

Free Will Baptist Revival

REV. HILL

Revival services are now in progress each evening this week at the First Free Will Baptist Church, 930 N. Main St. in Louisburg. Time is 7:30.

Rev. J.W. Long, Jr., pastor of Jay Free Will Baptist Church in Tarboro, and Rev. Glenn Hill, pastor of Rocky Mount Free Will Baptist Church in Rocky Mount, N.C., are conducting the services.

REV. LONG

They are both graduates of Free Will Baptist Bible College in Nashville, Tennessee. Rev. Earl Gilliam, pastor urges you to attend these services.

Nominees For Governor's School Are Announced

Nominees from Franklin County for the Governor's School for the 1968 session are as follows: In the academic area, Mary Louise Gaskill, Bunn High School; Albert Thomas Rowland, Epsom High School; Robert Frances Fuller, William Kirkland House, Phyllis Elaine Kerley, Deborah Ann Robertson, Louisburg High School; Thurston Roosevelt Alston, Riverside High School and Leelan Mark Woodlief, Youngsville High School. In the area of fine arts, Cassandra Lee Versteeg, Louisburg High School, drama; John Denton, Gold Sand High School and Carole Mitchell, Youngsville High School, Art.

Eligibility for nomination in the academic areas is determined by a minimum I.Q. score, an acceptable over all grade average on all subjects taken in high school, a scholastic rank within the upper 20% of the class, and demonstrated intelligence, interest and aptitude. For selection in the area of the arts, eligibility depends upon demonstrated ability and interest in the particular art area and average and above I.Q. score and academic record. All nominees must come from the rising junior or senior classes.

Each school administrative unit within the state is permitted to make nominations for the school of those, sent to the staff of the Governor's School, 400 are selected throughout the state to attend. Franklin County has sent five students to the school in previous summers. Representing the county last year was Jane Johnson of Edward Best High School.

Johnson's Speech

In his State of the Union speech, President Johnson told the nation it faces spiraling prices and continued devaluation of the American dollar unless Congress increases taxes to help offset planned federal spending of $186 billion.

College To Have Bridge Tournament

On February 22, at 7:30, a duplicate bridge tournament will be held in the Benjamin Duke Cafeteria on the college campus. This past semester, our attendance was such that we are again inviting all interested bridge players from the town of Louisburg, students, and friends of the college.

Mrs. Walter B. Cochran of Raleigh, one of the top bridge instructors, will be on campus that night to run the bridge tournament. We are in hopes of having 40 to 50 couples. Anyone interested in playing should contact Coach John W. Smith at the college.

Thanks

I wish to thank the nurses on the second floor of Franklin Memorial Hospital and Dr. John Lloyd for everything that they did for me while a patient at the hospital. To all my relatives and friends, I am grateful for the cards, flowers and visits.

Mrs. Allie Mae Ball

Franklinton

Visiting the William Eatons during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. William Eaton, Jr. of Lorton, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Weathers and family of Goldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Conyers of Superior, Wisconsin left Monday after being guests of the William Eatons.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fuller and family of New Bern spent the weekend with Mrs. Charlotte Pearce. Sunday guests of Mrs. Pearce were Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Green of Raleigh.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Miller were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Harris and sons of Winston Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilkerson of Cary.

Mrs. B.J. Conyers visited Dr. and Mrs. Mike Dugan and family a few days last week.

Despite what some people think, going to Church hasn't hurt anyone yet, and it helps a great many.

Teenage Chat

Betty Sue Radford

Something like "Sweet Revenge" was the name of the game Saturday night as our Phantomettes defeated Wake Forest 84-62.

Members of Youngsville's Beta Club present at the meeting held Monday night at the home of Vickie Wheeler were C.L. Wrenn, Pam Hart, Elaine Murphy, Rommie Catlett, Jo Anne Frazier, Morris Catlett, Linda Stroud, and Sponsor Miss Betty Strother. Plans for an induction ceremony for selecting candidates to run for county offices, and for attending the county and state conventions were discussed.

Now what's this I hear about Barbara Bailey making an untimely appearance in the varsity dressing room? Something tells me she needed first-aid then? Ha!

Was wondering how Tony Bailey enjoyed his "surprise" Saturday night? Happy Birthday wishes also go to Johnny Mitchell and E.J. Wilder. Since Valentine's Day is near, may each of you be someone's Valentine!

I bet you didn't know that February is National Love Month. Valentine's Day is February 14, the day that Cupid will be making his rounds. If the "love bug" hasn't gotten you yet, you better beware!

