

Private Rites Unite Dr. Joyner, Miss Culpepper On Sunday

The sanctuary of the Louisburg Baptist Church was the setting Sunday, March 30, at 3 o'clock for a private ceremony characterized with beauty and simplicity in which Miss Claudia Lee Culpepper became the bride of Dr. Raymond Edward Joyner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clements Culpepper of West Palm Beach, Florida and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Oscar Joyner of Louisburg, N. C.

The vows were pledged in an impressive double ring ceremony before the pastor, Reverend Aubrey S. Tomlinson.

Mrs. A. B. Strother, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music. Miss Mary Elizabeth Fuller, soloist of Durham, sang "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Miss Sharon Culpepper, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Avery J. Dennis, sister of the groom, the matron of honor.

Mr. Joyner was his son's best man. Ushers were Dr. Avery J. Dennis, brother-in-law of the groom, and James W. Mitchiner, uncle of the groom.

The couple will reside in Richmond where Mrs. Joyner is a registered nurse at the Medical College of Virginia and Dr. Joyner an intern.

RECEPTION

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Culpepper, parents of the bride, entertained at a lovely reception at the church in the educational building.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dennis greeted the guests while the reception line was being formed.

Mrs. Florence Wells presented the receiving line which included the wedding party and the parents of the bride and groom.

Mesdames George West, William H. Fleming, Dan L. Holt and Gladys Dare assisted in serving.

Mrs. James Mitchiner presided at the bridal register. Goodbyes were spoken to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Joyner.

DINNER

Preceding the wedding rehearsal Saturday night, the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson O. Joyner, were hosts at a dinner at The Murphy House. Guests for the occasion included the wedding party and out of town guests.

bers of the wedding party, members of the family and out of town guests were entertained immediately following the wedding rehearsal, Saturday evening, March twenty-nine, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fleming on Stratford Drive.

Guests were greeted by the hosts and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. George M. West.

Upon arrival, the bride-elect was pinned with a pink cymbidium orchid and the groom to be was pinned with a white carnation boutonniere.

Directed to the dining room, guests were served pink bridal punch, cheese biscuits, decorated bridal cakes, nuts, open, face sandwiches, and party mints. Pouring punch were Mrs. Florence J. Wells and Mrs. James Mitchiner, aunts of the bridegroom to be.

The dining table was covered with a pink cloth overlaid with white lace. The centerpiece was a silver candelabrum with lighted tapers also holding a floral arrangement of pink snapdragons, carnations, chrysanthemums, baby's breath and greenery. The buffet was arranged with gold candlesticks and tapers. A small gold box lay open with flowers arranged inside. A pink and white floral

Mrs. Patterson Entertains Bridge Party

Youngsville - Mrs. B. H. Patterson had a dinner and bridge party at her home Thursday evening with members of the two local bridge clubs as guests.

An Easter decorative theme was used for the occasion. Aqua organdy cloths underlined with white covered serving tables. In the center of each was a pastel toned nest holding a miniature chicken just hatching from his shell. Ornamental Easter eggs and spring flowers were additional party decorations.

Favors of tiny spring hats were attached to place cards for guests. Easter designed bridge tallies and napkins continued the chosen motif.

Dinner included chicken salad, peas in pastry shells, miniature pears, fruit salad, hot rolls and coffee. At conclusion of three progressions of bridge a dessert course served included cake squares iced in pastel colors, toasted nuts and beverages.

High score prizes for one club went to Mrs. J. H. Parrish and Mrs. B. G. Mitchell; and for the other club to Mrs. Robert Neeb and Mrs. Bob Cheatham. Other guests in attendance were Mesdames W. F. Mitchell, G. E. Winston, C. V. Timberlake, E. J. Pearce, G. W. Barnes, H. H. Reddick, L. A. Woodlief, N. A. Brown, A. N. Corpening, Evelyn Freeman, E. R. Tharrington and Miss Susie Tharrington. Mrs. J. A. Green was in attendance for the dinner.

Practice Teaching

Fayetteville - Mrs. Jean Zealand Goss, a 1965 graduate of Louisburg High School, is one of 47 Methodist College students receiving teacher internship assignments for the spring semester according to E. A. West, director of student teaching.

Mrs. Goss, a senior majoring in elementary education, will be student teaching at Lucile Souders School in Fayetteville. She is the daughter of Mrs. Gordon Zealand of 202 John Street, Louisburg. Her husband, Walter M. Goss, is also a student at Methodist.

Methodist College is now completing its ninth academic year. Education is one of the seven academic areas offered by the liberal arts institution.

Original centerpieces, placed on all tables, were made of white doilies, wedding bells and valley-lilies. The bridal table was centered with a miniature bride and groom complimented with valley-lilies.

Assisting in serving the luncheon were Mrs. George M. West, Mrs. James Mitchiner, Mrs. William H. Fleming and Mrs. Florence J. Wells. Places were laid for the forty-two guests in attendance.

arrangement in green glass with gold base was placed on the credenza in the foyer. On the piano in the living room was laid an open prayer book. Placed on a small silver tray beside the prayer book was a miniature bride and groom figurine encircled with baby's breath and greenery and complimented by wedding bells. Approximately forty guests were in attendance.

LUNCHEON

Miss Claudia Culpepper and Dr. Raymond Joyner, members of the family, members of the wedding party, and out of town guests were entertained at a wedding luncheon Sunday morning, March thirtieth, at eleven thirty at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Joyner on Jeffress Drive.

Guests were greeted by host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Joyner and Mrs. D. L. Holt of Carolina Beach.

Upon arrival, the honored couple and guests were served juice appetizers before enjoying a buffet luncheon of country ham, chicken salad with crackers, asparagus casserole, marinated mixed vegetables, tomato aspic, hot rolls and coffee. A dessert course of cheese cake was served following the meal.

The buffet table was covered with a white cloth with heavy lace trim. A lovely floral arrangement of mums, carnations, snapdragons, baby's breath and complimenting greenery graced the buffet table.

The mantel in the living room was centered with a low spreading arrangement of similar flowers. The credenza held a lovely arrangement of mums, carnations and baby's breath. In the den, a spring arrangement of yellow jonquils, forsythia, and pine
