

Chesson, Hall Wed In Youngsville Saturday

Miss Thelma Kay Hall and Mr. Michael Norman Chesson were united in marriage in a ceremony held at the Youngsville Baptist Church on Sunday the twenty sixth of February at half after four in the afternoon, with Rev. L. J. Phillips and Rev. Ray K. Hodge officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elbert Hall of Youngsville; and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton O. Chesson, Sr. of Creswell, N. C.

Wedding music was by organist Mrs. Al DePorter and vocalist Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Corpening. Preceding the ceremony a solo "At Dawning" was by Mrs. Corpening and "One Hand, One Heart" by Dr. Corpening. At conclusion of service the "Wedding Prayer" was sung as a duet by the Corpenings.

A glowing nineteen branched Cathedralabra, flanked with palm leaves was the center setting for the ceremony. On either side were towering trees of woodwardie fern. In front of these, using church columns, were two white grecian urns filled with glads, mums, snaps and carnations. The columns were treated with English Ivy. Extending out were more candelabra with Colonial glass chimneys to compliment the colonial church theme. A satin covered kneeling bench was used. Pews were reserved with white satin bows and flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of peau de Soie. The empire bodice was styled with a sabrina neckline trimmed with Re-Embroidered Alencon lace accented with seed pearls and opalescent beads and long calla point sleeves. The A-line skirt was designed with matching lace appliques and detachable chapel train caught up with a bow of self fabric. She wore a bouffant veil of imported silk illusion attached to a bridal crown of petals trimmed with pearls and crystals. The bride carried a Cascading Waterfall bouquet of feathered carnations, white fugi, centered with a white purple throat orchid tied with satin nylon net.

Maid of Honor was Miss Marilyn Timberlake of Youngsville. Bridesmaids were Terry Brock, Judy Pearce, Mizie Tharrington of Youngsville; Mrs. W. K. Wilkinson of Raleigh; Ann Hudson and Marty Beamon of Richmond, Va. They wore formal sheath gowns of Samaron Rose crepe styled with scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves. The empire waist was detailed with bands of matching satin. Removable floating panels provided back interest. They wore veils of silk illusion attached to a crown of petals trimmed with seed pearls. They carried flowing waterfall bouquets of pink poms and carnations in shades from pale pink to cerise, tied with pink satin bows. Honorary bridesmaids were Corinne Alexander, Kathy Brown, Mary Lu Brown, Patsy Cash, Freda Chesson, Lois Jones, Nancy Mattox, Carol Mitchell, Diane Sarrocco, Linda Winston. They wore formal gowns in pastel shades and carried nosegays of white carnations.

The bride's mother, Mrs. A. E. Hall, wore an ensemble of a pale aqua crepe sheath dress with lace top and matching hat and shoes. She wore a Hybrid white orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a costume suit of pale pink crepe with lace blouse and matching accessories. Her corsage was a Hybrid white orchid.

Mr. Chesson served as his son's Best Man. Ushers were Roy Alexander of Virginia Beach, H. O. Chesson, Jr. of Greenville, William Dryden of Greenville, Hoyt Davenport, Jr. of Raleigh, Stan Hathaway of Greenville, Larry Wiggins of Louisville.

The bride graduated at YHS and graduated from East Carolina this quarter with a B. S. degree in Business Education. She was a member of the Alpha Delta Pi social Sorority; and Pi Omega Pi national honorary business fraternity.

The groom graduated from Creswell High School. He is a Senior at ECC where he is a member of Phi Beta Lambda, business fraternity and SAM, society for advancement of management.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Greenville where the groom will continue his schooling at ECC. The bride will hold a position with the college. The wedding was directed by Mr. Willis Honeycutt who was assisted by Mrs. B. H. Patterson.

MRS. MICHAEL NORMAN CHESSEON

WEDDING RECEPTION

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride following the ceremony, given by her parents. Greeting guests were Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Phillips. Introducing to the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allen. Directing to the gift room were Rev. and Mrs. C. D. McCollum. Presiding in the gift room were Mrs. E. R. Tharrington and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell. Receiving in another area were Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wiggins. At the guest book was Mrs. H. H. Underwood. About one hundred and eighty five persons registered. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Winston directed to the dining room where Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Timberlake received guests.

