Electric Co-op Employee Retires

Foster Barham retired June 30, after 22 years of service with Wake Electric Membership Corporation. Mr. Barham has been Service Supervisor for Wake Electric for the past five years. He has an outstanding work record, having driven over 1/2 million miles without an accident, has never had a lost time accident, and has averaged only 2 3/4 days sick leave a year, during the 22 year period, yet he has worked many hours in all kinds of adverse weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Barham, and their daughter, Mrs. Charles Carter, were guests of Wake Electric's employees at a recent appreciation dinner.

J. L. Shearon, Wake's Manager, expressed appreciation to Mr. Barham for his unselfish, faithful and dedicated service to the Cooperative, especially for the many friends he has made for himself and the business. He then presented Mr. Barham a gold watch as tangible evidence of this appreciation.

R. M. Cooper, Wake's Line Superintendent, presented Mr.

BARHAM - SHEARON
Barham an appropriate gift from the Cooperative's employees as a token of their friendship.

GREAT SAVINGS BEGIN WITH A FREEZER!

Smart homemakers let big capacity food freezers save them time and money. Besides cutting down on trips to the supermarket, a freezer's abundant capacity lets the lady of the house take advantage of food specials and large quantity buys. Food can be stocked when prices are low and quality high. A modern food freezer gives welcome flexibility in food preparation, too. Meals can be prepared in advance, frozen and served when desired. Now's the time to cash in on freezer savings. Ask your electric appliance dealer to show you the new, no-defrosting freezers and refrigerator-freezers this week.
