changed to Veteran's Day following World War II.

Youth Arrested For Shoplifting In Three Louisburg Stores

A shifty 16 year old shoplifter from Washington, D. C. has been turned over to the local Welfare authorities for possible return to the nation's capital, it has been reported by Louisburg Police Chief William Dement. Eddie Dean Evans, Negro youth, whose home address is given as 519 M. St., Washington, D. C. was arrested Monday afternoon on the streets of Louisburg, when he attempted to sell stolen goods, by Police Officer Earl Tharrington. Evans is charged with shoplifting after raiding at least three Louisburg stores.

When arrested, Evans had in his possession, two watches and a transistor radio reportedly taken from Pope's Dept Store and some jewelry, reportedly taken from Rose's Dime Store. He was also wearing a new pair of shoes, which he said he had purchased in Washington. Investigation showed however, that these had been stolen from Leggett's Dept. Store. Evans had gone into Leggett's on the pretense of buying a pair of shoes. He was shown a pair by the clerk, but said they cost more than he could afford. While the clerk's back was turned, Evans is alleged to have placed his old shoes in the box and walked out wearing the new pair. His old shoes were discovered later when one of the store personnel, serving another customer, opened the box to show the shoes to the new customer, and found Evans' old shoes instead of a new pair neatly placed inside.

Evans said he arrived in Louisburg by bus Sunday night around 11 p.m. and was planning to return to Washington Monday. He had once escaped from a reform school but had recently been released to a foster home. He left Washington without obtaining his release. He remains in the county jail awaiting word from Washington authorities.

Local Democratic Party Contributes To State Fund

The Franklin County Democratic Party has submitted $700 to the state organization to help take care of expenses of the recent campaign, Walter Fuller, treasurer of the county organization, reported today.

The local quota was set at $1100 several months ago, but the Executive Committee voted to contribute $800 as its share or $300 less than had been requested by the state headquarters. Five hundred dollars had been sent from the organization's treasury some time ago, according to Fuller, most of which had been raised by the annual dinner.

The $200 was sent in last week, leaving the local unit a hundred dollars short of its commitment. Fuller said, "We are still receptive to anyone who wishes to participate." The local party usually raises its share of funds for the state organization.

ler, treasurer of the county organization, reported today. The local quota was set at $1100 several months ago, but the Executive Committee voted to contribute $800 as its share or $300 less than had been requested by the state headquarters. Five hundred dollars had been sent from the organization's treasury some time ago, according to Fuller, most of which had been raised by the annual dinner.

The $200 was sent in last week, leaving the local unit a hundred dollars short of its commitment. Fuller said, "We are still receptive to anyone who wishes to participate." The local party usually raises its share of funds for the state organization.

Former County Man Honored

Car W. Day of 7937 Halleck Street, S. E., Washington, D. C., has been presented the Sustained Superior Performance Award for his work as Traffic Management Specialist with the Defense Traffic Management Service (DTMS). The presentation was made by Major General Rush B. Lincoln, Jr., USA, Commander, DTMS, in a special ceremony at DTMS Headquarters.

Although born in Henderson, N. C., Mr. Day moved to Franklinton, N. C., at an early age and graduated from Franklinton High School. He has attended George Washington University, American University and Strayer College.

Entering military service in October 1943, Mr. Day served with the Army until April 1946. He is married to the former Emily Woodlief of Franklinton. He is the fifth of six children of the late Charlie W. Day and Bessie Marshall Day of Franklinton.

DTMS, the traffic management element of the Defense Supply

Boxscore

Raleigh--The Motor Vehicles Department's summary of traffic deaths through 10 a.m. Monday, November 9:

KILLED TO DATE	1320
KILLED TO DATE LAST YEAR	1127

Agency, is charged with the procurement of commercial transportation services to move Department of Defense passengers and freight within the continental United States.

Wreck Scene

Scene above shows overturned car in which Mrs. Randy Alford of Bunn narrowly escaped serious injury early Monday morning. The accident occurred four miles east of Louisburg where State Rural Road 1606 meets Highway 39, about 8:30 a.m. Monday. The manner in which the convertible landed with the top in the ditch is credited with saving the occupant from serious injury. Mrs. Alford was hospitalized with slight injuries.

-Times Staff Photo.

In A Rut?

If you've ever thought of getting out of the day to day rut you live in, you might want to try a new one. The ones above can be found in the street leading from Louisburg College to Bickett

Blvd. The Academy Building is shown in the background, but it is doubtful that the Historical Society is trying to restore the street to its 1804 status. It looks as if it never changed.

-Times Staff Photo.