

John Williamson Weds Saturday

Miss Hope Houston McCroskey of Knoxville, Tennessee and Mr. John Perry Williamson, Jr. of Louisburg were married Saturday at noon in the chapel of Sequoyah Hills Presbyterian Church, Knoxville, Tenn.

Dr. Julian Spitzer was the officiating minister for the ceremony attended by immediate members of the families.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stewart McCroskey of 841 Cherokee Blvd., Knoxville, Tenn. and the groom, the son of Mrs. John Perry Williamson of Louisburg and the late Mr. Williamson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory taffeta trimmed with Venice lace edgings on the gown and train. She wore a Cathedral length veil of silk illusion, previously worn by her mother, with a headband of lace handmade by her grandmother, the late Mrs. Samuel Arthur Kimbrough of Spokane, Washington. Her bouquet was of carnations and freesias.

Mrs. Bradford Whitehill Coupe of Haddonfield, N. J. was her sister's only attendant. She wore a long gown of willow green, trimmed with bands of ivory lace. She carried a basket of yellow daisies.

Best man was William Jenkins Williamson of Louisburg, N. C., brother of the groom. Ushers were Benjamin Napier Williamson, III of Franklin, N. C., cousin of the groom, and Stewart Kimbrough McCroskey of Knoxville, Tenn., brother of the bride.

Out-of-town guests include the groom's grandmothers: Mrs. William Harmon Moore Jenkins of Franklin, N. C. and Mrs. Benjamin Napier Williamson of Louisburg, N. C.

The bride is a graduate of Gulf Park Junior College, Gulfport, Miss. and attended the World Campus Afloat Division of Chapman College, Orange, California. She is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville and was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She is employed at

MRS. JOHN P. WILLIAMSON, JR.

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss Frances Murphy, April 5 bride-elect of Mark Warren, was guest of honor Saturday afternoon at a bridal shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. York on Tucker Drive.

Hostesses for the occasion were Miss Blake York, Miss Glenda Henley, and Mrs. George Ann Ford Edwards.

A pink and white color scheme was used in decorating. Living room flowers were of varying shades of pink snapdragons, carnations and fern.

The dining room table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of varying shades of pink snapdragons, carnations, and baby's breath in a silver epergne. The arrangement was flanked by pink tapers in silver candelabra.

Cranberry punch, ribbon sandwiches, bridal cakes, mints, and nuts were served to approximately sixteen friends of the bride who attended. Special guests were Mrs. G. Herman Murphy, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Woodrow Warren, mother of the prospective groom, and Miss Anna Fischel, Miss York's roommate at Greensboro College. Miss Murphy was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Reason Enough

Pretty Stenog - What's the big idea of your working steady 10 hours a day? I wouldn't think of it. You know what the code said.

Equally Pretty Cashier - I didn't think of it myself. It was the boss who thought of it.

Ruth Mercer Circles Meet

(FRK. B.W.) Ruth Mercer Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Franklin Methodist Church met at the Education Building on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Frank Collins presided over the meeting which opened with the singing of a hymn.

During the business session, Mrs. J. D. Mode read the minutes. In the absence of the treasurer, Miss Edith Jackson gave the financial report.

Mrs. Mode announced that Get-Well cards, which her circle members would sell, had arrived.

Following the reading of the Easter scripture by Mrs. C. H. Weston, the program was presented by Mrs. Richard Whitfield.

The program leader called attention to the article - Lent the Dangerous Season - which appears in the February issue of Response.

"Days of Discovery" was the program topic. Various forms of ministry were spelled out by Mrs. Whitfield. Some of these were ministry in a resort community, at an airport, at a truck stop, in a laundromat. Emphasis was placed on ministering at places where people are not ministered to.

Mrs. Collins served Cokes and cookies during the social hour.

Ruth Mercer Circle No. 2 of the Franklin Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. E. P. Osborne, Jr. Thursday evening.

Mrs. George Best presided over the meeting which opened with the praying of The Lord's Prayer.

During the business session, Mrs. E. A. Harris, Jr. read the minutes. A financial report was given by Mrs. Phil Whitfield. The members made contributions in lieu of having a Bake Sale.

The chairman appointed a committee, composed of Mrs. Richard Golightly, Mrs. Eugene Pearce and Mrs. Charlie Hight, Jr., to make contact with other Ruth Mercer circle regarding the possibility of the two circles merging.

Mrs. Ormond Collins, program chairman, read "The Miracles of Easter" by Helen Steiner Rice.

Mrs. Collins used the sermon, "Meet the Master" by Charles L. Allen as program material. She called attention to the way people should live day by day. The program was closed with a "Prayer for Peace" by Rice.

The hostess served spiced tea, date bars, brownies and cookies during the social hour.
