

Roberts, Johnson Wed Saturday

On Saturday, April 12, in the Louisburg Baptist Church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Evelyn Ruth Johnson of Raleigh became the bride of Phillip Wade Roberts of Louisburg. The Reverend Floyd Benfield, pastor of the groom, officiated at a double-ring ceremony.

The church sanctuary was decorated with floor baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladiolus, emerald fern interspersed with seven and fifteen branched candelabra. Centering the altar was the white kneeling bench, on which the couple heard the final benediction.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. A. B. Strother of Louisburg, organist, aunt of the groom, presented a program of nuptial music. Accompanied by Mrs. Strother, Mrs. Floyd Benfield of Youngsville sang "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" and "Oh Promise Me".

Given in marriage by her brother, Sammy Johnson, the bride wore a gown of embroidered lace over silk organza featuring a squared neckline outlined with pearls and sequins, and a fitted bodice with long sleeves of embroidered lace. The lace outlined the front and the back forming a chapel train of organza scalloped with lace edges. Her fingertip veil was attached to a crown of seeded pearls. Her bridal bouquet was composed of white bridal roses, centered with a white Hybrid orchid tied with white satin streamers and net.

Mrs. Wayne Robinson of Roanoke Rapids, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her floor length gown was of rose silk organza featuring an empire waist line accented with miniature lace roses. Her custom made head piece was a bow of matching fabric from which fell a circular veil of silk illusion. She carried a long stem rose.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Billie Chalk of Rolesville, sister of the groom, Mrs. Tommy Denton of Louisburg, sister of the groom, and Miss Margie Naylor of Raleigh and Miss Jacque Witham of Raleigh, friends of the bride. They wore dresses and headpieces identical in style and color to that of the matron of honor and carried a long stem rose.

Mr. Tommy Beasley Denton of Louisburg, brother-in-law of the groom was best man. Ushers were Donald Wayne Hicks of Louisburg, Paul Harding of Wake Forest, Otha Hill of Youngsville and Wayne Robinson of Roanoke Rapids.

The bride's grandmother wore a black and white suit with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Roberts chose for her son's wedding an afternoon dress of pink satin with matching lace inserts with a matching hat and accessories. She too wore a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. C. A. Cooke of Louisburg directed the wedding.

Mrs. Roberts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morris Johnson of Route 2, Louisburg. She is a graduate of Gold Sand High School and also attended Hardbarger

Following the ceremony the couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church. For going away the bride wore a light blue linen suit with matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Following a wedding trip to unannounced points the couple will reside in Raleigh.

CAKE CUTTING

Mrs. Tommy Denton, Mrs. Billie Chalk, Mrs. Lillian Roberts and Miss Margie Naylor entertained members of the Roberts - Johnson wedding party, members of the family, and out-of-town guests at a cake cutting immediately following rehearsal Friday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the Louisburg Baptist Church.

Guest were greeted at the door by Miss Catherine Denton. The bride's table was covered with a white cut work cloth centered with a jewel candelier of pink candles with carnations and pompons. A crystal punch bowl was placed on one end of the table and a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was placed on the other end. After the couple had cut the cake, Miss Hazel Roberts of Youngsville, aunt of the groom, served cake. Mrs. Hillman Cash of Louisburg, aunt of the groom, poured punch. Others assisted in serving and receiving were Miss Nancy Carroll and Mrs. Drew Carroll of Youngsville. Approximately one hundred guest attended.

Shower Honors Bride-elect

Miss Phyllis Stallings was honored with a floating miscellaneous shower Saturday, April twelfth, in the Fellowship Hall of Cedar Rock Baptist Church. Hostesses were Mrs. O. T. Fisher, Mrs. T. O. Nelms, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Ensey Nelms and Mrs. Tommy Jeffreys of Raleigh.

A corsage of white carnations was presented the honor by the hostesses. The color scheme was white and yellow. The gift tables were covered with white cloths. The mantle was decorated with magnolia greenery, wedding bells, with white ribbon bows. The color was used effectively throughout the hall.

The bridal table was covered with a white cloth overlaid with yellow net and yellow ribbon bows tied at each corner interspersed with lilies of the valley. A white and yellow arrangement of mums, yellow and white daisies interspersed with net, ribbons and fern. Silver candelabra with burning white candles were on either side. A yellow fruit punch was served from a crystal service. Decorated cakes in white and yellow, mints and nuts were served.

Guest included Mrs. Billy Stallings, mother of the bride-elect, the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Nona Brewer. During the evening approximately fifty relatives and friends called.

Miss Stallings and Mr. M. G. Brewer will be married in Cedar Rock Baptist Church the twenty-seventh of April.

Thanks

I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Dr. Cole and Dr. Lloyd and to all the nurses on second (South Wing Section) and third floors of Franklin Memorial Hospital for being so kind and helpful during the time I was there. A special thanks to Rev. Snipes, my private nurses, and those who donated blood. I also wish to thank my friends and neighbors for their cards, flowers, prayers, and visits. Each of you will always be remembered.
