

Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Observed With Reception

Mr. and Mrs. L. Clyde Pearce, Route 2, Zebulon, N. C. were married on February 20, 1917, at the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lee Medlin of Pilot in Franklin County.

The couple pledged their wedding vows to the late Rev. Wallace Hartsell. Twelve of the guests who attended the wedding ceremony were also on hand Sunday to greet the Pearces, who received more than two hundred relatives, friends and neighbors at an open house in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

The following who attended the wedding ceremony helped to serve: Mrs. Myrtle Williams, Mrs. Mammie Bunn, Mrs. Hattie Stallings, Mrs. Clifton Pearce and Miss Ora Alford. The celebration was held in the Community Annex of the Pilot Baptist Church.

Fifteen minutes prior to the scheduled celebration, Rev. Donald Wagner, pastor of the Pilot Baptist Church, conducted an impressive devotional service for the entire family at the church annex.

Present were the seven children of the honored couple: Mrs. Robert H. Hudgins, Statesville; Mrs. Rudolph V. Averitt and Mrs. F. Shelby Alford, Raleigh; Mrs. Tommy S. Griffin, Elizabeth City; Mrs. Harry Wilder, Louisburg; James M. and David C. Pearce of Pilot. They were joined by sons and daughter-in-laws of the honored couple and the eighteen grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearce, who were born and reared in the Pilot Community, were assisted by their children in greeting the guests who called between the appointed hours - two until five p. m.

The annex was beautifully decorated with floral arrangements of yellow mums, snapdragons and roses throughout the reception area. The refreshment table was covered in white taffeta and centered with a gold candelabrum filled with yellow candles and flowers. The handsomely decorated anniversary cake, iced in white and trimmed with gold, featured a cluster of wedding bells and the numerals "50" on the top tier.

In addition to the ladies listed above, Mrs. Rona Cone helped with the serving of refreshments which consisted of the following: Yellow punch which was poured from a crystal bowl from one side of the table while cake, ham biscuits, cheese straws and mints were served from the opposite side. The daughters assisted with the serving and the granddaughters assisted in the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Pearce greeted guests at the door. The daughters and son-in-laws alternated at the guest register. Mrs. Brodie Martin presided over the gift table. Mr. and Mrs. Dommie Bunn and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Williams alternated in saying the goodbyes.

Locals Win State Honors

Raleigh--Citations for outstanding academic achievement have been earned by four Franklin County students at North Carolina State University.

Chancellor John T. Caldwell said the students earned grade averages of "B" or better for the first half of the current school year and have been named to the University's Honor List.

The four Franklin students ranked in the top 10 percent of the University's 10,200 students for the fall semester. In contrast to the 1,000-plus students who earned honors, about 4 percent--452 students--failed and were suspended.

Chancellor Caldwell said the Franklin County students earning honors were:

Harris B. Gupton, a senior in civil engineering, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gupton, Rt. 2, Louisburg.

Mrs. Ann H. Jones, a senior in sociology, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huggins, 302 E. Noble St., Louisburg.

Mrs. Janet L. Wester, a junior in English, of Rt. 4, Louisburg.

Mrs. Jane Woodlief Wilder, a graduate of Franklinton High School, a senior in English. Gupton, Mrs. Wester, and Mrs. Wilder earned honors for the spring semester 1966 also.

Mrs. Knuckles Speaks To Youngsville Club

Youngsville - The Youngsville Woman's Club met Tuesday evening of this week with the main speaker being Mrs. Maxine Knuckles, Principal of the Vena Wilburn School in Wake County. After being introduced by Mrs. J. T. Moss she spoke to the clubwomen on "The Progress in Care and Training of Mentally Retarded Children," presenting enlightening facts about encouraging advancements being made in this field. Mrs. Knuckles then recognized a teacher in one of the special education classes, Mrs. Choplin, who also spoke to the women, with her subject being on actual work done in the classroom by her students.

Club President Mrs. L. A. Woodlief presided at the business session which was opened with a devotion by Chaplain Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr. Announcement was made in regard to the District Fine Arts Festival to be held in Henderson on April first. The local club will sponsor Miss Carol Mitchell as entrant in the Art Contest and Vickie Wheeler in the Public Speaking Contest. Mrs. B. H. Patterson is entering the Sewing Contest. Several other members will have exhibits in the Arts and Crafts Contests.

Mrs. W. F. Mitchell and Mrs. A. N. Corpening who are co-chairman for the local Friends of the College ticket sales, made announcements in regard to purchase of season tickets.

Hostesses for the social hour were chairman Mrs. C. R. Edwards and Mesdames J. A. Green, G. W. Barnes and L. J. Phillips, and A. N. Corpening. They served hot cherry pudding-cake topped with ice cream, coffee and mixed nuts.

A patriotic theme was used in decorating. "Uncle Sam's" Top Hat was featured in an arrangement on the serving table. A freshly cut cherry tree limb and a hatchet were combined for an attractive decoration on the mantle, symbolic of Washington's birthday. Red, white and blue flowers and flags were used in arrangements elsewhere.

Ransdell WMU Meets

The WMU met February 13 at 7 p. m. at the church. The program title "Involvement in Evangelism" was brought to order by the group singing the hymn "My Country 'Tis of Thee".
