Brown Heads Panel

President Johnson has named California's former Governor Edmund G. Brown to head a 12-member commission to review Federal criminal laws. The commission, created last November, will recommend revisions and reforms in the penal structure.

Lodge's New Post

President Johnson has nominated the outgoing Ambassador to South Vietnam to Ambassador-at-large. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said the assignment amounts to a "diplomatic trouble shooter."

New Slant

Baptist Circles Meet

EMMA C. ALLEN

The Emma C. Allen Circle of the Louisburg Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Joe Shearon Monday night, with eight members present.

Mrs. Esther Andrews opened the meeting with prayer.
Chairman Mrs. Paul Mullen presided over the business meeting. Duties for the month of May were discussed, and reports given.
Prayer Chairman Mrs. Joe Shearon had the call to prayer.
Mrs. John Collins gave a most interesting program showing slides on Nigeria. At the close of the meeting the hostess served delicious caramel cake, punch and nuts to the members.

Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my loved ones, friends and neighbors for every expression of love and kindness shown to me during my recent illness while in Franklin Memorial Hospital and also since I have been home. I want to especially thank each one who gave me blood. Also each one who sent a card, visited me or offered a prayer for me.
May God bless each one of you.

B. S. Alford.

was given by Mrs. George Dennis.
After a short business meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments to 5 members.

NEW YORK SUMMER

Reigning over New York's festivities from early June to Labor Day is this year's Summer Festival Queen, Nancy Davison. A '67 first is a Summer Festival of the Arts at Lincoln Center.

Ouch

Abby: What's worse than a giraffe with a sore throat?
Andy: A centipede with corns.
