

Mark Warren, Frances Murphy Wed Sunday

The Louisburg United Methodist Church was the setting Sunday, April 6, at 4 o'clock for the marriage of Miss Frances Carol Murphy to Mr. Mark Lee Warren. Rev. Norwood Jones and Rev. Aubrey Tomlinson officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Herman Murphy, Sr. of Louisburg; the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Warren, also of Louisburg.

The vows were spoken against a background of Easter lilies and palms. White candelabra with lighted tapers decked the altar.

Mrs. Edward F. Yarbrough, organist, presented a program of nuptial music, and Mr. Allen W. Shearin, soloist, sang "Until" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of silk organza fashioned with an empire waist of Venetian lace trim. The detachable chapel train and silk illusion veil were of matching lace. She carried a cascade of white cymbidium orchids.

Miss Blake York, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. John O. Sledge, III, sisters of the bride; Miss Linda Carlyle of Raleigh, cousin of the groom, and Miss Glenda Henley. Their gowns were fashioned of pink silk organza featuring long sleeves and an empire waist-line accented by darker pink satin. Their headpieces were of matching pink bows and silk illusion. They carried baskets of colorful spring flowers including miniature carnations, roses, and shasta daisies.

Mr. Warren was his son's best man. Ushers were George Herman Murphy, Jr., brother of the bride, George Kevin Warren and Woodrow Jenkins Warren, brothers of the groom, Dennis Hayes Sullivan of Raleigh, and William Thomas Dement, Jr.

Mrs. Herman Spencer directed the wedding.

The bride's mother chose a light blue silk worsted ensemble with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. The groom's mother was attired in an ensemble of aqua silk worsted with matching accessories. She also wore a white orchid corsage.

For going away, the bride chose a wool knit ensemble of pale yellow. Her accessories were black patent. She wore an orchid lifted from her bouquet.

The couple will take a cross-country wedding trip before arriving at Imperial Beach, California, where the groom is stationed with the United States Navy. They will reside in Chula Vista, California.

The bride is a graduate of Louisburg High School. The groom was graduated from Louisburg High School and attended Louisburg College.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception held at The Murphy House in Louisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. York greeted and introduced the guests at the receiving line.

MRS. MARK LEE WARREN

which included the wedding party and the parents of the bride and groom.

A white linen cloth with Madeira insets covered the serving table. A centerpiece of Calla lilies, snap dragons, carnations, and Baker's fern was placed between two silver candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom figurines, was placed at one end of the table, and a crystal punch bowl, surrounded by an arrangement of green grapes, was placed at the other.

Pouring punch were Mrs. Grover Underhill and Mrs. Wallace Underhill. Mrs. G. H. Murphy, Jr. and Miss Shirley Tunstall served wedding cake.

The bridal register was presided over by Mrs. Ruth Carlyle of Spring Hope. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen said goodbyes.

SHOWER

On Wednesday evening, April 2, at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Willis Nash honored the bride-elect at a floating kitchen shower. Approximately twenty-one guests attended.

The bride-elect was presented with a corsage of white roses and received a sauceman as a gift from the hostess.

Arrangements of mixed spring flowers were placed throughout the house. The refreshment table was covered in a white tablecloth of Irish linen. A silver candelabrum with lighted tapers holding a floral arrangement of pink carnations, white mums, and snap dragons accented the center of the table.

The guests were served fruit punch, bridal cakes, cheese straws, sandwiches, mixed nuts and mints. Special guests included meal. Following the dinner, the bride-elect was presented with a gift of silver and crystal in her chosen patterns by the hosts and hostesses.

After-Rehearsal Dinner

The honored couple, members of the wedding party, members of the family, and out of town guests were entertained immediately following the rehearsal Saturday evening, April 5, by Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Warren, parents of the groom, at the Greenhill Country Club.

Upon arrival, the honored couple and guests were served fruit cup appetizers before enjoying a delicious dinner of eye of the rib, scalloped potatoes, green beans almondine, hot rolls and coffee. The dessert course consisted of strawberry shortcake.

