

Edwards, Ford Speak Wedding Vows in Hawaii

The Waikiki Episcopal Chapel in Honolulu, Hawaii, was the setting for the noon marriage on Tuesday, December 31st, of Miss George Anne Ford of Louisburg, North Carolina, and Mr. John Ricky Edwards, also of Louisburg.

The Reverend Stanley M. Adams officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellis Ford of 610 North Main Street, Louisburg, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hurley Edwards of West Franklin Street of Louisburg. Mr. Edwards was his son's best man.

The church organist rendered a program of nuptial music including The Wedding March from Lohengrin by Wagner and Mendelssohn's Recessional.

Vases of red poinsettia flowers and candlesticks of lighted white tapers were placed on the altar.

The bride wore a formal white gown of imported silk Baline, designed on the empire A-line silhouette, featuring a Sabrina neckline and short sleeves, with Alencon lace appliques on empire bodice and front skirt. The Alencon lace appliques were repeated on the removable Watteau back panel. She wore a fingertip imported French illusion Mantilla bordered and appliqued with matching Alencon lace. The bride carried a white orchid bouquet cascaded with pekaki leis.

The groom's mother and father accompanied Miss Ford to Hawaii and were present for the private ceremony.

The groom's mother wore a pink silk, A-line dress with a ruffle extending from around the neck to a side curved effect ending at the hem with matching pink accessories. She chose an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held at the Edgewater Hotel. The groom's parents entertained the bridal couple at a dinner party on Tuesday evening, at the Top of Waikiki.

Fried Chicken To Crow About

News-worthy cookery method for fried chicken is offered in this novel recipe for Creamer Fried Chicken with Rich Gravy.

Here, the powdered coffee creamer, Pream, is combined with flour and seasonings to coat the chicken pieces before frying. The creamer accounts for the creamy-rich golden coating each piece acquires.

Note, too, the fail-proof method for cream-style gravy. With the aid of the powdered creamer, the gravy goes together in seconds, never lumps, tastes deliciously rich and creamy.

Creamer Fried Chicken with Pream-Rich Gravy

- 3/4 cup non-dairy Pream
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 2 frying chickens (2 to 2 1/2 pounds each) cut into serving pieces
- 1/2 pound lard
- 1 cup butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup non-dairy Pream
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Combine the 3/4 cup Pream, flour, salt and pepper. Coat chicken pieces with Pream mixture. Melt lard and butter in a large skillet. When fat is hot (325 F.), add chicken pieces, skin side down, several at a time, and fry over moderate to high heat. After about 15 minutes, or when golden brown on one side, turn and cook about 15 minutes on other side. Allow a little more time for legs and thighs than for breasts. Drain on paper towels and keep warm.

To make gravy, pour off all but about 2 tablespoons of the fat. Blend in the 2 teaspoons flour with a wire whip; cook and stir 1 minute. Add the 1/2 cup Pream, then boiling water all at once; beat with wire whip to blend. Increase heat to moderately high; cook and stir until gravy comes to the boil and thickens. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Makes 6 servings.

Japanese Arrangements Presented

The Town and Country Garden Club met for the January meeting Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Frank A. Read, Jr. on Green Hill Drive. Mrs. William F. Griffin, Jr. and Mrs. Read greeted the members at the door and directed them to the living room where the meeting was held.

There was a lovely arrangement of antiqued flowers in a large wooden container in the open fireplace.

Mrs. William H. O'Neal, president, presided over the business session. During this time Mrs. Thomas A. Riggan of the Awards Committee presented an extensive report concerning methods of obtaining recognition as a club and individually. An enthusiastic discussion period by all the members followed. Also, during the business session the club voted to accept the resignation of Mrs. Avery J. Dennis.

For the program a very well presented lecture was given by Mrs. Conrad B. Sturges, Jr. on the subject of Japanese Flower Arranging. A very interesting history, dating back to 1200 years ago, on the art of flower arranging in Japan and certain guidelines by which to follow were expounded upon. The three main styles: Monbana, Nageiri and Classical or Traditional were discussed in detail and demonstrated by previously prepared arrangements. Each arrangement of these three styles contained a show of symbolism in that Heaven, Earth and Man were represented.

Mrs. Sturges gave each member a reference sheet on which was included detailed descriptions of each style and informative illustrations of each style.

Hostesses Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Read served delicious chess pie and coffee to Mesdames Richard Smith, Conrad B. Sturges, Robert B. Fleming, William H. O'Neal, Paul A. Brewer, Thomas A. Riggan, Lawrence G. Barefoot, T. Allen Gardner, Walter B. Jones, Charles M. Davis and James R. Grady.
