'Canes Defeat Southwood, Wingate

Thursday night Louisburg traveled to Salemburg and came away with an 81-71 conference triumph over the Southwood Rams.

The 'Canes experienced trouble hitting from the floor in the early part of the game and trailed 29-30 at halftime. Two early second half field goals put the 'Canes in the lead and they did not trail again. The lead was as large as 22 points with 5 minutes to go in the game.

The Rams used a zone defense that gave the 'Canes trouble in the first half but with Dick Driver operating inside and Bob Walker shooting exceptionally well from the outside the Hurricanes pulled away steadily in the second half. Driver scored 10 points for the game; eight in the second half, and Walker had 14; 12 in the second half.

Larry Paschall led the 'Canes scoring with 25 points. He had four field goals, two in each half, but his total for the night mounted steadily as he hit on 17 of 18 tries from the foul line. He hit on 15 of 16 foul tries as the 'Canes pulled away in the second half. His 19 second half points was the high individual total for any 'Canes player in one half this year.

Gary Van Camp led Southwood's scoring with 25 points. Steve Buffkin had 18 points and E. J. Wilder scored 12.

The win gave the 'Canes a 6-1 conference record which ties them with Ferrum's Panthers for the conference lead.

On Saturday night the Louisburg College Hurricanes started slowly and finish like a high-speed locomotive as they took their third victory over Wingate's Bulldogs by a score of 82-69. The 'Canes, experiencing their second straight cold shooting first half, were down 28-30 at halftime. They managed only 9 of 27 field goal attempts in the first half.

The two teams swapped baskets in the early part of the second half until 11 minutes to go the Bulldogs pulled ahead of the visiting 'Canes by nine points at 59-50. With 10:20 on the clock the score was 63-54 when the 'Canes started to move. With eight minutes to go the score was 67-63 Louisburg.

At the 10:20 mark Terry Davis, Bob Walker and Larry Paschall led a rally that put the 'Canes ahead for good. With the score 63-56 in favor of the Bulldogs Davis scored on a tap-in; Paschall stole the in bounds pass and scored a three pointer to pull the 'Canes within two; Davis grabbed a rebound off the defensive board and Paschall hit an eighteen footer to tie the game at 63-63; Walker was true on two eighteen footers and the 'Canes were on the way to their 14th win of the season.

Davis and Paschall shared the scoring lead for Louisburg with 17 points each. Walker had 15 points and John Lewis 12 as the 'Canes again had good scoring balance. Paschall had another good night at the foul line converting 9 of 9 free throw attempts.

The 'Canes hit on 19 of 37 second half shots, many from long range as the Bulldogs employed a zone defense in an attempt to hold off the second half rally by the 'Canes. Wingate hit 49% from the floor but inability at the foul line 13 of 27, plus numerous turnovers, forced by

Canes Win No. 15

The Louisburg College Hurricanes sputtered again at the beginning; fell behind by 15 points; rallied to a five point deficit at halftime and then reeled off 54 points in the second half to defeat East Carolina Freshmen 91-78.

The 'Canes fell behind 40-25 with 4:13 to go in the first half but rallied behind John Lewis, Terry Davis and George Bowden to narrow that deficit to five 37-42 at halftime. Lewis scored 12 points in the first half. In the early part of the half Larry Paschall dropped in 11 points to keep the 'Canes from falling even farther behind. Paschall was saddled with three fouls and had to sit out the last 6 minutes of the half.

Dick Driver led an early second half rally that put the 'Canes into the lead at 51-48. Driver scored 9 points in 3 1/2 minutes, the last three on a three point play that gave the 'Canes their first lead since the 10 minute mark of the first half. The lead changed hands twice and was tied 4 times before Louisburg took the lead at 65-63 on a basket by Bob Walker with 8:46.

The rebounding was fairly even with Louisburg grabbing 39 and East Carolina 35. Davis had 16 for the 'Canes and Lepors led the Baby Bucs with 11.