The clubhouse entrance was accented with hanging baskets of mixed spring flowers. In the dining area, soft dinner music provided a relaxing atmosphere. The head table was beautifully decorated with an arrangement of carnations, shasta daisies, snap dragons, iris and jonquils flanked by silver candelabra with lighted green tapers. Miniature bridal bouquets and winding trails of white daisies were placed about the side tables along with lighted green tapers.

Immediately following the dinner, gifts were presented by the honored couple to the bridesmaids, ushers, and other members of the wedding party. Approximately fifty guests were in attendance.

Thanks

I want to thank Dr. Perry, Dr. Medders and the nurses and staff at Franklin Memorial Hospital for being so nice to me, also for all the cards and visits and all the many telephones calls I received. It's so nice to have so many friends. May God bless each one of you.

Nannie Autrey

Most adults overlook the value of play and amusement in life. Some, we must admit, overdo it.

Engagement Announced

KATHRYN MARIE LATTA

Mrs. Henry Richard Latta of Greensboro announces the engagement of her daughter, Kathryn Marie to Mr. Luther Gary Leonard of Greensboro, formerly of Louisburg, N. C. Mr. Leonard is the son of Mr. Clyde Wheelless Leonard and the late Iva West Leonard. Miss Latta is also the daughter of the late Mr. Latta.

The wedding date has been set for Saturday, June 28 at the Friendly Avenue Baptist Church in Greensboro, N. C.

Youngsville

Mrs. Betty Edwards Koebberling and family of Lenoir visited with Mrs. Nancy Edwards during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Underwood and family of Atlanta visited with relatives here during the Easter holidays.

Robert Phillips was here from Columbia, S. C. to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Phillips and family during the holidays.

Mrs. Kay Phillips fifth grade toured the WRAL garden and TV Station in Raleigh Wednesday, accompanied by several parents.

Mrs. G. W. Barnes, Sr. left

Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barnes, Jr. and their family of Concord.

Glenn Evans spent Easter with relatives at Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Clark of Garner visited with Mrs. Ray Pearce and other relatives here during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hendrix and family of Raleigh visited Mrs. B. J. Pearce and family during the Easter weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Chesson of Norfolk, Va. were here during the holidays to visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall.

At The Art Gallery Louisburg College

Mrs. Roger Kornegay, Art Instructor at Louisburg College, announced today that the annual Louisburg College and Franklin County art competition will be judged Saturday by Mr. Norbert W. Irvine of the Atlantic Christian College Art faculty.

All entries must be in by 5 p.m. Friday, April 11th.

Mrs. Kornegay stated that the display will be open to the public Sunday, April 13th, between the hours of 3 and 5 p.m. in the Louisburg College Gallery, and will remain on display through April 30th.

4-H's Prepare For Show

Franklin County 4-H's will present its annual talent show and dress revue program on May 8th, in the Auditorium of Louisburg College.

The program will begin promptly at 8:00 P.M. The program will give 4-H club members a chance to exhibit their talent skill to the public.

The talent program will be judged by competent judges and cash awards will be given to the first three places. Winners in the contest will compete in the District contest on June 26, 1969.

Club members may present musical numbers including folk, popular, spiritual, instrumental, skits, orations and other areas.

The annual dress revue will be held the same night. This is open to all 4-H's who are enrolled in the clothing project. There will be a junior and senior division with these categories in each; church, school, evening, sports, aprons, skirts and blouses and miscellaneous. These will be judged prior to the dress revue by well qualified judges.

All entries in the talent program and dress revue must be made by April 10th. 4-H leaders throughout the county have a supply of entry sheets. Additional copies may be obtained from the Extension Office.

Discipline is something for every child to learn but the lesson requires a wise teacher.

Self-righteous people often owe their reputations to the lack of temptations.

Rice, Cherry Wed In Greenville

Miss Phoebe Carol Cherry of Durham, N. C. and Mr. Stuart Carl Rice of Raleigh, N. C. were married Friday at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon in the Black Jack P.W.B. Church, Greenville, N. C. Reverend F. B. Cherry officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Floyd B. Cherry of Greenville, N. C. and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Rice of Route 1, Castalia, N. C.

Given in marriage by her brother, Reuben L. Cherry, the bride wore a formal gown of white peau de soie with alencon lace bodice, scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves with scalloped edges. Her detachable cathedral train was of alencon lace and her bouffant veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of peau de soie roses and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of orchids on a white Bible.

