such moves as the one planned by the FCC on advertising.

Present plans are for all the North Carolina Congressmen to offer testimony when the hearings get underway. And, of course, we will be joined by our colleagues from tobacco-growing areas of Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky and other states.

We have had some pledges of support from Congressmen whose states do not produce tobacco and who normally would have no particular interest in this legislation. The ones I have heard from simply do not believe the FCC or any other government agency has the right or the authority to single out our legitimate industry for such discriminatory attacks.

All of these Congressmen are not expected to testify at the hearings but they have expressed their support to us when the time comes to vote on the Floor of the House.

Just how many of the 435 members might share this attitude isn't known because we know a number take the opposite view.

One other problem - if the existing labeling act is not extended, tobacco manufacturers will be faced with individual state laws requiring different labels on packages of cigarettes going to different states. Can't you imagine the confusion, the additional cost and even the chaos that would result from legislation on this subject in every state? The consumer, as usual, would be the ultimate goat.

While it is not possible at this time to predict the final outcome, I can say this without fear of contradiction: the legislative battle coming up will be one of the toughest that tobacco has faced during my years in the Congress and probably the hardest in our history.

College Golfers Take Two Matches

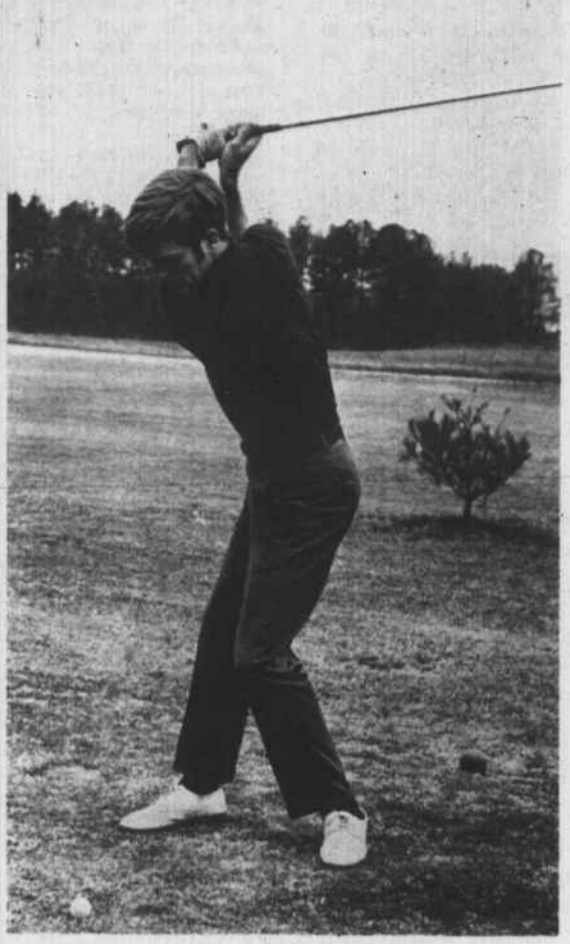

Hargrave Military Institute course in Chatham, Virginia was the setting for a triangular match between Louisburg, Ferrum, and Hargrave Thursday. At the end of the day Louisburg had prevailed over Ferrum 296 to 311 in medal play, and then had downed Hargrave 12 1/2 to 5 1/2 in match play.

Ferrum proved to be tough with the number 4 and 6 men coming in first after 18 holes with scores of 76-76. Louisburg's number 4 and 3 men came in with scores of 77 and 79 with more golfers from both sides still left on the course. However, Ferrum ended the day with two 80's and a 79, compared to a 72, 73, and 74 from Louisburg's golfers. It was a coincidence that after the last match the review said that at no time so far had the 'Canes golfers had four scoring in the 70's. Well, in this match five out of six shot below the 80 mark for an overall average of 74 for the day.

Rick Green really stood out scoring a 73 (38-35) for the second low score on the team. Rick's from Zebulon and is known in that area for his golfing ability. After today, Chatam will remember him too, for Rick recorded his 3 over-par even though he four-putted two greens and three-putted 2 greens. Dwight Leadbetter, the number one man, led the way by recording a 72 with rounds of 36-36 over the par 70 course. Dwight seems to have come into the groove after this match. Putting seems to be his main problem and if some start to drop, then his scores will be lower than par. For example, in this match, Dwight three-putted six greens and still was only two over. This is his last year at Louisburg and it would be no surprise to see his name heading the list of golf players at an ACC school next year. Stamper came in after Leadbetter with a 74 to match his score in the last match with Mt. Olive. Dave had rounds of 38-36 over the hilly course with his score sewing up the match for Louisburg. Pat Radford followed up Louisburg's top four by anchoring the list with a 77 (39-38). This is Pat's first time in breaking 80 this season, and from now on, this score or lower should be very common to him. Rounding out the attack came Klingel's 79. Jay keeps right in there with a 79-82 almost guaranteed every time.

