Revivals

FLAT ROCK BAPTIST

Revival services will be conducted at the Flat Rock Baptist Church, Route 1, Louisburg beginning July 10 and will go through the 11 a.m. worship hour Sunday morning July 16.
Services will begin each evening at 8:00 o'clock, with special singing at each service. A nursery will be provided for children up to age three.

The visiting speaker for the revival will be the Reverend Jim C. Brackett of Battleboro, North Carolina. Reverend Brackett attended Gardner-Webb College, Carson-Newman College, and will be a senior at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest this fall. He is married and has two children.
Reverend Brackett has served the Battleboro Baptist Church for the past two years.

The Reverend W. Floyd Ben-field, pastor of the church, extends to everyone a cordial invitation to attend these services.

TRINITY METHODIST

A venture in Faith Revival will be held at Trinity Methodist Church on July 9-13 at 8:00 p.m.

The visiting preacher is the Reverend James H. Colle, who is pastor of the Bethlehem-Shady Grove Methodist Charge in Warren County. Mr. Colle attended Louisburg College, the University of Maryland, and Atlantic Christian College. At the present, he is a student at Duke Divinity School. He is a Third Degree Mason.

Special music, as well as congregational singing, will be rendered each evening.
Rev. William D. Clodfelter, the pastor, cordially invites everyone to attend.

Named

SPRING HOPE - Ted Bissette, local businessman has been named by Rep. James Gardner to serve on the Fourth Congressional District Agriculture Advisory Committee.
The group meets monthly in Washington, D. C.

Revival

REV. JOE BRIDGES

Revival services will begin at the Red Bud Baptist Church July 10 and continue through the 16th.

Rev. Joe J. Bridges, pastor of the Mon-Aetna Baptist Church in Union, S. C., is the visiting evangelist.

Services will begin each evening at 8:00 p.m. There will also be special singing each night.

James Estep, pastor, extends a cordially welcome to visitors.

Funds Cut

ROXBORO-The General Assembly has appropriated the sum of $25,000 for capital improvements to the Carolina Power Lake Recreation Park.
The amount was cut from an original request for $75,000 for the development of the 62-acre lake recreation park.