Mrs. Alice Faye Cherry, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Dianne Rice, sister-in-law of the groom, and Miss Sandra Gaskins were bridesmaids. They wore street length dresses of sapphire blue patterned in the A-line design. They wore veil and shoes of matching blue and carried bouquets of light blue orchids and greenery.

The bride's mother wore a navy dress and matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a dress of deep pink with matching checked coat and bone accessories.

Mr. Rice served as his son's best man. Kevin Cherry, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Ushers were Mr. Philip Rice, brother of the groom, Mr. Al Lockamy, brother-in-law of the bride, Mr. Larry Sykes and Mr. Steve Boone, cousins of the groom.

MRS. STUART CARL RICE

Following a wedding trip to unannounced points, the couple will be at home at 2225 Noble Road, Raleigh, N. C.

The bride is a graduate of Chicod High School and a 1967 graduate of Wilson School of Nursing. She is presently Staff Nurse, Wake Memorial Hospital, Raleigh. The groom is a 1962 graduate of Edward Best High School and is employed at Westinghouse, Raleigh, N. C.

An after rehearsal party was given Thursday evening by the bride's parents in the Educational Building of the Black Jack F.W.B. Church.

Wynne Speaks To PTA

(Held Over From Last Week)

Youngsville - As a public service, Mr. Bob Wynne of Raleigh presented a film at the Youngsville High School PTA meeting held Monday night of this week in the school auditorium. Based on true facts and entitled "The Child Molester," the film was produced by a Highway Safety Patrol organization. Recommended by law enforcement officials, the instructive movie is one to be appreciated by adults and children. It has recently been shown before numerous groups in the Wake County area.

Program chairman Mr. Al DePorter introduced Mr. Wynne. After the film-was shown Mr. Wynne led a question and answer session. Informative booklets were given out.

Local Chief of Police Mr. Jack A. Green was recognized for remarks in relation to public safety and precautionary measures for children.

PTA President L. J. Phillips presided at the business meeting which was preceded with an Easter Devotional by the president. Two new teachers recognized were sixth grade teacher Mr. Gill Pitts and Home Economic teacher Joan Abernathy.

Winning attendance honors for the meeting were Mrs. John Eddingers eleventh grade and Mr. Pitts sixth grade.

Officers elected to serve for the next PTA year, and who will be installed at the final meeting of this year are as follows: President Mrs. J. R. Sanders, Vice President Mrs. Nyle Hart, Secretary Mrs. Ruth Nowell, Treasurer Miss Betty Strother, and Program Chairman Mrs. James Lye.

Mr. Edwards Speaks To Local ALA

Mr. Talmadge Edwards, Jr. of the Franklin County Family Counseling Center was guest speaker for the April meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mr. Edwards told the group of the various services offered by the Center and something about the progress being made. The Center has been open for about a year. One of the purposes is to train lay people to assist more effectively in meeting the needs of the local people.

Mrs. W. M. Wynne presided over the meeting, which was held in the home of Mrs. Florence Wells on Friday night. Mrs. Hugh W. Perry reported on the area meeting which she had attended.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the hostess served a delicious dessert course, nuts and coffee.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

Front to rear: Kingswood Estate Wagon, Concours Station Wagon, Sportvan and Suburban.

No other wagons have such a capacity for enjoyment.

Show you what we mean. Say you're in a Chevrolet Kingswood or Concours Walk-In Wagon, when suddenly the road becomes nothing but chuckholes and ruts. Only you can't tell it's rough. You see, Chevy wagons float along on computer-selected coil springs that smooth even the meanest road.

Maybe you're a bit more serious about the great outdoors. So are we. That's why we offer the Chevy Sportvan and Suburban. To an outdoorsman, they're like clear skies and no mosquitoes.

So before you head out to see the U.S.A., better stop by your Chevrolet dealer's.

CHEVROLET Sports-Recreation Dept.

Mfg. License No. 110.

Bridal Stationery Wedding Announcements AND Invitations

Above all, your wedding reflects you. A down to the smallest detail. When choosing the bridal stationery for your wedding needs, let our services guide you.

The Franklin Times