Quality Product

Booze-makers whose operations were interrupted by law officers last week penned the unpaid ad shown above on one container of their product. The ad, obviously not intended for wide-spread distribution reads, "You can have it. I don't want it. It's too hot for me."

It may not be according to sanitary regulations, but the photo above shows it as it is. The alcoholic steam flows through the radiator (hidden behind the sand bags), is cooled and condenses into Franklin booze. Just what the strainer strains has not been discovered. Those who say they know report the tub full above is top quality stuff.

Rams Down Bulldogs

Errors and a weak bat led to Louisburg's downfall to Franklinton here last Friday, 6-3. It was the first game of the season for Louisburg. Franklinton holds an opening game win over Bunn. The Rams' Abbott went the distance and led at bat with 2 for four. Mike Wynne started for Louisburg, John Davis relieved in the fifth, Thomas Finch took over in the seventh.

The Rams collected seven hits off the Bulldog trio but Louisburg could get only three off Abbott. The locals committed five errors and the Rams had two. Louisburg was unable to hit with men on base while the Rams took advantage of errors to score.

Canes Split With Williams

The Louisburg College Hurricanes won their fourth in a row Friday with a 3-2 win over Williams College, but had their streak stopped on Saturday by a 6-2 score. Dave Flowers ran his record to 2-0 Saturday as he hurled 6 innings for the Canes, giving up 4 hits and striking out 6. He also had a 2 run single in the third to push the Canes ahead by 3-1. Dan West had homered earlier in the inning. Flowers had control problems throughout the game and was relieved by E. V. Spell in the seventh.

Mike Farris had 2 for 3 for the Canes. On Saturday Williams pounded Jim Rivers and Darrell Hagwood for 9 hits in 5 innings for a 6-0 lead over the Canes. John Lewis relieved Hagwood in the 6th and held Williams to 1 hit over the last four innings but the damage had been done. Righthander Bob Bower, a fireballing senior for Williams, held the Canes scoreless for 5 innings. He was relieved by Tom Small in the 6th and the Canes picked up 2 runs in the 9th on a home run by Tom Cox, his 3rd of the year, 3 walks, and a single. Williams picked up 2 runs in the 3rd on a homer and back to back doubles. They scored 3 in the 4th on a hit batter, 2 hits 1 back, and 2 errors. The Canes record now stands at 5-2. They travel to Mt. Olive Wednesday for a pair of Cavalier-Tar Heel Conference games. They have played only two conference games so far, having split a pair with Southwood.

Bunn Hits Youngsville

John Wheless struck out 17 and allowed only one hit, a double by Worth Keith, as he led the Bunn Bulldogs to a 10-1 victory last Friday. Phil Hagwood led the hitters with a perfect four for four, including two doubles. Keith struck out eight and walked six for Youngsville. Al Snipes hit a home run for Bunn. It was Bunn's first win after losing the opener to Franklinton. It was Youngsville's first game of the season. An opener against Louisburg was postponed due to wet grounds last week.

Human beings may be divided into two great classes: those who work and those who pretend to work. Thinking usually means less talking.

Miss Master Charge Gives $400
