Tesh-Simpson Vows Spoken

MRS. DONALD RAY TESH

(Frk. B.W.) Miss Joy Diane Simpson of Leaksville, North Carolina became the bride of Donald Ray Tesh of Winston Salem in a formal ceremony in the Antioch Baptist Church of Winston Salem Saturday, June 4, at seven o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Robert Melvin, chaplain at Mars Hill College, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Flody Simpson of Aurora, formerly of Franklinton, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Aaron Tesh of Winston Salem.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. David Lee Triplette, organist, and soloist was the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length formal gown with skirt and chapel train of white peau de soie; bodice and long sleeves of reembothered alencon lace; skirt and train edged with matching lace appliques and seed pearls.

Miss Judy Lowe of Hialeah, Florida was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of mint green nylon organdy over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of daisies with matching headpiece of daisies.

The six children attendants were: Jill Beshears and Melante Leaman of Winston Salem, Debbie Isom of Norfolk, Virginia, Pat Mitchell of Durham, Karen Wyatt of Kannapolis and Angie Perkinson of Franklinton.

They wore mint green floor-length gowns of nylon organdy with taffeta sashes tied in the back. They carried baskets of daisies with matching headpieces of daisies.

Mr. Clyde Aaron Tesh, father of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Michael Joyner of Hampton, Virginia; Steve Tesh, Terry Swicegood and Gary Hill all of Winston Salem.

The bride is a graduate of Franklinton High School and Mars Hill College. She was a teacher at Leaksville School. Her husband is a graduate of Griffith High School in Winston Salem and Mars Hill College. He is now the minister of music at the First Baptist Church in Franklin, North Carolina.

After a wedding trip to the South Carolina coast, the couple will reside in Franklin, N.C.

The bride's parents gave a reception in the social room of the Antioch Baptist Church following the ceremony.

Homecoming

The Cypress Chapel Baptist Church will observe its annual Homecoming Day on Sunday, June 19th. All members, former Pastors, former members and friends are cordially invited to attend. The Rev. Max Evington will be guest minister for the afternoon session. He is a former Pastor and is now residing at Jackson, N. C. where he is ministering to two churches. Mrs. Evington and the two sons will be present also. Another feature for the afternoon will be special music. Lunch will be served picnic style on the grounds during the noon hour and baskets of food will be appreciated.

This is the last service for Rev. Coleman Thomas, Pastor, and his family. They are moving to a new field following the Homecoming event.

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held the week prior to Homecoming, with Rev. Thomas as Principal.
