

Franklinton Scouts End Camporee

Camp Pocomoke held its 1967 summer camp last week, June 26-30. It was the 4th annual summer camp planned and operated by Boy Scout Troop 530 of Franklinton. Attending the camp were Earl Peoples, Al Conyers, Edward Kearney, Chuck Julian, Toby Edwards, Nat Sandling, Gene Walden, Tyke Edwards, and Tommy Piper.

Each morning after "Reveille" the boys participated in flag raising and tower building. Meals were cooked and served outdoors by camp cooks Cliff Williams and Everett Frye while camp activities were carried out under the full-time leadership of Assistant Scoutmaster Ray Hight and the part-time direction of other later-mentioned community volunteers.

After lunch the boys were given an hour of free time during which they could play basketball, hike to the store at Pocomoke, or just rest. Later in the afternoon each day, the boys were allowed to practice archery and marksmanship. A period was also provided in the afternoon for bathing.

The evening activities began after supper with services in the camp chapel after which the flag was lowered. Other evening activities consisted of timed 50-yard dashes, basketball, and night hikes. Each day was concluded with the sound of "Taps."

The special surprise of the week came on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Tom

Gulley who treated the boys to hot dogs, hamburgers, ice cream, drinks, strawberries and cake.

The climax of the camp was the Thursday night campfire program at which prizes and awards were presented to the boys who excelled in various activities during the week. Archery prizes went to Earl Peoples, Al Conyers, and Nat Sandling while marksmanship prizes went to Chuck Julian and Tommy Piper. The winners of awards were as follows: Archer-Earl Peoples; Marksmanship-Chuck Julian; Pioneering - Toby Edwards; Athletics-Tommy Piper; Best Camper-Al Conyers; and Best Behaved-Edward Kearney.

Friday afternoon brought the closing of camp as packs and other equipment were thrown into cars. Each boy returned home with experiences that he will remember for many years.

Henry C. Mixon Licensed To Preach

A certificate of license to preach the gospel of the Christian faith was awarded to Henry C. Mixon, Sunday, July 2 by the Rev. A. S. Tomlinson, Pastor of the Louisburg Baptist Church. This action followed the recommendation of the Church Advisory Board that the Church confer the license to preach. The Church in conference, June 25, unanimously adopted the recommendation of its Advisory Board.

Mr. Mixon has served the Church in many offices, including the positions of Church School Superintendent and Chairman of the Missions Committee. The Church expressed pleasure in commending Mr. Mixon to any Churches or persons who may seek his assistance as a Lay Preacher.

He is married to the former Beatrice H. Simmons. They have 3 children, Mrs. Tommy Rowe, Darrell B. Simmons, now serving in the U. S. Air Force, and Charles Mixon of the home.