Along with love month it's a birthday month, too. Those who will become a year older, but not much wiser are Jimmy Geddie, Judy Duke, Frances Griffin, and E.J. Wilder. Let me know how it feels to be 18, kids!

Home over the weekend were Emma Ruth Bartholomew, Mary Ann Fleming, Phyllis Jeffreys, Mike Fuller, and Terri Nash. Home for a week or two from Alaska (where he is presently stationed) is Ricky Batton. Good to see all of you!

The basketball season is rounding the last bend this week and next as tournaments get underway. Louisburg plays Franklinton Tuesday night and Youngsville Wednesday night at Louisburg. Thursday night, tournaments will begin. Good Luck to everyone!

Kevin Warren, also a new member, was absent due to illness. Photo by Ross Shuping.

Seven Paths

Mrs. Pete Moore of Red Oak is spending a few weeks with Mrs. L.S. Gay and Jenny in Spring Hope and a few days in our community with Mrs. Emma Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Fisher visited Mrs. Alma Dickens Sunday evening near Rocky Mount in Westmont Rest Home.

Miss Connie Williams was at home for a weekend from E.C.C. in Greenville. We regret that her father, J.E. Williams was ill on Sunday.

The W. M. S. of Cypress Church met in the home of Mrs. J.D. Champion Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harriett Moore and young Miss Cynthia Edwards of Nash County, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawley worshiped with us at Cypress Baptist Church Sunday morning.

We hear from the Brubakers

Mt. Zion WMS Meets

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church met last week with Elizabeth Murphy with 14 members present.

Irma Gupton, president, presided over the business portion of the meeting. The members were reminded of the week of prayer for Home Missions March 4-10.

On Monday night, March 4, there will be a study course held at the church for all interested in Home Missions. Beginning Tuesday night March 5 meetings will be held at the following places. Tuesday at 7:30 -- Zena

Gupton; Wednesday at 7:30 -- church; Thursday at 7:30 -- Ruth Kennedy; Friday at 7:30 -- Irma Gupton.

The call to prayer was given by Louise Bledsoe.

The topic for the February meeting was "Money for Missions" which was discussed by Corine Murphy, Betty Edwards, Elizabeth Murphy, Louise Bledsoe, Annie Murphy, Irma and Margaret Gupton.

The group was dismissed with prayer by Ruth Kennedy. The hostess served delicious strawberry short cake and coffee.

Unit Named

President Johnson has named an 18-member Commission on Obscenity and Pornography whose job will be to investigate the relationship between such material and antisocial behavior, especially in minors.

Sponsors Audio-Visual Workshop

The Audio-Visual Department of the Cecil W. Robbins Library of Louisburg College is sponsoring a workshop from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., on February 19-20 in the library auditorium.

The purpose of this workshop is to display work done by Louisburg College faculty members in Audio-Visuals. Various media will also be displayed through the courtesy of Stone's Southern School Supply in Raleigh. Two representatives will be available to answer questions and to give demonstrations of equipment.

The primary purpose of this workshop is to permit the faculty of Louisburg College to examine materials they have not yet used and to learn more about those that they have used. At the same time, the workshop is open to anyone interested in Audio-Visuals. Teachers are especially invited to attend.

On Drug Labeling

The Government has issued regulations requiring that manufacturers put more information labels on nonprescription drugs, medical devices and cosmetics. The food and Drug Administration regulations, effective July 1, apply to products available in drug-stores.

March Of Dimes Drive Ended

Youngsville -- Mrs. J. T. Allen, local chairman of the March of Dimes Drive for Birth Defects which was sponsored by the Youngsville Woman's Club, has turned in a final report showing an increase in local donations.

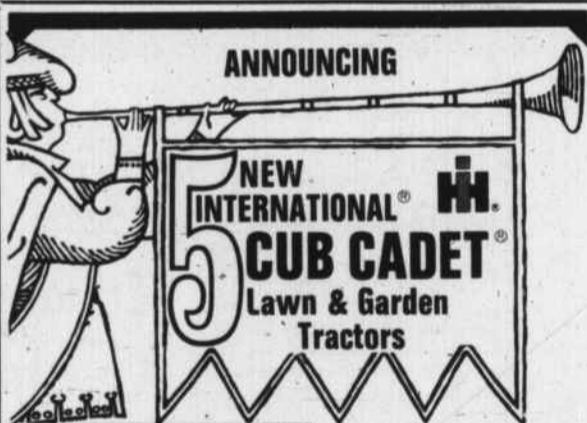

Since the Mother's March was conducted by the clubwomen, which netted $112.77, individual contributions and funds from coin containers have brought the total amount to $144.07; thus bringing a very successful conclusion to the drive in the area covered.
