

Places In Who's Who

Dr. James Tucker, Dean of Student Affairs at East Carolina College announces that Gary Leonard has been selected to appear in a national publication.

Gary, son of Clyde W. Leonard and the late Mrs. Leonard of Rt. 2, Louisburg, has been selected to appear in the 1966-1967 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES.

These selections are based on the student's scholarship, leadership, and participation in extra-curricular activities, citizenship and service to the college. The committee which selects the students is composed of students, faculty and administrative personnel.

Gary is a senior accounting major. He is president of Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity, a brother of Alpha Kappa Psi Professional Business Fraternity, member of the Dean's Advisory Council and Faculty Evaluation Committee. He has served for the past two years and is presently serving as proctor-in-charge of a study hall set up by the Honor Council, Men's Judiciary, and Men's Residence Council. His grades have caused him to be placed on the Honor Roll and Dean's List numerous times.

Driving Days Over

East St. Louis, Ill.--While taking a driving test, Henry Allison, 81, drove his car through a plate glass window. Neither Allison nor the examiner Hubert Armstrong were hurt, but decided he would give up driving.

Homecoming Held At Liberty

"A Lively Heritage" was the sermon topic of Rev. John C. Allen, III, pastor of Liberty (Vance) United Church of Christ where Homecoming Services were held Sunday. Rev. Allen referred to the work and labor in the past by our forefathers for the church we have today was done by Faith. To carry on and prosper as in the past, we, the generation today and in the future will have to continue to have Faith. There is power greater than ourselves. Have Faith in God and He will not forsake us. "Praise Ye The Lord" was the anthem rendered by the choir.

Vistors, relatives, friends and former members returned from nearby churches, also Wilson, Aurora, Greensboro, Raleigh, Greenville, South Carolina to attend the services and fellowship during the lunch hour.

Those who get emotional when one disagrees with their viewpoint limit their learning capacity.

Remember the time when everybody rushed out of doors to see a lone airplane flying overhead?

a member of the Youngville Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nora Watson Allen; one daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Freeman of the home; one son, Claude Haywood Allen of Raleigh; one sister, Miss Mary Willie Allen of Washington, D. C. and two grandchildren.

Teenage Chat

By Bettie Lavender

Hi! This is Betty Radford pinch-hitting for Betty Lavender while she is in the hospital undergoing an ear operation. Hurry back, Betty!

Betty Joe Tippett's house was the scene of a real swing-in' party Friday night. Dancing to the new beat of a local Louisburg group, the Knight Riders, proved to be a blast.

They were really great! A few of the teens who were there are; Howard Stallings, Al Wilson, Rita Patterson, Allen Driver, C. B. Patterson, Ann Merritt, Bill Benton, Susan Pleasants, Cliff Edwards, Sissy Webb, Terry Nash, Glenda Henley, Crow Patterson, Pasty Murphy, Jimmy Geddie, Ann Aven, Charles Toney, Tommy Wrann, Frances Griffin, Betty Radford, Marilyn Stewart, Craig Sledge, Margo Raynor, Anita Tillotson, Kevin Warren, Parker Lumpkin, Beth Johnson, Mary King, Tucker Meyers, Carol Goodwin, and Billy Dement.

Fridy night the Boosters Club gave the Louisburg football players and cheerleaders, a steak supper in the cafeteria. Judging from the many over-stuffed expressions a delicious meal. After eating most of them departed to the various basketball games around the county.

Gold Sand played Townsville at Gold Sand in a split-win. Youngville and Bailey, Edward Best and Zeb Vance both resulted in a split-victory.

Friday, the Louisburg chapter of FBLA elected officers as follows: Jackie Cassell, President; Betty Radford, Vice-President; Blake York, Secretary; Yvonne Dickerson, Treasurer; and Glenda Henley, Reporter. One of their projects this year was to award cash prizes to the two people who wrote the best essay of "The Rewards of a C. P. A." Jackie Cassell won first place and Pasty Murphy won second. Congratulations girls!

Don't forget that the Embers are at the College Tuesday night. Be sure to buy your tickets from the L. H. S. seniors.

THOUGHT: It's not that you win or loose, but it's how you play the game.

Essay Contest Winners

Mr. A. D. Fox, Principal of Louisburg High School, is shown awarding $15.00 first prize to Miss Jackie Cassell and $10.00 second prize to Miss Pasty Murphy, for their essays on "The Rewards of Being a Certified Public Accountant." The prizes were given by the Louisburg High School Future Business Leaders Club. Mr. Lonnie Shuping, local C. P. A., judged the contest. The essays, together with others from members of the senior class at Louisburg High, will now be entered in a state-wide contest on the same subject, sponsored by the North Carolina Association of Certified Public Accountants.
