Louisburg Area Has New Ready Credit Service

Mr. James Grady, Vice President in charge of Waccamaw Bank's Louisburg operation, announced today the release of a new banking service for the Louisburg area called Ready Credit. This new service permits checking account customers to make an unsecured personal loan with the bank merely by writing a check, and this loan can, in turn, be repaid in one lump sum or by several optional methods. The service is made possible through a pre-arranged agreement with the bank whereby a reserve balance is set up in conjunction with the customer's checking account.

Mr. R. S. Lucas, Cashier of the Louisburg office, has been named to assume the additional duties of Ready Credit Manager. "We are very pleased to offer this additional service," he stated, "and we look forward to explaining it in detail to interested persons."

The service was designed for the convenience of checking account customers, permitting them to take advantage of exceptional purchasing opportunities, pay unexpected medical expenses, taxes, etc. "This service, which has been made available as a direct result of our automation program, is the easiest, most convenient and confidential way to borrow in existence to-

The Way Home

A young mother was patiently trying to teach her four-year-old daughter her address in preparation for her coming kindergarten debut. After repeatedly omitting or forgetting some portion of the correct address, the mother asked, "But what will you do when the teacher asks you where you live, Debbie?"

After a moment's hesitation, Debbie replied, "I'll let Michael answer first, then I'll tell my teacher that I live across the street."
