I just knew it had to happen. I knew Ronnie would have to get into some mischief last week. Everytime Jo Ann leaves, he goes and has a wreck! What next? Anyone want to know how Manteo is these days just ask Mary Lou Brown and Linda Paschall. They should know after last weekend!

What's this I hear about some new car owners, Greg and E. J.? How about that '62 Chevy and that '67 Caprice! Congratulations boys!

Oh yes, folks, add another name to your list of drivers that you have to watch out for -- Pam. No not Pam Hart, she's been buzzing around a long time, but Pam Gilliam. Seems as if her parents have forgotten how to drive!

Paris Collections Spotlight Cotton

PARIS STYLE—Contemporary is the word for this stylish afternoon coat with standaway neck and starkly simple lines that flare into an A-line hem. In pure white cotton satin, it's from Phillippe Venet's summer collection.

FRENCH COUTURE—Cotton pique takes beautifully to the masterful tailoring of this afternoon suit by Nina Ricci that heralds the return of the belt. Softening the tailored effect is a filmy cotton organdy kerchief across one shoulder.

CHIC—Couturier Jacques Heim comes up with a striking look for summer: the coat-dress, skillfully executed in dazzling white cotton twill. Style details include double-breasted jewel buttons, waistline seaming, and top stitching on pockets, lapels, and hem.