Mrs. A. N. Corpening poured the white Bittersweet Bridal Punch and Mrs. Al DePorter served the decorated wedding cakes. Nuts and mints in rose and leaf designs were served. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. H. H. Reddick, Mrs. N. A. Brown, Miss Linda Winston, Miss Kathy Brown, Miss Mary Lou Brown and Miss Carol Mitchell. Kelly Corpening and Mary Lu DePorter passed napkins to guests. Assisting elsewhere were Mrs. E. M. Mitchell, Mrs. B. H. Patterson, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington and Mrs. G. E. Winston. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Moss. The serving table was covered with a white net and lace cloth underlined with satin. A silver candelabrum held white tapers and bridal flowers. The silver punch bowl was complimented with a waterfall design of white carnations and mums cascading over the rim. The home was decorated throughout with other bridal flowers and arrangements. A framed picture of the bride was shown in the reception room. Bridesmaids Brunch

Bride-elect Kay Hall had a Brunch for her bridesmaids and honorary bridesmaids on Saturday morning at eleven thirty with twenty guests in attendance. A "Bride's Bouquet" theme was used in decorating. On the main dining table, which was covered with a green organdy and lace cloth, was a large crystal compote holding the "Brides Bouquet" which was made of white roses and smaller flowers complimented with net, lace and satin streamers. The bride-elect's corsage was a smaller duplicate of the centerpiece, in white. Attached to the place cards which marked each place, were miniature copies of the "Bride's Bouquet".

Individual tables were set in similar fashion except that the centerpieces were china bridesmaid's hats decorated with small pastel flowers. The Brunch, which was held at the B. H. Patterson home, included an appetizer, salad course and dessert. After the meal Miss Hall presented gifts to all members of the wedding party who were in attendance.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mrs. E. M. Mitchell, Mrs. Al DePorter and Miss Terry Brock were hostesses at a rehearsal dinner held at their home on Saturday evening at five thirty honoring Kay Hall and Mike Chesson. Guests were all members of the Wedding Party and out-of-town guests. There were approximately forty persons in attendance for the dinner.

The guest of honor was presented a white carnation corsage and a gift of china in her chosen pattern.

A three course dinner was served to guests. The main dining room table was covered with a white cloth and appointed with a silver candelabrum holding white tapers and lillies-of-the-valley. Individual tables were set and decorated in a similar manner. Place cards picturing a bridal couple marked each guests place. An all white bridal theme was used in other decorations throughout the home. There were stately arrangements which included bridal flowers, tapers and silver candelabra. Bridal couples were featured in some arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Winston and Mrs. A. N. Corpening assisted the hostess at the dinner.

CAKE CUTTING

Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Corpening and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Patterson had a Cake-Cutting at the Corpening home on Saturday evening following the Hall-Chesson rehearsal. Mr. Patterson and Mrs. J. T. Moss were in the hall to greet guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Tharrington received in the living room. In the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Winston. After the first cake and punch was served to the bridal couple by their mothers, the Pink Chiffon punch was poured alternately by Mrs. H. H. Reddick and Mrs. N. A. Brown. The cake was served by Mrs. J. T. Allen and Mrs. E. M. Mitchell.

The cake was a three tiered Pastel Cake decorated with white roses and swans. It was on a round table which was covered with a lace trimmed circular pink net cloth over satin. Placed on the table around the cake were wide open hand made roses the centers of which held short flickering candles. These were linked with ribbons and complimented with filligreed wedding bells. The cake top made by Mrs. Patterson was a cloud of white net holding a bridal couple. Bridesmaids charms were pulled by satin streamers.

A Golden Wedding Cup symbolizing good luck was presented to the bridal couple. Also a silver cake knife in their chosen pattern.

Mrs. E. R. Tharrington presided at the guest register. It was covered with pink satin and had on it a sketch of the wedding cake which was hand-painted by Kelly Corpening. Boxes of Groom's Cake were passed to members of the wedding party by Kelly.

Clusters of white satin bells with rose bud clappers were used in arrangements in the dining room; as well as were silver candelabra and pink tapers.

On the front door and in the hall of the home were hinging clusters of white wedding bells. The living room featured complimentary decorations.

Approximately 85 guests were in attendance for the party. Mrs. Al DePorter, Miss Carol Mitchell and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham assisted in the dining area.

