GOLDEN TOUCH OF HOSPITALITY

BY JANE ASHLEY

Oriental Specialty

Recipes from the Orient have a special flavor and charm all their own. Far Eastern methods, such as quick cookery are welcome in American homes. For a delectable shrimp dish, try this one.

- Shrimp Oriental
- 1 1/2 teaspoons corn starch
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
 - 1 tablespoon dry sherry or lemon juice
 - 1 pound shrimp, shelled and deveined
 - 2 tablespoons corn oil
 - 1 scallion, chopped
- Mix corn starch, salt and ginger. Stir in sherry. Toss with shrimp, coating evenly. Heat corn oil in skillet. Add shrimp and saute over medium heat 5 to 7 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add scallions.
- Recipe makes 3 servings, serve on rice.

Extra Helping

A fat lady got on a scale and the hand went all the way around.

The little girl watching gasped and said, "Don't tell me you get all that for a penny."

Tall Tale

In Boston a minister noticed a group ofurchins standing around a dog of uncertain pedigree. "What are you doing, boys?" he asked benignly.

"Swapping lies," said one of the boys. "The fella who tells the biggest one will get the dog."

"Why, when I was your age, I never thought of telling a lie," said the minister shocked.

"You win," chorused the boys. "The dog is yours."

Teenagers Present Program

(FRK. B.W.) The Franklin Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Wilson Gup-ton's Thursday evening. Her home was decorated with permanent arrangements.

The Home Life Department presented the program, which was a panel discussion. Mrs. Courtney Heath introduced the program as "Talking with Teen-agers." She then recognized Karen Colbert, moderator, who explained that the panel members would discuss four subjects or problems that teenagers encounter frequently.

Richie Whitfield talked about today's fashions and gave her opinion of the appropriate time different types of clothes should be worn.

Bess Green talked about the advantages and disadvantages of today's system of public education.

Karen Colbert spoke about the generation gap and expressed her opinion of reasons why there is a gap.

Al Thompson talked about the draft and presented his opinions of whether there should be a draft, the war and men's willingness to fight.

A question-answer period concluded the program.

Mrs. Woodrow Haskins presided over the business session. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. R. C. Whitfield read the minutes.

Mrs. Julia Carr announced that the Red Cross Drive would be conducted the last week in April.

Mrs. Dewitt Van Arsdale, scholarship chairman, reported on the rules and regulations regarding the scholarship which the local club will award.

Mrs. Ray Pruette, chairman of the Education Department, announced that a book had been presented from the club to the town library in memory of Mrs. Mary Reid Hardison.

Mrs. R. C. Whitfield, co-chairman of Public Affairs Department, announced that Election Day was May 6 and filing deadline for Town Board, Mayor and School Board was April 18 at 12 Noon.

She distributed folders concerning the need for an implied consent law in North Carolina. She urged the clubwomen to mail in the coupon (which was in the folder) to the president of N. C. Traffic Safety Council. The implied consent means that a person, if arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated, is deemed to have given his consent in advance to a chemical test.

During the social period, members of the Home Life Department served lime sherbert punch, cheese wafers, nut roll, brownies, potato chips and peanuts.

Louisburg Garden Club Meets

Mr. Allen de Hart presented an interesting program Thursday to the Louisburg Garden Club on "Wildflowers of North Carolina", and gave a brief talk on the slides shown. Mr. de Hart had opened a nature trail at his home and he spoke of his interest in this hobby. He emphasized the beauty of these wild flowers that are native to North Carolina.

The club announced an outstanding program which has been scheduled for May 8. This program will be conducted by Mrs. Utt of Lynchburg, Virginia who is known for her outstanding arrangements. Neighboring clubs are invited to this program and an admission charge will be made. Plans are now being completed for this program by the Program Committee.

Hostesses for the Thursday meeting which was held at the First Citizens Bank Community Room were Mrs. Anne Allen, Mrs. Breatie O'Neal and Mrs. W. T. Sanderlin.

A Little Early

"I hear you have a boy in college. Is he going to become a doctor, an engineer, or a lawyer?"

"That I do not know," was the slow, wistful answer. "Right now the big question is: Is he going to become a sophomore?"

Engagements Announced

MARGARET GRANTHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Grantham of Salemburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Cecelia, to Donald Sidney Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Murphy of Louisburg. The wedding is planned for April 20 at the Sacred Heart Cathedral in Raleigh.

DONNA HAGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jones Hagwood of Route 1, Youngsville announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Elizabeth, to Harry Victor Bullock. He is the son of Mrs. Lima L. Bullock of Bunn and the late Mr. John T. Bullock. The wedding will take place July 6.

Elegant Austrian Pastry

The "original" Linzertorte has inspired many glamorous pastries based on a rich shortbread crust spread with jam. Baker's Angel Flake Coconut is used in this version, and it gives a chewy, toasted top layer. It's the kind of pastry you would enjoy in a Viennese coffeehouse, served up with plenty of hot coffee and comfortable gossip.

Linzer Coconut Squares

- 1-1/4 cups unsifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 3 tablespoons (about) cold water
- 2 eggs (at room temperature)
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 2-2/3 cups (about) flaked coconut
- 1/3 cup raspberry preserves

Combine flour and salt. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles large peas. Sprinkle with water, a small amount at a time, mixing lightly until all particles are moistened and cling together when pressed into a ball. Press pastry into ungreased 9-inch square pan. Bake at 425° for 20 minutes or until lightly browned.

Meanwhile, beat eggs until thick and light in color. Add sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Fold in coconut. Spread preserves over pastry in pan within 1/4 inch of edges. Carefully spread coconut mixture over preserves. Bake at 375° for 25 minutes, or until coconut top is golden. Cool. For cookies, cut into squares, about 1-1/4 inches each. For dessert servings, cut into larger bars, about 4x3 inches each. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar, if desired. Makes about 3 dozen cookies or 1 dozen dessert servings.
