Louisburg WMS Meets

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Louisburg Baptist Church held its first General Meeting of the new church year on Monday night. Mrs. R. L. Eagles, newly elected president presided during the business portion of the meeting.

The program, "The Search For God Among Language Groups," was directed by Mrs. D. L. Wells with Mesdames Vernon Stone, John Godfrey, Frank Read, Jr., Harold Talton, Paul Mullen and Darrell Leonard participating.

The Call to Prayer was given by Mrs. Howard Drewett at the close of the meeting.

A social hour followed in the church parlor as refreshments were served to members and guests.

Love is a great thing. If you don't think so, look at some of the combinations that approach you on the streets.

If you never learn to stop kicking yourself in the pants for your daily mistakes, life will come harder and harder.

The British Museum in London preserves the Rosetta Stone, the Elgin Marbles, a First Folio edition of Shakespeare's plays, and so many other treasures that it inspired an oft-quoted remark: "Lucky are those who are unmarried, independent, and living near the British Museum."

Revival

Revival services will begin Monday night, October 10, at 7:30 p.m. at The Union Gospel Tabernacle. The Rev. John Gamble from Lynchburg, Va. will be the visiting evangelist. The Rev. Jobe Overton, Pastor, extends a cordial welcome to all to come and worship. Services will continue each evening through the week.

Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Patterson, the nurses and personnel while I was a patient on the third floor of Franklin Memorial Hospital, to friends for their prayers, visits, cards and flowers.
May the Lord bless each of you.

Mrs. Virginia Fuller

People who do not mind their own business are rarely equipped to take care of other people's problems.