WEDDING BREAKFAST

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allen

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pulpava, 1925 Schrage Avenue, Whiting, Ind. are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Joan Carol, to David Kearney of Columbia, South Carolina. Mr. Kearney is the son of the late Mr. Samuel Crawford Kearney and Mrs. Mildred Kearney of Louisville, North Carolina. The couple are planning a May or June wedding.

Bessie McGhee Circle Meets

(Frk. B. W.) The Bessie Moore McGhee Circle of the Franklin Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Spurgeon Eakes on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Julia Carr presided over the business meeting at which time Mrs. W. H. Cyrus read the minutes and Mrs. Ray Pruette gave a financial report.

Mrs. Pruette was in charge of the program - "Home Missions Work in Baptist Centers". Mrs. H. A. McGhee, Mrs. Raymond Harris and Mrs. Kenneth Wooten had parts on the program which related to Good Will Centers and Mission Centers.

During the social hour, the hostess served cherry cream pie and coffee.

It is excusable to get tired when you work hard but the trouble with the average person is a tendency to get tired before working.

were host and hostess at a Wedding Breakfast on Sunday February 26 at 12:30 p. m. at the Velvet Cloak Inn in Raleigh. Guests included members of the Hall-Chesson wedding party and out of town guests.

Places set for fifty four persons were designated by place cards decorated with wedding rings tied with Orange Blossom sprigs. The head table featured a massive floral arrangement in keeping with the chosen bridal theme.

The bride-elect, her mother Mrs. A. E. Hall, and the groom's mother were all presented white carnation corsages.

Louisburg Garden Club

Sponsors Charm School, March 6, 7.

On March 6 and 7 the Louisburg Garden Club will sponsor a Charm School for all interest ladies in this area. Two 2-hour sessions will be held, under the direction of Alice Bell and her assistant, Pert Wall.

The session will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. each night, in the Louisburg College Cafeteria. A small fee will be charged for the course.

Alice Bell is recognized as the South's foremost authority on beauty, charm and fashion, and among the top in her field. This recognition has not been easily acquired. It took many years of study, endeavor and application.

Miss Bell has received many awards for her outstanding accomplishments, including special recognition from the American Business Womens International, the Toastmistress International, the Epsilon Sigma Alpha International, and Beta Sigma Phi International. Her work embraces public relations and personal grooming lectures to businesswomen that employ male and female executives.

Miss Bell has also served as consultant in leading department stores throughout the country, and in training personnel for the United States Government. Her travels have taken her to Europe to cover the Italian and Parisian Fashion Openings, and all through the United States with the "Alice Bell Beauty and Fashion School," sponsored by various outstanding women's organizations. Her talent as a prolific speaker keeps her in constant demand as guest speaker at conventions, business organizations and civic clubs.

She has been the star of her own radio show for more than seven years, interviewing authorities in every field of beauty, fashion and charm. Miss Bell has interviewed countless Hollywood stars, world outstanding designers in clothing, hairstyle and make-up.

To cap off this busy career, Miss Bell has trained and influenced thousands of women in every walk of life, including home-makers, airline hostesses, professional models, fashion coordinators, bridal consultants, executive women, and women in the business world.

ALICE BELL, PERT WALL

Louisburg College 180th Anniversary Ball

Thursday, March 23, 1967

9:00-12:00 p.m.

Benjamin N. Duke Student Union

Music by

The Glenn Miller Orchestra

and conducted by

Buddy DeFranco

Clarinetist

Roger McCoy and Joan Shepherd

Soloists

Tickets on advance sale only - Office of College Relations, Main Bldg.

Adults: Couple $7, Single $4;

Students: Couple $5, Single $3

Public Cordially Invited

Formal: Black Tie

Point toward higher earnings. 5% three-month savings bonds, with daily interest compounded daily, earn 5.25% when held for two years.

Bonds may be redeemed at the end of any 90-day period without notice or loss of interest.

Bonds available in amounts of $500 or more.

FIRST-CITIZENS BANK

MOVE TO FIRST-CITIZENS - YOUR CAN-DO BANK
MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

We Cordially Invite You TO A PREVIEW OF Spring Fashions
INFORMAL MODELING
EVERY WEDNESDAY
STARTING MARCH 1st AT THE Holiday Inn—Henderson
DURING THE LUNCH HOUR
• SEE LIVE MODELS SHOWING
SPRING FASHIONS AT THEIR LOVELIEST Presented By ...
Roth-Stewart Co
LADIES' DEPARTMENT
HENDERSON, N. C.