Teenage Chat

By Bettie Lavender

School has been out for nearly two weeks now, and the teens around the county haven't had a dull moment since. You can tell by the sun-burned noses and the don't touch me sign on almost everyone's back that the beaches and lakes have been the place to go. Ask Cliff Edwards, Crow Patterson, Bill Rigans, and George Fleming. They just returned Sunday from Myrtle Beach.

This preceding week the Louisburg majorettes attended majorette camp in Henderson. They were Patsy Murphy, Frances Griffin, Betty Radford, Lou Robertson, and Cynthia Best. These girls took time out Wednesday to soak up some sun at Kerr Lake. At the same time the M.Y.F. of the Louisburg Methodist Church were having a picnic at the lake under the supervision of Margaret Hobgood and Walter McDonald.

Saturday night Margo Raynor was given a surprise going away party at Amedio's in Raleigh. Those who attended were Marilyn Stewart, Beth Johnson, Anita Tillotson, Betty Jo Tippet and Rita Patterson.

Betty Lavender is visiting relatives in St. Paul, Minnesota this week. Tracy Winn spent last weekend with Janet Biggs in Raleigh.

So you see, the teens around here aren't having any trouble finding something to do. If you're in town this weekend, Mrs. Arnold invites everyone out to the Key Club Saturday night. Come stag or bring a date. Everyone will have fun!

Summer has finally begun to swing for some of Youngsville's teens. With all this sun we've been having lately, Pam and Carol Gilliam decided they just couldn't stay away from the beach any longer. They spent the weekend at Carolina Beach trying to "warm it up" for the summer!

Also enjoying the sunny season was Jo Ann Fraizer who ventured to Kerr Lake over the weekend.

By the way, seems as if all the Pams in this area are taking up some form of sewing. I was wondering if Pam Gilliam ever finished that dress?

Other Youngsville youths on the go include Rhonda Strickland and Janet and Harriet Pearce. Bet they're a little sore after attending basketball camp at Greensboro this week. Ready to go, go, get 'em now!

Rexie Smith is on the go too, back to East Carolina for summer school.

Glad to hear Jimmie Keith is back in operation after his recent illness!

Birthday wishes go to Linda Winston on celebrating her seventeenth birthday; to Linda Cash on turning "Sweet Sixteen," and to Morris Catlett on his fifteenth birthday!

You know, summer is a time of work and relaxation. Lots of our teens are holding down summer jobs with either business firms or on farms. A few people are lazy, so lazy in fact, they just sit and watch stop lights change colors. O.K. Otha and Joe, you can go back to work now!

I haven't seen too many of the Youngsville crowd but those I have seen are either pink, blistered, or freckled! Be sure and give me a ring at 556-5346 if anything happens. Please, don't think I'm nosy, other people are. Everybody wants to find out how everyone else is spending their summer. If you send the news in a letter, please make sure your signature comes with it because if it doesn't, I can't use the information. Send it to Vickie Wheeler, Route 1, Louisburg, N. C.

Dean's List

Youngsville - Miss Judy Rae Pearce, daughter of Mrs. William Ray Pearce and the late Mr. Pearce of Youngsville, has received word from Robert L. Holt, Dean of East Carolina College, that she made the Dean's List because of her high scholastic record during the past quarter.

Miss Pearce graduated from ECC in May with the BS degree in Elementary Education. She was a member of the Student National Education Association and Association for Childhood Education. She plans to teach in Garner beginning this fall.
