

Supt. Rogers Speaks On Drop-outs

(Frk. B.W.) The Franklinton Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. C. Ray Pruette on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Raymond Harris, president, welcomed everyone and expressed appreciation to Mrs. Pruette for having invited the club to meet in her home. A special welcome was extended two new members; Mrs. Woodrow Haskins and Mrs. R. L. Holland. Corsages were pinned on them by Mrs. Richard Whitfield.

The Collect was recited, followed by The Lord's Prayer. Mrs. T. J. McGhee gave a financial report. Miss Frances Wortham gave the corresponding secretary's report.

Mrs. J. D. Mode, Chairman of the Sewing Contest for District 14, gave information about the contest. She distributed blanks to the club members, who were interested in the contest.

The president announced that she had been invited to attend the Woman's Traffic Safety Seminar in Raleigh on January 28.

The rating sheet was discussed. Following the discussion, the club members voted to send a contribution to the Ten Penny Art Fund and also the Scholarship Fund.

Mrs. Harris informed the club members about the Valley Forge Grove where a memorial stands for deceased men who have received congressional medals of honor. She also recommended that some club members compile an original devotional to be turned into the District Spiritual Life Chairman.

Corpenings Entertain

Youngsville.—Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Corpening entertained friends on Wednesday evening, January 6, with a party at their home celebrating Old Christmas.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout with lovely Christmas arrangements and designs. The receiving hall was centered with a large green Christmas tree decorated with various ornaments. The serving table in the dining room was covered with a sheer silver holiday cloth and centered with a crystal fountain overflowing onto a choir of pearl angels. A lovely Manger scene in white was laid on black velvet on the mantle.

Upon arrival, the guests were greeted by the host and hostess assisted by her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Patterson.

Refreshments of banana orush, potato chips and dip, Holiday Upside-Down Cake, assorted fancy sandwiches, burger puffs, assorted pastries, mixed party nuts, and coffee were served the guests.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. J. T. Allen, who poured punch, and by Mrs. A. E. Hall, who served cake.

Out-of-town guests attending were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Greer of Raleigh, Dr. Robert Christoph of Wake Forest, and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Winn.

Some Memory

The teacher who had been telling the small pupils the story of the discovery of America by Columbus, ended by saying: "And all this happened more than 400 years ago."

A little boy whose eyes popped wide open thereupon exclaimed, in true admiration: "Whew! What a memory you have!"

New Soups Add Zest to Fall Meals

With the nip of fall in the air, homemakers find a new zest in meal planning. The warmth of heartier menus suits the season.

To add even greater taste-tempting goodness to fall tables, two new canned condensed soups have appeared on the grocery shelves. Both of these newcomers will bring enthusiastic approval from all ages.

Canned condensed Old-Fashioned Vegetable Soup is a tasty blend of kitchen-cut garden vegetables and enriched pearl macaroni in a meat and vegetable stock. The result... a great long-simmered real homemade flavor. The other arrival is Noodles & Ground Beef Soup, a completely different kind of soup. Three different sizes of noodles, lots of tender ground beef, and pieces of tomato and other vegetables in a rich meat stock make up this robust soup. What great newcomers for soup centered meals! Fill the tureen with either of these and the meal is practically complete. For "occasions" for either family or friends, dress up the Old-Fashioned Vegetable Soup with sliced zucchini and crumbled bacon. Serve it with piping hot corn bread (made from a packaged mix) and peaches topped with crunchy broiled coconut. Here is a "convenience" meal at its best.

FALL VEGETABLE TUREEN
2 slices bacon
1/2 cup thinly sliced zucchini
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed old-fashioned vegetable soup
1 soup can water
In saucepan, cook bacon; remove and crumble. Pour off all but 1-tablespoon drippings; add zucchini and cook until tender. Add-soup and water. Heat, stirring now and then. Garnish with bacon. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Add a colorful note to the Noodles & Ground Beef Soup when it's to star at meals. A garnish of chopped hard-cooked egg will please the eye and the palate.

The Pleasure Seekers
Focks is on three American girls seeking their fortunes in Madrid. The lovely Spanish background fades into oblivion as the charms of the three girls take over.
The girls, Carol Eynley, Ann

Film Revue

Margaret and Pamela Tiffin, have their hearts set on getting a husband for themselves. Ann Margaret loves a young Spanish doctor, Miss Lynley has fallen for her married editor and a Spanish playboy is the object of Miss Tiffin's affections. It seems the girls attract young men in whom they are not interested, especially those who watch the scantily dressed girls from their rooms across the court.

For more effectiveness, this film is in magnificent color.

Fighting For Time

"Doctor, you told me to show you my tongue and you have never looked at it."
"No, I just wanted to write a prescription in peace."

Since North Carolina is spending a little more money on Education, the number of drop-outs has been reduced. Increased vocational programs have kept some students in the schools.

Mr. Rogers stated that the idea of educating everyone has not been learned. He concluded his talk by saying that a community, with the right spirit can do more about the drop-out problem than any one person.

A question-answer period followed.

During the social hour, fruit cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Stephens, Miss Edith Jackson and Mrs. Pruette.

Rose Wesley Class Meets

(Frk. B.W.) The Rose Wesley Sunday School Class of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. A. R. Wheeler on Tuesday evening.

