Apple Dumplings Herald Autumn

Here's a dessert for those brisk days of early fall when the season's first cooking apples come to market in all their juicy, tart splendor. Glazed Apple Dumplings are baked in a rich brown sugar sauce that also serves as the glaze. Serve the warm dumplings with a bit of the sauce and cream, if desired.

Louisburg FHA Has Mother-Daughter Banquet

"Opportunities Unlimited" was the theme for the annual Mother-Daughter F.H.A. Banquet at the Murphy House, Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock. Patricia Riggan, president, welcomed seventy-seven mothers, daughters and special guests after which Cade Beasley. Vice-President, gave the invocation. Each member presented her mother and Patricia gave special recognition to Mrs. Russell Nelms, Mrs. Lela McDonald, Mrs. Alex Ball, Mrs. Henry Strickland and W. H. Riggan for rendering special services to the organization thus far this year.

Cynthia Shillinglaw, Jane Nelms and Jane House contributed to the program by reviewing special articles from Teen-Times, the National F.H.A. magazine.

Mrs. Hazel Tripp, State F. H.A. Advisor, presented a most interesting program on Jobs and Careers for Future Homemakers. "Homemaking Education un the high school should not be overlooked as an important part of any girl's training for the future", said Mrs. Tripp. Shearon Strickland, Ann Strickland, Patricia Freeman, Deborah Boyd, Deborah Holmes and Sallie Griffin assisted Mrs. Tripp in a part of the program. She concluded by using traffic signs to illustrate points in encouraging teen-agers to think and take advantage of the many opportunities facing them.

Vell Freeman, Sharon Strickland and Sallie Griffin were recognized for planning the program. Bonnie Phelps, Anita Strickland, Carol McDonald and Jane Nelms decorated for the banquet. Jane House, Debbie Shearin and Carolyn Denton planned the menu. The covers for the program were designed by Tracey Winn. Mrs. Marjorie G. Leonard is the advisor to this organization.
