

Rowe, Goswick Wed Sunday

Miss Sandra Wright Goswick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright Goswick of Route 1, Louisburg, became the bride of William Spruill Rowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant T. Rowe, also of Louisburg, on Sunday at Perry's Chapel Baptist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Clark and the Rev. Ralph Clegg.

Miss Cenieth Elmore, organist, and Mrs. Jane Wilder, soloist, rendered a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Marjorie Leonard directed the wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of imported Chantilly lace embroidered with pearls. The full Chapel train fell from the shoulders. The tiered hemline of the dress and train was a wide border and was finished in a scalloped edge. She chose for her bridal bouquet a white Bible topped with a Georgianna orchid and showered with stephanotis and white roses. Her veil was attached to a crown of pearls and iridescents.

Mrs. Beron Shearon, sister of the groom, was matron of honor and Miss Donna Kaye House of High Point, N. C. was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Jo Goswick, sister of the bride, Mrs. Jimmie Cash of Franklinton, Miss Keith Perry and Miss Bonnie Bell, both of Durham, cousins of the bride. The bridesmaids wore yellow dotted swiss floor length gowns, fully lined except the bell sleeves, and finished with yellow velvet ribbon around the empire line with back bow ending in streamers of ribbon to the hemline. Their head pieces were of yellow velvet ribbon and yellow illusion and they carried bouquets of yellow carnations and yellow shasta daisies. The dresses of the maid of honor and the matron of honor were the same, with head pieces of seeded pearls on a crown with yellow illusion. Their flowers were mint green carnations and white shasta daisies.

Flower girl was Ivy Watson of Durham, cousin of the bride. Her dress was the same as the honor attendants, and she carried a basket of daisies. Ring bearer was Kip Rowe of Ayden, nephew of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a Miracle Blue silk shantung ensemble with lace yoke and sleeves, with matching hat and shoes. She wore off-white gloves.

The groom's mother chose a pink crepe dress with lace yoke and sleeves. Her shoes and hat were of matching color and she wore white gloves. They both wore corsages of white Georgianna orchids.

Mr. Rowe served as his son's best man. Ushers were B. T. Rowe, Jr., brother of the groom, of Ayden, N. C., Ronald Wayne Goswick, William Larry Goswick, brother of the bride, Beron Shearon, brother-in-law of the groom, Butch Meek of Warrenton and Jimmie Cash of Franklinton.

The bride attended Franklinton High School and Louisburg College and is presently employed at the First Federal in Louisburg. The groom attended Louisburg High School and George Washington University for two years while he was an Honor Guard in Co. C., Arlington, Va. He is employed at Rowe Chevrolet-Buick, Louisburg.

Following a wedding trip to the mountains, the couple will reside in Louisburg.

RECEPTION

A reception was given immediately following the wedding by the bride's parents at the Needmore Community House.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rowe, cousins of the grooms.

The receiving line was composed of the bride's parents, the bride and groom, the groom's parents, and the honor attendants.

Mrs. Jones Cannady, Sr. served punch from a crystal bowl at the reception table covered with a mint green cloth overlaid with lace. Floral arrangements of white flowers and candelabra bearing burning tapers decorated the table. Mrs. Rebecca Watson, cousin of the bride, assisted. Bridesmaids assisted in serving party sandwiches, mints, and nuts.

The wedding cake encircled with ivy was placed on a table, which also held the picture of the bride. Mrs. Lucille Wilder, assisted by Mrs. Mildred Goswick, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Jimmie Cash presided at the register. The bride's book decorated with ivy and flanked by candelabra and the

AMERICANS ARE GETTING TOUCHY

Double Troubles

Without a suitable toothpaste, designed especially for touchy teeth, all the brushing in the world won't brush the trouble away. It may aggravate it!

The reason is that tooth enamel can't restore itself. Teeth are sensitive when outer protection wears down.

A new toothpaste, called Thermodent, relieves the pain of sensitive teeth and helps build resistance to pain in areas where tooth enamel has been worn away. It is available at local drug stores.

