

Corned Beef and Cheese Waffles

When it's a soup and sandwich luncheon with fresh fruit for dessert, make the sandwich something special by toasting it in your wafflemaker.

Fill slices of round rye bread with a slice of canned corned beef and one of process American cheese, then brush the bread generously with melted butter and pop it into the wafflemaker to take on the characteristic waffle texture. Serve the savory sandwiches with mugs of your favorite soup. Add crunchy relishes, and let the table centerpiece of fresh fruit be the dessert.

Canned corned beef can truly be called "instant meat" for it has been completely cooked in the can and is ready for enjoyment the minute the can is opened to be used thinly sliced as in these attractive luncheon sandwiches or combined with any number of other ingredients to make any number of appetizing dishes.

Canned corned beef takes up so little space that many good cooks like to keep one or two cans in the refrigerator and a few on the cupboard shelf. The firm chilled meat cuts into handsome slices, thick or thin, for sandwiches and for serving hot or cold. The unchilled meat is quickly flaked with a fork to make sandwich spreads, salads and all types of delectable casserole mixtures.

- Corned Beef and Cheese Waffles
- 1 can (12 oz.) corned beef, chilled and sliced
 - 8 slices rye bread
 - Melted butter or margarine
 - 4 slices process American cheese

Heat waffle iron to same temperature as for waffles. Place a slice of corned beef and one of cheese on 4 slices of bread. Top with remaining bread slices and brush well with melted butter. Bake sandwiches as you would waffles until browned and cheese is melted, about 5 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Cramming For Finals

Baltimore - Bill Worthington, 91, of Yonkers, N. Y. spends much of his time speaking to meetings of the American Association of Retired Persons. The master of ceremonies asked him what he read and Worthington said the Bible. He explained that he had read it before, but was "cramming for the finals."

On Cartnapping

Los Angeles - Southern California grocery stores lose approximately $150,000,000 worth of shopping carts. He said many shoppers don't intend to steal the $30 carts but only use them to haul groceries home. The professional cartnaper takes the abandoned carts and resells them in another area.

A smile can sometimes be expensive.

About Your Home

Do you drive yourself to "keep up with the Joneses?" If so you are doing yourself and your family a great disservice. It is an actual fact that attempts to keep up with the Joneses can often lead to the mental hospital.

It is unfortunate that in our society the demand for respect takes so many forms. Most people are constantly striving to obtain all the respect that wealth or position make possible.

We are constantly trying to discover means of scoring prestige points in order to get ahead of competitors having the same income.

We are told that in this department the woman pays the highest price. Women are especially active in regard to competition, and they quite often pay in terms of mental health.

No home can be happy and normal where so much importance is attached to material things and social position. Children are greatly influenced by this attitude on the part of mother. It affects their feeling of security.

The repercussions do not stop here. Quite often a woman who is putting such tremendous effort into keeping up with the Joneses is the type that feels she is a cut or so above her husband socially. She not only undermines the authority of the male in the house but many create a pathological environment for the children.

Hord, Frazier Wed In Charlotte

Miss Brenda Ann Frazier of Charlotte, N. C. and Mr. James Franklin Hord of Wichita, Kansas were united in marriage Sunday, June 25, at 4 o'clock in the Calvary Baptist Church, Charlotte, N. C.

Rev. Thurman, assisted by the bride's father, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Frazier of Charlotte, N. C. and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ayscue of Route 1, Henderson and of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kenneth Frazier of Route 2, Franklinton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hord, Sr., also of Charlotte.

Mr. Joe Wentzell was organist and Mr. Paul Horn, Jr. sang the Lord's Prayer and the Wedding Prayer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of satin covered in Rose design and Chantilly lace with a portrait neckline trimmed with sequins, tear length sleeves and a detachable train. Her headpiece was a cluster of rosettes with seeded pearls from which draped a shoulder length veil. She carried a white Bible covered with lace and a white orchid.

Miss Carol Mason was maid of honor. She wore a Sue blue chiffon floor length gown lined with crepe and a train with matching ecru lace trim at the empire waistline. Her headpiece was of Sue blue chiffon and she carried white carnations.

Miss Sheryle Barnd, Miss Dianne Vaillancart, Miss Donna Robertson and Miss Veda Ford were bridesmaids. Their attire was identical to that of the honor attendant. They carried corsages of blue and white carnations. Little Misses Cynthia Ayscue and Terry Swanner, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They wore long white dresses and carried lace baskets of blue and white carnation petals. The bride's mother wore a turquoise crepe and lace dress with matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a pink embroidered linen with matching accessories. They both wore white orchids.

Charles S. Hord, Jr. was his brother's best man. Jerry Swanner, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer. Ushers were John S. Frazier, brother of the bride, Jay Capps, cousin of the groom, Bill Douglas and Leslie Hight.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside in Wichita, Kansas. A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church immediately following the wedding.

Guests from Franklin County attending were Mrs. Mattie F. Woodlief and Deborah of Youngsville and Mrs. Betsy F. Marshall of Louisburg.

It is?

"Sadie, what is a gentleman?"
"A gentleman is a man you don't know very well."

Immortal Command

God give us such men again... men who know there is an enemy... men who have the courage to face that enemy, calmly and resolutely, and stand their ground! For in these later days of the Great Republic we are humiliated with a treacherous enemy within, as well as an implacable enemy without. The latter we shall deal with, when the time comes, as we have dealt with others before him. The former should be dealt with now. As Captain Parker did.
