Pays To Be Courteous

Mrs. Margaret M. Fraxer made the bequest to him because he always treated her with courtesy, she will explained.

Today's traveler is safe from peril except in a few remaining primitive areas--some mountains in the West, some swamps in the South, some subways in New York.

Teenage Chat

By Jean Zealand

Great news for teenage music-lovers! THE EMBERS are playing for a Christmas dance at Memorial Auditorium in Raleigh this Friday night. Everyone not involved in basketball games will be making plans to attend. Among those heading for this entertainment will be Lewis Pleasants, Chris Beck, Frankie Redmond, Ford Perry, Keith Perry, C. B. Patterson, Buddy Stewart and Jay Taylor.

Quite a few teens are also getting excited about the Winter Dance at Louisburg College this Saturday night. This is always a big event and this year The Tropics are playing for it.

A little bird told me that racing has been resumed on highway #56! Hear the GTO's were really fired up and humming this week. Seems that some of the passengers were just a little frightened too. Watch it, boys; you know the penalty.

Happy birthday to Buddy Stewart who celebrated his 17th birthday Thursday. Best wishes to you, Buddy.

Happy birthday also to Wauna Oxnevad who will celebrate her birthday on Saturday. Understand you will have a special visitor. Right, Wauna? Understand that Frances Murphy, Bill Hight, Jenia Loftin, and Vernon Dickerson went to Raleigh for supper last Sunday night. Hear you really had a great time!

On behalf of the teens throughout the county, I would like to express deepest sympathy to Tommy Smith and his family at the death of his father.

Thought for the day: This time, like all times, is a very good one if we but know what to do with it. --Emerson.
