Bear Delays Wedding

Virginia, Minn. - Twyla Griffin, 21, thought her husband-to-be was kidding when he called to say the wedding would have to be postponed. William Bradshaw, 23, a forest ranger, had been hospitalized from injuries he received from a 200-pound black bear.

Cool Hogs

Addieville, Ill. - During a heat wave, Alfred Harre installed an air conditioner in his hog shed. The farmer said they needed it worse than he did because they would soon farrow and he wanted to keep them cool, calm and contented.

Honeymoon First

Corbin, Ky. - When the clerk of court met and asked the mother how her daughter's marriage ceremony came out, she replied, "You should know, you married them." The clerk explained he only issued the license. The young couple was found, properly married and the honeymoon continued.

Pow Warning

U. S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg has informed the International Red Cross that trials of American airmen captured in North Vietnam could lead to "disastrous consequences."
