

Luncheon Honors Sunday Bride-elect

Miss Billie Parrish, bride-elect of Sunday, was honored Saturday in the Terrace Room of the Benvenue Country Club by Mrs. J. B. Overton, Jr. and Mrs. W. R. Winstead. The honoree was attired in a green sheath dress with matching accessories which was complemented by a baby pink rose corsage, gift of the hostesses.

Upon arrival, the ten guests were served dry sherry and seated at the bride's table, which was covered with a white linen tablecloth. Wedding ringed pillows were used to

Serve a Simple Dish

Ground beef long has been a favorite of homemakers, especially when the budget needs a boost. . . but it's far from the prosaic meat as many think of it.

Mate it with canned condensed onion soup. . . canned diced carrots. . . and some crushed gingersnaps. . . and this favorite budget-beating meat assumes new status in the world of taste treats. Matched with pantry shelf staples such as the soup, ground beef is a natural. . . and such a saver of both money and time.

Plan your whole meal to match the value and flavor of this great Skillet Surprise Sauerbraten. What could be better than mixed greens tossed with a tart dressing. . . and an apple crunch pudding (made so easily from canned pie apples)? You'll win an "E" for excellence in both "exchequer" and "eating"!

SKILLET SURPRISE SAUERBRATEN

1 pound ground beef
1 cup diagonally sliced celery
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed onion soup
1/4 cup water
2 tablespoons wine vinegar
1 can (8 ounces) diced carrots, drained
1/4 cup crumbled gingersnaps
Generous dash ground cloves
Salt and pepper

In skillet, brown meat, stirring to separate, and cook celery until almost tender. Pour off fat. Add remaining ingredients. Cover and cook over low heat 20 minutes. Stir now and then. Makes 4 servings.

How True

Preacher--Do you say your prayers at night, little boy?
Jimmy--Yes, sir.
Preacher--And do you say them in the morning, too?
Jimmy--No, sir, I ain't scared in the daytime.

Short Leave

First Gob--Do you believe in love at first sight?
Second Gob--I gotta--I'm only gettin' two days' leave.
The great trouble with luck is that it often disappears when you need it most.

mark the places. Down the center of the table was a set of miniature dolls dressed as a complete wedding party. The register table held a silver glass compote with an arrangement of pink summer flowers.

The menu consisted of breast of turkey and chicken with potato salad, sliced tomatoes, pickles, biscuits, iced tea and toffee ice cream with rum sauce.

Attending were Mrs. Kirby Parrish, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Harold Carter, Mrs. Robert Moore, III, Mrs. Dan Baker, Mrs. Rachel Griffin, Evelyn Ferguson, the honoree and hostesses.

Miss Parrish was presented a silver spoon in her chosen pattern.

Teenage Chat

By Mary Ann Fleming

Well, group, Louisburg hasn't exactly been buzzing with activity this week, but here's the little bit of news that I could gather.

There were a few at the beaches. Billy Fuller, Donny West, Jackie Smith, and Ross Shuping enjoyed vacationing at Carolina Beach. The list of those who "wished" they were at any beach is much too long to print.

In Raleigh or Henderson this week were Bettie Lavender, Glenda Henley, Blake York, Cora Ann Allen, Ann Avent, Mike Carter, and C. B. Patterson.

The Louisburg F. H. A. planning committee met Wednesday afternoon to plan a tentative calendar of work for the coming school year. Those attending were Cynthia and Phyllis Best, Fran McFarland, Blake York, Frances Murphy and Connie Leonard. Mrs. Leonard, the advisor, served Cokes and cookies afterwards. The girls hope to make this the best year the Louisburg Chapter has ever had. Any interested girl who meets the qualifications must pay dues to Fran McFarland by Sept. 15, in order to become affiliated with the state and national chapters.
