

Represented At Livestock Show

Franklin County will participate in the 24th Annual Junior Livestock Show and Sale to be held at the Durham County Fairgrounds April 17 and 18. Seven other counties will also be taking part in this event which features market steers and hogs shown and sold by 4-H and F.F.A. members.

The showing of swine will take place at 4:30 P.M. Thursday followed by the Steer Show at 7:00 P.M.

A judging contest for 4-H'ers and F.F.A. members will be conducted at 1:00

P.M., Friday, with the auction of steers and market hogs scheduled for 7:00 o'clock that evening.

Franklin County will be represented this year with steers from Herman and Warren Hawkins, Epsom; David and Billy Moss of Youngsville; Bryant Foster, Epsom; Martha Lou Leonard, Louisburg; and Marvin Richardson, Wood and with market hogs from Dexter Denton, Centerville; and Dan and Myra Harris of Justice.

We would urge as many as are able to give these youngsters encouragement by their attendance.

Bachelor Adopts Tots

Da Nang, Vietnam Seabee Glenn J. Palmer, a 24-year-old bachelor, is going home to Saint Regis Falls, N. Y., with a 4-year-old son and a 2-year-old daughter - both are war orphans. Palmer visited and helped out at an orphanage in his spare time and decided to adopt the two.

Participate In Flower Project

Pictured above are students of Mrs. Doris Wilder's Special Education Class at Louisburg Elementary School. Under the sponsorship of the Town and Country Garden Club, the students enthusiastically participated in a flower arranging project. Each student made an attractive arrangement, using fresh spring flowers, chicken wire, and containers, all provided by the Town and Country Garden Club. Club members working directly with the students Friday in the project were Mrs. Thomas A. Riggan, Mrs. James R. Grady and Mrs. Paul A. Brewer.
