

Business Faculty

Attends Raleigh Education Night

Mrs. John Pernell and Misses Rachael Modlin and Adelaide Johnson, of the Business Department faculty of Louisburg College, were among the guests attending the Annual Education Night meeting of the Raleigh Chapter of the Administrative Management Society held at the Occidental Life Insurance Company building in Raleigh Tuesday evening.

After a delicious buffet dinner, served in Occidental's cafeteria, a panel program was presented. This program was planned to provide an opportunity for communication and understanding among business teachers and businessmen in the Raleigh area.

The panel theme was "How Have the Challenges of Change in the World of Work Affected Today's Office Worker?"

Miss Macil Via, State Supervisor of Business and Office Education, served as panel moderator. She also took part in the panel presentation, substituting for Mrs. Ann Etheridge, President of the Raleigh Chapter of National Secretaries Association. The panel topic for Mrs. Etheridge was "The Value of Having a C. P. S. (Certified Public Secretary), or Preparing for C. P. S. Exam, in Helping the Secretary Adapt to Changes in the World of Work."

Others taking part in the panel discussion were Mr. Elton Parker, Regional Personnel and Public Relations Manager, Nationwide Insurance Co., whose topic was "Changes in Needs and Qualifications of Office Workers"; Mr. Robert W. Carey, Manager of Employment and Placement, I. B. M., talking on the subject, "The I. B. M. Search for Clerical Personnel—What They Needed and What They Found," referring to the Raleigh I. B. M. installations; and Mr. John B. Fleming, Manager Employment Security Commissioner of North Carolina, who listed "Specific Requirements of Raleigh Employers."

A lively question and answer session closed the evening's activities.
