

Teenage Chat

By Mary Ann Fleming

After Friday night's game at Gold Sand, "Hurrah for our team," which I had planned to say, isn't exactly appropriate, so I just won't say anything, except that it was a close game--one that just about everyone hated to lose. We would also like to congratulate Patricia Wrenn from the Senior Class, who was chosen the Gold Sand Homecoming Queen of '66. All our sympathies go out to Mrs. Jeannette P. Arnold, the seniors' advisor and an almost second mother to many of us, at the death of her husband, Mr. Claude A. Arnold.

Following two days we will have two exams a day. But take heart, students; by 2:45 Thursday we will have finished the last of those dreaded brain-teasers for another year.

Thought: "Prosperity makes friends and adversity tries them." --anonymous.
