Rams, Youngsville Girls Took Semi-final Wins

The Franklinton Rams, holding only a seven-point halftime lead broke the game open in the third and fourth periods Thursday night to stop the Bunn Bulldogs, 70-38 in the semi-finals of the county tournament.

The Youngsville girls had no trouble at all in downing the Louisburg girls, 60-10. Bunn led the first four minutes of play but Foster Brodie put the Rams ahead with 2 minutes left in the first frame. At the end of one, the Rams held a 12-8 advantage. The score was tied three times in the second period, 15-all at the 5:10 mark; 17-all with 4:08 left and 19-all with 2:38 remaining. At the half, Franklinton led 29-19 and the die was cast. The Rams had built a 12-point edge with 2 minutes left in the third frame and tore the game wide open in the final period.

The Louisburg girls, having squeaked by Gold Sand, 21-20 on Cade Beasley's victory shot Tuesday night, were ill-prepared for the onslaught of the Youngsville girls. Louisburg hit only 2 of 15 free throws for an embarrassing 13 percent while Youngsville hit 10 of 21 for 47 percent. Youngsville scored 25 field goals while Louisburg mustered only two. Harriett Pearce scored 21 points and Vickie Rogers hit 18 for the winners. Cade Beasley scored six of Louisburg's ten points.

Robert Wheless led Bunn with 11 points and Haywood Lawrence paced the Rams with 18. Foster Brodie scored 16 for Franklinton.

The Youngsville Phantoms held a shaky one-point lead at the end of the first period against Wakelton Friday night after the lead bounced as much as the ball in the first frame. By halftime, the defending State champions had moved to a ten-point edge but, not until the fourth period could the Phantoms relax.

three periods of play, 44-34. They broke it open in the final frame going on to take the 69-48 win which assured them a Saturday date with the Franklinton Rams. Morris Catlett, chosen the a lady who has no children of her own so she likes other people's boys and girls. A grandfather is a man grandmother. He goes for walks with the boys and they talk about cars and fishing and things like that. Grandmas don't have anything to do but be there when you need them. They are old, so they can't play hard or run and jump. It is enough if they take us to the market and have lots of dimes so we can ride on the pretend horses. Or if they take us for walks, they should slow down past pretty leaves or caterpillars. They should never say, "Hurry up."

They are fat, but not too fat to bend down to tie a kid's shoe. They wear glasses and can take their teeth out. It is better if they don't play cards except with us.

They don't have to be real smart, only answer questions like why dogs hate cats and why isn't God married.

They don't talk baby talk because it is too hard to understand. When they read to us, they don't skip pages or mind if it is the same story over again. Everybody should try to have one, especially if you don't have TV. Grandmas are the only ones who have time for us kids.
