Teenage Chat

By Mary Ann Fleming

Friday night was Jr-Sr night for Louisburg, Gold Sand, Youngsville, and Edward Best. The Gold Sand Juniors chose "Oriental Garden" as their theme and The Epics as their combo. The Chevelles played at Edward Best, and Carrousel was the theme. The Plantation Inn was the setting of the Youngsville Jr-Sr. and Moonlight and Roses was the theme. At Louisburg, the Juniors chose Mardi Gras as their theme and used this New-Orleans holiday in decorating for both the banquet and dance. After a delightful talk by Dr. Gerald Shinn of Louisburg College at the banquet, Jo Ann

Hale and Donny Southerland were chosen Queen and King of the Mardi Gras. At the dance in the auditorium, which the Juniors had transformed into a sidewalk cafe, The Scepters played.

After the dance, a number of the "Senior Mothers" gave the Seniors a breakfast at the Baptist Church. The highlight of

To Have Revival

Youngsville - Youngsville Baptist Church will hold their annual revival services Monday, May 9, through Friday, May 13, with the Reverend Grady Faulk serving as guest speaker. Special choral music will be presented each night. Reverend Faulk is a former pastor of Flat Rock Baptist Church near Youngsville. He is presently serving as pastor of the Pineville Baptist Church in Pineville, N. C. He and his wife, Bettie, are the parents of a daughter and a son. Reverend L. Jervais Phillips is pastor of the Youngsville Baptist Church.

this was the distribution of this year's annuals to all the Seniors who had worked so hard on it. All in all, Friday night was a big night for all the juniors and seniors, and one that will not soon be forgotten.

Saturday morning, many left for Atlantic Beach. A few of these are Roger Kornegay, Cathy Murphy, Al Wilson, Butch Strickland, Blake York, Jimmy Radford, Glenda Henly, Sissy Webb, Lee Lumpkin, Billy Fuller, Parker Lumpkin, Wiley Brown, Delores Alfred, Lin Green and Greg Smith.
