Ransdell WMS Meets

The WMS of Ransdell Chapel Church met last week with Mrs. James S. Hunt. The program entitled "Thriving American Cults" was brought to order by the group singing the hymn, "Bringing in the Sheaves." The watchword, Rev. 14:6, was repeated in unison, prayer by Mattie R. Harrison. There were five members present and each one took a part in discussing the program. The meeting closed with the singing of the hymn of the year, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" and prayer by Mrs. Addie S. Cash. The hostess served soft drinks, cookies, potato chips, peanuts, and pimiento cheese sandwiches. The Study Course book entitled "Panama, The Land Between" was held Friday night with Mrs. Norman Frazier, with four members present. Mrs. Frazier gave a very interesting report of the book. She served homemade chocolate cake and soft drinks. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mattie R. Harrison.

DRAMATIC — Spanish tile designs reproduced on cotton inspire exotic hostess outfits. A long flowing sash adds contrast to vivid colors of the print. By Alex Colman of California.

Ruth Mercer Circles Meet

(Frk. B.W.) Ruth Mercer Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Franklin Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Jimmy Cash on Thursday evening, July 14.

Mrs. Woodrow Haskins opened the meeting by reading the purpose of the Woman's Society.

Following the reading of the minutes by Mrs. E. A. Harris, Jr., a financial report was given by Mrs. Phil Whitfield.

Hostesses and program leaders were named for the year. Miss Frances Vann, Miss Edith Jackson, Mrs. Haskins and Mrs. George Best volunteered to place flowers in the church sanctuary during the month of August.

Mrs. Frank Collins gave the program about the War on Poverty. She gave an account of activities in the Appalachian region. Mrs. Collins also told about the various organizations that were helping people learn new trades and ways to make a living. Mrs. Cash served lemonade and assorted crackers during the social hour. Mrs. Arnold Pope was welcomed as a new member.

Ruth Mercer Circle No. 2 of the Franklin Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Richard Gollightly on Thursday evening.

In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Gollightly presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Richard Whitfield gave the program entitled—Chosen for Action. She mentioned factors which have brought about the radical changes in the world in the last 25 years such as the atomic era, the end of colonialism, the rise of Communism, the resurgence of the ancient religions, etc.

Chosen for action is the World Federation of Methodist Women which includes 6,000,000 women in 53 countries. These women pledged to seek more creative ways "to know Christ and to make Him known."

Before concluding the program, Mrs. Whitfield called attention to an article in the June issue of the Methodist woman. At the convocation on Urban Life held in Chicago in February, Bishop

Everett Palmer of Seattle outlined six steps Methodists should take to meet the challenge of the city. First, Methodists must overcome the prejudice against the city growing out of our rural heritage. Second, we must bridge class lines and cultural differences.

Third, Methodists must help America to know what the good city is. Fourth, the church in the city must be God's voice speaking out for the poor, forgotten, neglected and oppressed.

Fifth, the church must serve the urban man's need for a new morality, not one dictated by social pressure. Sixth, the city dweller must be mented as only God can mend him.

During the brief business session, pledge cards were signed and a financial report was given.

Mrs. Charlie Hight, Jr. and Mrs. Gollightly served a dessert course during the social hour.
