Unfortunately, the long schedule has started, meaning that the hours now number six and one-half instead of five. That does make a difference, where school is concerned! How about it all you school-goers?

The Louisburg Cheerleaders have begun their money-making project to sponsor this year's Homecoming. They sold doughnuts Saturday and will be selling them again next weekend, so, please help the cheerleaders by buying a box of fresh, Krispy-Kreme doughnuts!

Speaking of Homecoming, Franklinton will play Louisburg, Friday night for their homecoming. There is a dance afterwards and everyone is invited to stay.

News is short today. Let me know what you're up to or what your school is doing. News will be appreciated.

Thought: Appreciative awareness of others is an essential part of our own fulfillment.

Wanted To Keep Busy

Paris, Ohio--Martha Henrich has two jobs. She farms 313 acres during the summer and tops out 300 head of cattle a year. In the winter she drives a tractor-trailer truck and hauls steel. The 22-year-old single girl said she is respected by other drivers because she acts like a lady.

Most people think they are pretty smart so why not agree with them?

Students home from college this weekend included Polly Roberts from Rex Nursing School, Jimmie Keith from Chowan, and Lin Green from East Carolina University.

Oh yes, Jimmie Rook was "home" from West Carolina University. Jim needs no introduction, does he Darlyne?

What's this I hear about Rodney and Harriet? Is Linda really insanely jealous? How's French II Jo Ann? Just (?) eh Pam and Curt?

Congratulations go to Linda Paschall on getting her driving permit and to Margaret Rogers for having a "car of her own."

By the way Marie, what's this about an escaped prisoner's picture? Boy, Linda and Jo Ann, you wouldn't believe how embarrassing it can be!

We should all know by now that Jackie Wright and Donnie O'Neal are having their problems again this year, right boys?

Seems as if Debra Rogers has been busy lately, too! Glad to know Linda and Pam finally got together--with their C's--Charlie and Curt! The Nora C. Layton Y.W.A.'s met Monday night with Sandra Johnson. Those present were: Sandra Johnson, Judy Murray, Pam Hart, Elaine Murphy, Maxine Johnson, and Mildred Catlett and Vickie Wheeler.

Don't forget the next meeting October 1st at the Flat Rock Baptist Church. Thought: Love is the radiant point for all virtues, and to live in accordance with it is to obey all moral laws. Anonymous.

4-H Pullet Show & Sale At Co. Fair

The twelfth annual 4-H Pullet Show & Sale will be staged this year at the Franklin County Fair. There will be 10 coops consisting of 70 well developed Harco Red Sex Link pullets on display. The pullets, now in production, were hatched March 13th and delivered to poultry chain members on March 14th. Mr. Tom Morris, Extension Poultry Specialist of N. C. State University, will be the official judge. The judging will be based on management practices carried out by the club members, quality and degree of development.

The pullets will remain on exhibit Tuesday through Friday. On Friday, September 29th, all pullets will be sold to the highest bidder.

Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone for what they did for me during my stay at Franklin Memorial Hospital. I thank the entire staff of Franklin Memorial Hospital for all their kindness they extended to me while I was a patient there. I thank Dr. Lloyd and Dr. J. B. Wheelers for their wonderful service. May God richly bless them. I thank all my friends for the many cards and flowers that were given to me. I would like to thank my pastor for visiting me during my illness. Most of all, I thank each and everyone for remembering me in their prayers. May God bless each and everyone.

Farmers To Observe Tobacco Research

Oxford--The public will have an opportunity during a seven-hour period September 28, to visit the Tobacco Research Station here to observe scientific approaches to development of tobacco varieties, growth of preferred kinds of tobacco, efforts being made to control disease, and insect attacks on tobacco plants.

The Tobacco Station, supported by Agriculture Research Service of U. S. Department of Agriculture, North Carolina Department of Agriculture, and North Carolina State Experiment Station,

Scouts

Youngsville--Mrs. D. H. Cyrus, Jr. had a training program for Cub Scout Den Mothers at her home on Thursday night September the 14th. The overall Cub Scout Program was outlined and plans and goals for the new year of scouting were discussed and formulated. Refreshments of blueberry turnovers, coffee, cookies and coca-colas were served to those in attendance.

Mrs. William Hart and Mrs. Irene Timberlake are the two new Den Mothers who were selected for leadership in the new year at the first monthly Cub Scout Pack meeting which was held at the Community house last week. There were fifteen Cubs and a number of parents in attendance for the organizational meeting. Mrs. Cyrus and Mrs. Russell Strickland will be working again this year as Den Mothers.

Mr. Mack DeMent will serve again as Cubmaster with J. T. Young as assistant.

Mrs. Allen Stallings has been appointed to serve as Chairlady for the Cubs at the annual Pot Luck Dinner which will be held in October. She is selecting a committee to work with her.
