He was trained as an aircraft mechanic and has been assigned to a unit of the Tactical Air Command at Shaw AFB, S. C.

The airman is a graduate of Youngsville High School.

In Fashion

Pofka dots are back in the fashion picture. They may be round or they may be square but on a colorful background they are quite chic.

Bows continue to be in favor—bows at the neckline or as a part of the belt.

Geometric designs and checks are being used in many of the tailored dresses, suits or coats. They are also effective when coordinated with a solid color to fashion a costume.

The Worst

Lissen - My wife has the worst memory in the world.
Hurja - Forgets everything?
Lissen - No; she remember everything.

That Was Different

"Who would like to go to heaven?" asked the teacher. Every hand was raised but one. Then a voice was heard to say to the hesitant one: "Put up your hand; she doesn't want us to go now."

Had A System

Dodd - "I notice that in telling about that fish you caught you vary the size for different listeners."
Rodd - "Yes, I never tell a man more than I think he'll believe."

Charlie Hobgood Elected County Beta President

Youngsville - Charlie Hobgood of Louisburg was elected President of the Franklin County Beta Club at the 1969 County Convention held at the Youngsville High School Friday. Other officers elected were Vice President Ann Lovin, Gold Sand; Secretary April Chamblee, Bunn; Treasurer Glenn Evans, Youngsville; Reporter Sydney Ann Green, Franklinton.

Colorful campaign posters, slogans, speeches by campaign managers and candidates for office, and campaign literature all played a part in the election.

Other candidates who represented their respective school in the competition were Mary Gaskill, Bunn; Phil Hart, Youngsville; Al Thompson and Cindy Secor, Franklinton; Albert Rowland and Marie Smith, Epsom. All campaign managers did a fine job for their nominees.

The Convention got underway on Friday with registration beginning at one o'clock. With a theme of "To Be Or Not To Be," the meeting opened with the Beta Club Song led by Youngsville members Janet Pearce and Debbie Roberts. Rhonda Strickland was pianist. Karen Dunn of Bunn presented the Devotion.

Mr. D. L. Godwin, Principal of the host school, extended a Welcome with response given by out-going President Annette Ball of Franklinton.

Guest speaker for the Convention was Mr. Don Lee Harris, Pastor of the Franklinton Methodist Church who was introduced by Vice President Phil Hagwood of Bunn.

Election ballots were cast as a break held at conclusion of the speakers address. After tabulation of votes, the Installation Service for new officers was conducted by Mrs. Margaret Pruette.

YHS teacher Miss Bettie Strother, sponsor of the local Beta Club, was in charge of convention arrangements. She was assisted by Beta Club members, some of the school staff and several parents. Beta members used gold floral arrangements and table streamers of gold and black for their decorations in carrying out club colors.

Lunch served in the school cafeteria included turkey, rice and gravy, green peas, tossed salad, stuffed celery, rolls, tea, strawberry shortcake. During the afternoon refreshment break guests were served pineapple sherbert punch, assorted cookies, nuts, wafers and chips.

Parents who assisted with the serving were chairman, Mrs. Marvin Roberts and Mesdames Epp Catlette, W. R. Evans, G. W. Barnes and E. J. Pearce.

But the pump is always the old standby and is still good. They may have bows, buckles or be plain. Heels seem slightly higher but continue to be sturdy.

PANTED COTTON—The mini dress worn over pants is fashion's most sophisticated swinger. Chester Weinberg's version in white pebble cotton is sashed at the waist in red, white, and blue. The little dress, boasting a front kick pleat and wide midriff insert, tops wide leg pants.
