Castle, Dorsey Orchestra To Play At College Dance

Lee Castle and the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra will provide the music for an Inter-Club Council Dance at Louisburg College, Tuesday, April 1. The name Dorsey, long known and respected in "big band" circles, is rightly being used by Lee Castle. Lee was accepted as Mother Dorsey's "third son" back when he first appeared as lead trumpeter with Jimmy's band.

The semi-formal dance will begin at 8:00 p.m. and conclude at 12 midnight. The Dorsey band will swing with new and modern sounds as well as reach back for former big Dorsey hits such as "Marie", "Green Eyes", "Besame Mucho", and "I Hear a Rhapsody."

Guest attendance requests for this event are to be made with Dean of Students Thomas A. Patterson.

LEE CASTLE

On Dean's List

Listed on the University of North Carolina's fall semester Dean's list from this area are the following:

Joseph Jones Hart, Jr. of Youngsville in the School of Business; Jane Elliott McKinne of Louisburg in Art; Paul Washington Stewart of Louisburg in Chemistry; and Walter Bruce Wynne of Louisburg in Pharmacy.

To attain this list, a student must be taking a full academic load of at least 15 hours, and make no grade below a C. The grades in all courses must average a 3.0 (or B) quality point average.
