Joan Sheperd, Ball Vocalist

JOAN SHEPHERD

When Buddy DeFranco strikes-up the Glenn Miller Orchestra at the Louisburg College formal 180th Anniversary Ball, March 23, the featured band-stand vocalist will be the lovely and talented Joan Sheperd.

In what is planned to be the major social event of the 180th season, Miss Sheperd will intersperse the instrumental with songs of the swing period, the traditional Glenn Miller, and the contemporary standards.

Buddy DeFranco, one of the nation's foremost big band directors and clarinetists will lead the dancers through all the major styles of ballroom dancing -- right up to the sound of the Tijuana Brass. And for those who prefer to sit and listen there will be seating arrangements.

The public is invited to purchase tickets now at the office of the Director of College Relations in the Main Building. The number of tickets is limited, and they must be bought in advance.

SPRING CHECKS—A free-swinging cape coat and dress costume is artfully interpreted in black and white cotton checks. Triple jet buttoning accents both coat and dress. By Michael Anthony.
