Sleeth, Penick Speak Vows

Louisville, Ky.—Miss Rose Marie Penick became the bride of David Lloyd Sleeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Sleeth, of Louisville, in a ceremony at 4020 Southern Parkway, home of the bride, Friday evening, August 11th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Penick. The Rev. Charles O. Lieser, pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church, officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Matron of honor was Mrs. Ralph Jamison, whose husband was best man. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Roger Harder, organist.

For her wedding, the bride wore a street length dress of chantilly lace over acetate taffeta, fashioned with a scoop neckline, with pointed wrist length sleeves. Her tiara headress was of seed pearls with a circular veil of matching chantilly and tulle, and she carried a white Bible with a purple orchid. Her only accessory was an heirloom string of pearls.

A traditional southern reception in the home followed the ceremony. Assisting the bride's parents as hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse J. Johnson, of Raleigh, N. C., aunt and uncle of the bride. The reception motif, used in the dining room, was in green and white, and assisting in serving and receiving throughout the house were Mrs. Orville Redeman, Mrs. Ralph Cox and Mrs. Ray McKeenan. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis of Irvington, Ky.

The bride attended Manual High School and is a graduate of Louisville Beauty College. She is now employed by Stewart's Beauty Salon, in Louisville. Her husband attended Manual, and is employed by the Brown & Williamson Tobacco Co. The couple will make their home in Louisville.

Mrs. Sleeth is the granddaughter of Mrs. John Fletcher Harris and the late Mr. Harris of Franklinton, N.C.

Teenage Chat

Youngsville

Vickie Wheeler

I heard a most incredible thing the other day. It's a rumor going around Youngsville. So let's see if you believe it. It goes something like this - it seems as if Donna Privette was driving a long Carolina Beach when the tide "sneaked" in and filled the car with sand and water. Little hard to believe, eh? What's this I hear about C. L. Wrenn having a blister? Right where? Was she really mad?

Wonder how Otha enjoyed his trip to the N. C. mountains? "Give me a ticket for an airplane, ain't got time to take a fast train," was probably Cathy Murphy's cry as she headed for some Florida sun and fun at Miami.

Word has it that Jimmie Keith has been spending some time at Carolina Beach.

Wonder how Katie and Nancy Lindsey enjoyed their stay at White Lake?

Bet Jones was glad to see little sis Linda in Kentucky recently.

We've really got Stewart wondering. He can't figure out how I found out about the Villa Capri bit. Sorry about that but I'll never tell! Hal Just think Stewart!

Everybody had better watch out -- add another new driver to your list -- Jo Ann Fraizer. She'll drive anything -- trucks, cars.

This Larry Paschall has his problems. I know so now because he has this odd way of saying hello. Shell we say Eskimo style?

Can you believe it, Elaine's been driving Horace's car?

Drat it! I'm sitting here, my mind blank, trying to think of a way to start off today's chat. I can think of nothing stimulating, interesting, or even cute to say, unless you want to hear a joke. But since you don't, I'll just say that it's been a usual week-end--you know those kind, one in which very little happens. WARNING: Get in some last minute going. For nine eternal months there's going to be very little time to do anything but study. And for about eight months out of the nine, you're usually grounded for the previous month's report card, so go while you can!

Saturday night Betty Bowers celebrated her sixteenth birthday with a cook-out. It seems that it was a swell party, except for one minor incident. Betty, I'm sorry you didn't appreciate the gift from your little brother. Not everybody gets a whole pepsi poured in his lap! Those who enjoyed the cook-out are Peyton Collier, Jackie Cassell, Vickie Stallings, Lynn Height, and Beverly Shearin. Those who didn't enjoy it are... just kidding, Betty, and HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Marilyn Stewart, Talmadge Allen, Anita Tillotson and Margo Raynor left for Atlantic Beach Saturday and returned Monday. Hope you had a blast, girls! Didn't get too much sun, did you?

It seems that others enjoyed a week of sun and fun at the beach, too. How about it Jerry and Mary Elizabeth Riggins? They spent last week at Carolina Beach.

Patsy Murphy visited in Chapel Hill Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. How do you like college life, Patsy?