Louisburg's second foe was Hargrave, and on a 3-point nassau system (1 point for the winner of the first nine holes, 1 point for the second nine, and 1 point for the 18 holes) the 'Canes proceeded to win 12 1/2-5 1/2. Leadbetter split with his opponent, Jim Martin, 1 1/2-1 1/2. Martin was Hargrave's big gun and medalist for the day with a 71. Stamper shut out Rowland 3-0; Radford beat Jordan 3-0; Klingel lost to Lemons 0-3; Green beat Anderson 3-0; and Hege won over Jackson in a close one 2-1. The next match is at Elizabeth City where Louisburg takes on COA. Louisburg is now 3-0 in conference play and 4-1 overall.

Canes Drop Duke In Thriller, 7-6

The Louisburg College Hurricanes ran their record to 8-2 for the year yesterday with a hard earned 7-6 win over Duke.

E. V. Spell couldn't hold on to a 6-2 lead as wildness kept him in hot water. Dave Flowers relieved him in the 8th after the Dukes had scored 3 runs. Wildness by Flowers helped Duke score the tying run in the top of the 9th.

The Canes won in the bottom of the inning when two walks and a wild pitch put men on second and third with one out. Chico Montoya then lined a single through he middle for the win.

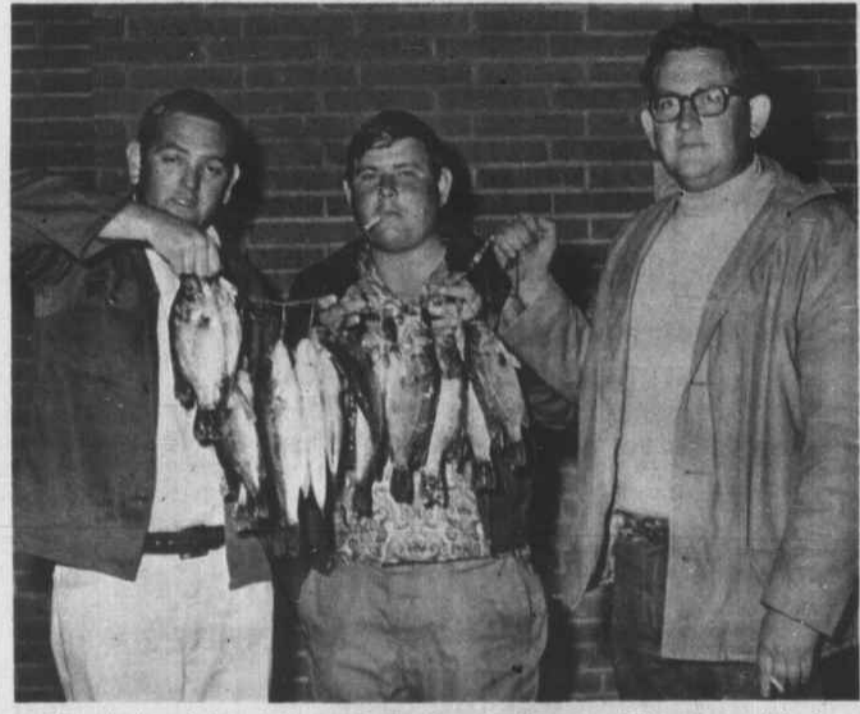

Danny West had 3 for 4 including a two run homer for the Canes. Tom Cox and Buster Sanderford also slammed round trippers for Louisburg.

'Canes Battle Braves For First Saturday

Chowan's Braves, with a 5-0 Cavalier-Tar Heel Conference record, and Louisburg's Hurricanes with 3-1 tangle here Saturday for the lead in the conference.

Chowan, with one of its strongest clubs in years, will probably start aces Jim Cherwa and Lewis Brooks. Dave Flowers and John Lewis will start for the Canes. Pete Carpenter and Steve Baker are the big sticks for Chowan while Tom Cox, Buster Sanderford, Dan West, and Chico Montoya are leading the Canes.
