In Fashion

Resort dresses are short, sleeveless and in many instances belted high up under the bust line. Others are worn without belts or sashes of any kind. Apron effects are good.

A new sandal is one that has a strap running halfway up the calf of the leg. It also has a sturdy medium heel.

Vivid colors in strips and figures decorate cover-ups for the sea shore and pool wear. Color and designs of this kind are also popular for lounging pajamas.

One of the new trends in haircuts are neatly barbered jobs with bangs at the nape of the neck.

One especially lovely suit is fashioned as a vertically tucked tunic and has separate shorts. This comes in a white knitted fabric.

4-H Campers Return From Manteo

Fifty-two campers returned Saturday to Louisburg from Saturday to Manteo from Roanoke Island 4-H Camp near Manteo. The week was filled with classes, swimming, sports, recreation, and vespers. On Wednesday evening, the 4-H'ers took a tour to Kitty Hawk to see an old ship wreck. That night they went to see the Lost Colony.

Eleven 4-H'ers were presented certificates for their outstanding accomplishments as a camper. Superior camper awards went to Byron Harris, Vicent Harris and Randy Thomas. This award was for over-all camp spirit. Other 4-H'ers receiving awards in various classes included: Cade Beasley, Margo Hamlett, Gaynell Harris, Wanda Walters, Dexter Denton, Romie House, Len Wester, and Barry Wester.

Group captains from Franklin County were Terri Merritt, Donnie Dement, Len Wester, Barry Wester and Cade Beasley.