You can't tell what a man thinks by what he says.

Miss Conn Shows Slides Of Western Trip And Hawaii

The Gold Sand Home Demonstration Club met Monday night, August 21, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Gupton in the Gold Sand Community.

Mrs. Mildred Bowers,

President, called the meeting to order and minutes of the last meeting were read by Miss Shellie Marshall, Secretary.

Members were entertained by Miss Mary Conn who recently made a five weeks tour of the western states, including California and Hawaii. Slides of her trip were shown and Miss Conn, dressed in Hawaiian fashion, delightfully narrated her trip to the fourteen members present.

A flower arranging contest was held, participated in by everyone. Beautiful arrangements were made from freshly cut flowers of mums, asters, glads, crepe myrtle, magnolia, petunias and many others. Creating a colorful arrangement of deep pink petunias won Mrs. Ruby Conn first prize of a lovely bud vase. Helpful hints and sug-

Teenage Chat

Louisburg

Betty Sue Radford

Since once again I have no exceptional inspiration for beginning today's report, I'll do what I threatened to do Tuesday. What else but tell a joke? I'm sure this one will identify with every normal American teen. Here goes! Frustrated teenager: "If it isn't one thing, it's a mother!" Right? Actually, I'm only kidding, because what could we do without our mother? I advise you not to answer that!

Who could pick a worse week weather-wise to go camping? No one except Mike Fuller and Maurice Jones. How do you like sleeping in a tent, boys? I bet it's cozy but damp! Heard Mike got a warning about this messy weather from an inexperienced weather reporter. Now, Patricia, you shouldn't have warned him!

Carolina Beach seemed to have been bubbling with the younger Louisburg crowd last week. Greg May, Buddy Wheelless, Bill Davis, Johnny Pernel, Sally Griffin, Jerry Riggans, and Mary Elizabeth Riggans were a few of the sun and fun kids who seemingly had a blast down at the beach.

If you have any comments or suggestions that will improve my article, they will be appreciated. But you'd better not complain about the lack of news, because that's your fault! You should inform me when anything happens. Candid comment: He's so dumb he flunked sandbox!

gestions were given by Mrs. Margaret Gupton, an experienced florist.

Refreshments were served in the Hawaiian theme of colorful sherberts and cake, decorated with a Hawaiian flower.

Grace Visits Hollywood

Hollywood, Cal. -- Princess Grace of Monaco, her husband, Prince Rainier, and their children visited a movie studio recently. The royal couple is visiting Hollywood for the first time since their marriage.

A Suggestion: Read a good book this month.

Well, we have a little longer in which to enjoy our summer vacations. So let's make good use of it. But how with such weather as we've been having? Meanwhile, let's look forward to next year's activities. From what I hear, everyone is actually becoming restless and eager for school to begin.

How about this for a shocker? Seems as if Jo Ann Frazier and Rose Strickland recently tried that loving sport called skiing. Poor ole Kerr Lake will never be the same!

I've been hearing about your car's new paint job Mike White, but not until recently had I seen it. Sharp!

Word has it that Jackie Weathersby has a baseball scholarship and will be attending Chowan Junior College.

What's this I hear about Linda Strother and Gay Pitts living at the "Y". Is September eighth an important date?

Poor Ronnie Johnson's been having his ups and downs--mostly downs--like falling from barns.

What's this I hear about Pam Gilliam getting so mad her hair frenzied? Jo Ann, Marilyn, and I had a crazy blast!

By the way, Stewart, what happened to your classing? Oh yes, cheerleaders had practice recently. Now, about those problems!

How about that Perry-Greene wedding in Zebulon Jenny? Pretty nice!

Birthday wishes go to Jimmie Cash and Mark Woodlieff.

How about Charlie and Linda?

Quote from Sydney J. Harris--Little girls want to be princesses, but little boys don't want to be princes, and from those two different starting points come all the confusions, contradictions, and cross-purposes of courtship and marriage.
