In Our Opinion

By CLINT FULLER

A last-minute switch has moved the Youngsville-South Granville and the Vance County-Princeton game up to tonight at Rocky Mount. Reliable reports say the move was due to prior commitments of the N. C. Wesleyan College gym on Thursday night. Youngsville-South Granville plays at 7 P.M. tonight. The Vance County-Princeton game follows. The championship game is slated for 7:30 P.M. Wednesday night.

Youngsville defeated the Vikings twice in regular season games. On December 30, the Phantoms took a 60-40 decision and on February 4, Youngsville won, 58-48. Princeton is the three-overtime upset winner over highly favored Meadow. Tonight's winners will both go to the state tournament regardless of the outcome of the championship tilt Wednesday night.

The Louisburg College Hurricanes didn't quite make the top spot in the Region Ten Tourney, but they were a credit to themselves and to their school. From the scoring reports, they obviously ran into a much better ball club. Gardner-Webb also had a decided height advantage and this is almost impossible to overcome in basketball. Wait 'til next year.

Larry Paschall was named to the All Region second team. Only three Cavalier-Tarheel Conference players made it.

Armchair TV basketball buffs will have things to their liking the next few days. Already filled with two ACC tournament semi-final games last Friday and the championship Saturday following an NCAA first round game between Notre Dame and Miami of Ohio Saturday afternoon, the happy news is that there is more to come.

Thursday night at 7 P.M. WTVD-Channel 11, will televise the second round NCAA game from College Park, Md. between Davidson and St. John's. At 9 P.M., the Carolina Tarheels will take on Duquesne, 73-52 winners over St. Joseph's in the first round.

Saturday, WTVD will televise the NCAA quarterfinals. Two games beginning at 2 P.M.

Sunday, the opening round game of the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) will be televised from Madison Square Garden beginning at 1:30 P.M. on WTVD.

Thursday, March 20, WTVD will show the action in the NCAA Eastern Championship from Louisville, Ky. at 7:30 P.M.

On Saturday, March 22, Channel 11 will televise the NIT championship game from 2 to 4 P.M. and beginning at 4 P.M. the NCAA Tournament Championship game from Louisville, Ky. will be shown.

The information on these games was supplied by WTVD and were corrected last week.

Inconsistent

"Authors vary greatly in the methods they employ to commit their ideas to paper," observed a man in the train. "Yes," replied an elderly gentleman, "some of them seem to be using a tripe-writer."

Accessories Extra

There had been a motor wreck. One of the drivers climbed out in a fit of temper and strode up to a man standing on the sidewalk thinking him to be the other driver. "Say, where the devil's your tail light," he roared. The innocent bystander looked up at him. "What do you think I am—a bloomin' lightning bug?"

True Words

The youngster wolfed his dinner while Father looked on disapprovingly. Finally the not-too-proud parent spoke: "Jimmy, you're a pig. You know what a pig is, don't you?" The small fry looked up and replied complacently, "Yup, a pig is a hog's little boy."

Canes Lose, 142-85, Place Second In Region Ten

The bubble burst for the Louisburg College Hurricanes Saturday night. The dream of a berth in the national finals in Hutchinson, Kansas came to an abrupt end at the hands of an overpowering Gardner-Webb five that downed the locals 142-85.

Outclassed from the start, the 'Canes giving away inches in height, had fallen behind 64-32 at halftime and the G-W's had little trouble completing the rout in the second half.

Louisburg had kept the dream alive on a couple of free throws by George Bowden Friday night as they downed Spartansburg, 83-82. The Bowden tosses on one and one situation had given the 'Canes a three-point lead. Spartansburg's Lisco Thomas drove the length of the court for a two-pointer as time ran out.

Bobby Walker, Larry Paschall and Terry Davis tallied 61 of Louisburg's 83 points. Walker had a game high of 22 points; Paschall, the team's leading scorer, contributed 21; while Davis, who led his club in rebounding with 14 retrieves, brought home 18 markers.

Louisburg led by as many as eight points in the second half and then fell behind by three before taking the lead for good at 75-73 with less than five minutes remaining.

Although Spartansburg outshot Louisburg from the floor and led in field goals, Louisburg made up the difference by connection on 23 of 31 charity tosses while the losers managed 12 of 13.

Jerry Martin with 21 points led the Spartansburg scoring and Thomas hauled down a game high of 15 rebounds.

Gardner-Webb takes a 27-3 record to Hutchinson, Kan., on March 14th for the national Junior College Tournament. Louisburg terminated its season with a respectable 21-9 mark.

Bill Stagnola led all scorers with 32 points for the winner. John Adams and Dick Fleming, in reserve roles, netted 22 and 26 points respectively.

Larry Paschall led Louisburg in points with 28 and Terry Davis added 13.

Score by halves:

Gardner-Webb 64 79-142

Youngsville Edges Warrenton, Meets Vikings Tonight

The defending state champions, the Youngsville Phantoms, had all they could handle in holding off a spirited rally by the Warrenton Yellow Jackets in the District

III playoffs last week to take a razor thin 44-42 win. Youngsville jumped out to a 14-11 first period lead and outscored the Jackets 14-4 in the second frame to hold a commanding 25-18 halftime edge.

In the second half Warrenton outscored the State Class A Champs 24-19 and almost pulled the win out of the fire. Morris Catlett led Youngsville with 19 points backed up by Rodney Roberts' 13. Shearin paced Warrenton with 14. The win kept alive the Phantom hopes of repeating as District Champs and perhaps as State Champs. In eliminating Warrenton, Youngsville set up a Tuesday night date with the winner of the South Granville-Gaston quarter-final game. Game time is 7 P.M. in the N. C. Wesleyan College gym at Rocky Mount. Tuesday's winners will play Wednesday night at 7:30 P.M. for the District crown and a berth in the State Tournament.

Score by quarters:
Youngsville 11 14 10 9-44
Warrenton 14 4 12 12-42
Youngsville - Wiggins 2, Roberts 13, M. Catlett 19, Bailey 4, Mitchell 4, R. Catlett 2, Woodlief.
Warrenton - Spruill 5, Edmonds 8, S. White 7, Shearin 14, N. White 6, Sphraim 2, Young.

'Cane Fans Traveled Long Way

Wrong Enemy

"You should love your enemies," the preacher told the Indian. "I do. I love rum, whisky, tobacco and women," grinned the crafty red man.

Changing Times

A teacher asked her class the difference between a primitive man and a modern man. Johnny answered: "When his wife talks too much a modern man goes to his club. A primitive man just reached for it."