Miss Swanette Fuller was in charge of the devotionals.

A business session followed with Mrs. B. B. Nowell giving a financial report. Miss Lella Allen gave the corresponding secretary's report.

It was reported that Mrs. Charlie Barrow, formerly of Franklinton and now in a rest home, was remembered with a gift and a "sunshine basket."

During the social hour, the hostess served pineapple and coconut cake, coffee and Cokes.

Designed For The Neat Generation

The fashion "looks" that the younger set adores are especially smart in easy-care fabrics that contain "Dacron" polyester or "Orlon" acrylic. The jumper, now in many variations, is a big favorite. This version by Lortogs (left) is made in a sturdy juppin of "Dacron" and cotton, with brass buttons, lowered waistline, and pleats all around. The plaid shirt with "Tom Jones" ascot is in the same fiber blend.

A touch of Paris appears too in fashions for junior Americans, notably in translations of the French school-girl look. This charming dress with front pleating and St. Laurent collar (right), made in a supple crepe weave of "Orlon", and wool, by Sheperdness.

Understand the Junior Class at Gold Sand has had a little excitement recently. Seems they got their class rings last week. Quite a few of these Gold Sand rings have been seen in other parts of the county also.

Some of you juniors certainly didn't keep them long!

What's this about Blake York learning to walk? Better be careful, Blake, or you might fall again!

Students at Louisburg High School are showing off their new class pins. They are very attractive with "LHS" and the class year in gold.

Some of the graduation material has arrived also. The name cards and memory books have come, and all the seniors are trading cards and autographs.

Here is a list of ball games around the county for Tuesday night: Louisburg at Epsom, Bunn at Franklinton, Rolesville at Gold Sand, and Edward Best at Youngsville.

Happy birthday to Margo Raynor who will celebrate her birthday on Wednesday and to Parker Lumpkin who has a birthday Friday.

Everyone says the college play was really great! Congratulations to all who participated. On Saturday night a new band called the Chevilles appeared at Lake Doha. All those who were there say this group is the best yet. They will be there again this Saturday, so if you missed them before, be sure to hear them this week.

Don't forget that exams start soon! Better get busy and start studying!

Arnold Arts On Display At College Art Center

Mrs. Julia Kornegay announced this week that a one-man show of the paintings of George Arnold is now on display at the Fine Arts Building of Louisburg College.

Arnold was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1926. He is now living in Greensboro, N. C., where he is painting and working as a free lance commercial artist and designer.

While serving with the Navy, he saw South America, New Zealand, Australia, and many of the Pacific ports and islands. He was influenced by the oriental art and native island cultures. He went with the Byrd Expedition to the Antarctic in 1946; the fascination of the sights remembered from that expedition has remained with him and has recently been reflected in his work.

He began his study of art at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia. He studied under Hobson Pittman, Walter Stumpeff, Franklin Watkins, Francis Speight and George Harding. He was selected to attend the Albert E. Barnes Foundation, Marion, Pennsylvania, and graduated from there.

He has taken an active part in community life. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Winston-Salem Gallery of Fine Arts. He has taught art classes for the Arts Council of Winston-Salem and in his studio. He gives talks and lectures in the public schools, and traveled with an art panel through North and South Carolina and Tennessee. He has frequently juried art exhibitions in schools and at group competitions in this state.

His work is included in private collections and galleries in New York and Philadelphia, in the Fleischmann Collection in Cincinnati, Ohio, at Salem College, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, The Public Library, The Wachovia Bank, all of Winston-Salem, N. C.

He has exhibited in: The Pennsylvania Academy Annual; The Butler Art Institute, Youngstown, Ohio; Morehead Planetarium, Chapel Hill, N. C.; N. C. State Art Society Annual.

This work will be on display through January 30, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 3 to 5 p.m. on Sunday at the Fine Arts Building.

The public is invited to view this display.

Mrs. Powell Entertains Canasta Club

(Frk. B.W.) Mrs. A. S. Powell entertained her Canasta Club at her home on Wednesday evening.

Her home was decorated with poinsettias, greenery and berries.

Mrs. C. W. Brown received high score prize while second high went to Mrs. L. A. Thompson, Sr. Mrs. L. R. Ethridge was the recipient of the floating prize.

During the progressions, Mrs. Powell served punch, candies and gobs.

At the conclusion of play, the hostess served ice cream, cookies and fruit cake with coffee. Mrs. H. F. Fuller and Mrs. Charlotte Pearce assisted in serving.

Thanks

I would like to thank Dr. Patterson and the nurses and my many friends for their kindness during my stay at Franklin Memorial Hospital.

Find out what 350 hp feels like in America's favorite intermediate size car

Next time you're feeling low, come on in and plunk yourself down in the bucket seat of a Chevelle/Malibu Super Sport. Flick the ignition—bring that special-order 350-hp power plant to life. Then go find a road and try not to smile.

We think it's the greatest pep pill since weekends—and that goes for the other Chevelle V8's, too. The 195-hp and the 250- and 300-hp jobs we can order for you.

And of course if power doesn't sell you right off, maybe Chevelle's short turning radius and overall handling ease will. Or its Full-Coil suspension ride. Or its all-steel, carpeted interior. Or maybe it's just plain old Chevelle value.
